INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law In particular types of cases or circumstances such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor there may be exceptions to the general rules

— DEFINITIONS —

Debtor

The person corporation or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor

Creditor

A creditor is any person corporation or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed

Proof of Claim

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim) This form must be filed with the court appointed Claims Agent Bankruptcy management Corporation at the address listed on the reverse side of this page

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car truck boat television set or other item of property A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before a bankruptcy case began in some states a court judgment is a lien In addition to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff) the creditor's claim may be a secured claim (See also Unsecured Claim)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not secured claim it is an unsecured claim A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims) The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example District of Delaware) the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case and the bankruptcy case number If you received a notice of the case from the Claims Agent Bankruptcy Management Corporation all of this information is near the top of the notice

Information about Creditor

If not already accurately pre-printed complete the section giving the name address and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property and the debtor's account number if any If (a) anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt (b) if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case (c) if your address differs from that to which the Claims Agent sent this notice or (d) if this proof of claim replaces or amends a proof of claim that was already filed check the appropriate boxes on the form

1 Basis for Claim

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed If the type of debt is not listed check Other' and briefly describe the type of debt If you were an employee of the debtor fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid

2 Date Debt Incurred

Fill in the date when the debt was first owed by the debtor

3 Court Judgments

If you have a court judgment for this debt state the date the court entered the judgment

4 Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges

5 Secured Claim

If your claim is a secured claim check the appropriate boxes in this section You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim attach copies of the documentation of your lien and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured (See DEFINITIONS above)

6 Unsecured Priority Claim

If your claim is an unsecured priority claim (See DEFINITIONS above) check the appropriate boxes in this section and state the amount entitled to priority A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if for example the claim is more than the amount given priority by the law Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim

7 Credits

By signing this proof of claim you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor

8 Supporting Documents

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or if the documents are too lengthy a summary of those documents If documents are not available you must attach an explanation of why they are not available

Please read – important information upon completion of this claim form you are certifying that the statements herein are true

Be sure to date the claim and place original signature of claimant or person making the claim for creditor where indicated at the bottom of the claim form Please type or print name of individual under the signature Be sure all items are answered on the claim form If not applicable insert Not Applicable

ABANDONMENT NOTICE

3 LAKES ESTATES
950 Airport Rd SE # 2
Albany, OR 97322

October10, 2002

2151 Three Lakes Rd SE #62
Albany, OR 97322

Kenneth & Susan Mallory

1. Abandoned Manufactured Home and Other Personal Property:
This notice is sent pursuant to Oregon law in order to notify you that the manufactured home (hereinafter "the Home") described as follows:

1995 Skyline 27x48 X#23539, vin#H010547AB

and all personal property inside the home or on the space upon which the home sits is considered abandoned. If you as lienholder, intend to move the home and other personal property from the space you must contact the person identified in Paragfraph5, below, (The Contact Person) Ray or Ruth Vetkos no later than November 25, 2002 (the "Deadline"). (This date may not be less than 45 days from the above date of mailing this letter.) All nonperishable personal property will be stored inside the home. If you fail to contact the Contact Person by the deadline or fail to remove the home within 30 days following the date you do contact the Contact Person, or by the removal date agreed to with the Contact Person, the home and other personal property will be conclusively presumed abandoned and the landlord may sell or otherwise dispose of the home and personal property in accordance with Oregon Law

2. Current Market Value of the Home: If the home is not removed within the time provided above and the landlord reasonably believes that its current market value is not over $3500 00 Oregon law permits the landlord to dispose of or destroy it without holding public or private sale. In this case, the landlord (X)does, ( ) does not, reasonably believe that the current market value is over $ 3500 00 and accordingly ( ) will (X) will not, dispose of the home without holding a public or private sale Provided, However, even if the landlord may decide to hold a private, in which case the tenant and others receiving this letter will be notified, just as if the market value was over $ 3,500.00 In all cases where there is a public or private sale, the landlord reserves the right to bid at the sale.

3. Additional Personal Property: In the case of personal property located in or around the home, if the landlord reasonably determines that the reasonable fair market value of such personal property is $ 500 00 or less, or so low that the cost of storage or public sale of such personal property would probably exceed the amount that would be realized from the sale, the landlord may destroy or otherwise dispose of it. In the case, the landlord ( ) does (X)does not reasonably believe that the reasonable fair market value is over $500 00, and accordingly, ( )will (X)will not, dispose of the personal property without holding a public or private sale. Provided, Even if the landlord indicates an intention to dispose of the personal property if circumstances permit, the landlord may decide to hold a public sale, in which case the tenant and others receiving this letter will be notified, just as if the market value was over $500 00 In all cases where there is a public or private sale, the landlord reserves the right to bid at the sale.

4. Reason For Abandonment - Storage Fees: If the tenancy of the home has ended by (A) termination or expiration of a rental agreement or relinquishment or abandonment of the premises and landlord reasonably believes the tenant has no intent to assert further claim to the premises, the home or other personal property, or (B) the tenant's absence from the premises continuously for over seven days after the termination of the tenancy by a court order that has not been executed, the landlord may require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the home and other personal property The landlord may not require the payment of storage charges if you vacate the home following service of a Notice of Restitution pursuant to ORS 105.154 and 105 165

5 Whom To Contact For Removal: The landlord will make the home and other personal property available to you for removal by appointment and at reasonable times If you, as lien claim the home or the personal property within the time provided above, you should contact the following to make arrangement for removal:

Contact Person:	Ray or Ruth Vetkos
Address:	950 Airport Rd SE # 23, Albany, OR 97322
Phone:	(541) 926-6360

6. Lienholder(S): The home ( ) is, (X) is not, subject to one or more liens of record. A copy of this letter must be sent by first class mail to said lienholder(s). Landlord must obtain a certificate of mailing to any lienholder(s) The personal property is( ) is not(X), subject to one of more liens of record. A copy of this letter must be sent by first class mail to said lienholder(s) Landlord must obtain a certificate of mailing to any lienholders
