2. Pursuant to order of the Court dated October 28, 2005 (the "Solicitation Procedures Order"), the Disclosure Statement and certain related materials (collectively, the "Solicitation Materials") have been approved for solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan.

3. A hearing to consider the confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Hearing") will be held before the Honorable Randolph Baxter, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Northern District of Ohio, 824 Market Street, 5th Floor, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 on December 15, 2005, at 1:30 p.m., prevailing Eastern time.

4. Pursuant to the Solicitation Procedures Order, the Court approved certain procedures for tabulation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. Ballot and return the completed Ballot to the address indicated on the Ballot so that it is received by 4:30 p.m. prevailing Eastern time on December 1, 2005 (the "Voting Deadline"). Any failure to follow the voting instructions included with the Ballot or to return a properly completed Ballot so that it is received by the Voting Deadline may disqualify your Ballot and your vote.

b. Your claim has been temporarily allowed solely for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan in accordance with the following tabulation rules approved by the Court in the Solicitation Procedures Order (collectively, the "Tabulation Rules"):

- Unless otherwise provided in the Tabulation Rules described below, a claim shall be deemed temporarily allowed for voting purposes in an amount equal to the amount of such claim as set forth in a timely filed proof of claim;

- If a claim is deemed allowed in accordance with the Plan, such claim shall be temporarily allowed for voting purposes in the deemed allowed amount set forth in the Plan;

- If a claim for which a proof of claim has been timely filed is marked as contingent, unliquidated or disputed on its face, such contingent, unliquidated or disputed claim shall be temporarily allowed for voting purposes in the amount of $1.00;

- If a claim has been estimated or otherwise allowed for voting purposes by order of the Court, such claim shall be temporarily allowed for voting purposes in the amount so estimated or allowed by the Court;

- If a claim is listed in the Debtors' schedules of assets and liabilities filed on November 4, 2003 (collectively with any subsequent amendments, the "Schedules") as contingent, unliquidated or disputed and a proof of claim was not timely filed, such claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes;

- If the Debtors have filed and served an objection to a claim at least 15 days before the Voting Deadline, such claim will be temporarily allowed or disallowed for voting purposes in accordance with the relief sought in the objection;

- If a claim holder identifies a claim amount on its Ballot that is less than the amount otherwise calculated in accordance with the Tabulation Rules, the claim will be temporarily allowed for voting purposes in the lesser amount identified on such Ballot.

c. The temporary allowance of your claim for voting purposes does not constitute an allowance of your claim for purposes of receiving distributions under the Plan, and is without prejudice to the rights of the Debtors in any other context, including the right of the Debtors to contest the amount, validity or classification of any claim, for purposes of allowance and distribution under the Plan (i.e. temporary disallowance of your claim). If you wish to challenge the temporary disallowance of your claim, for voting purposes, you must file a motion, pursuant to Rule 3018(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, for an order temporarily allowing your claim in a different amount for classification for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan and serve such motion on the Plan Proponents' counsel identified below so that it is received by the later of (a) November 23, 2005 and (b) ten days after the date of service of a notice of objection, if any, to your claim. Unless the Court orders otherwise, your claim will not be counted for voting purposes in excess of the amount as determined in accordance with the Tabulation Rules.
