INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law In particular types of cases or circumstances such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor there may be exceptions to the general rules

— DEFINITIONS —

Debtor

The person corporation or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor

Creditor

A creditor is any person corporation or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed

Proof of Claim

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim) This form must be filed with the court appointed Claims Agent Bankruptcy management Corporation at the address listed on the reverse side of this page

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car truck boat television set or other item of property A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before a bankruptcy case began in some states a court judgment is a lien In addition to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff) the creditor s claim may be a secured claim (See also Unsecured Claim)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not secured claim it is an unsecured claim A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims) The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example District of Delaware) the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case and the bankruptcy case number If you received a notice of the case from the Claims Agent Bankruptcy Management Corporation all of this information is near the top of the notice

Information about Creditor

If not already accurately pre-printed omplete the section giving the name address and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property and the debtor's account number if any If (a) anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt (b) if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case (c) if your address differs from that to which the Claims Agent sent this notice or (d) if this proof of claim replaces or amends a proof of claim that was already filed check the appropriate boxes on the form

1 Basis for Claim

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed If the type of debt is not listed check Other' and briefly describe the type of debt If you were an employee of the debtor fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid

2 Date Debt Incurred

Fill in the date when the debt was first owed by the debtor

3 Court Judgments

If you have a court judgment for this debt state the date the court entered the judgment

4 Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges

5 Secured Claim

If your claim is a secured claim check the appropriate boxes in this section You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim attach copies of the documentation of your lien and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured (See DEFINITIONS above)

6 Unsecured Priority Claim

If you claim is an unsecured priority claim (See DEFINITIONS above) check the appropriate boxes in this section and state the amount entitled to priority A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if for example the claim is more than the amount given priority by the law Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim

7 Credits

By signing this proof of claim you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor

8 Supporting Documents

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or if the documents are too lengthy a summary of those documents If documents are not available you must attach an explanation of why they are not available

Please read – Important information upon completion of this claim form you are certifying that the statements herein are true

Be sure to date the claim and place original signature of claimant or person making the claim for creditor where indicated at the bottom of the claim form Please type or print name of individual under the signature Be sure all items are answered on the claim form If not applicable insert Not Applicable

AFFIDAVIT OF GEORGE M YODER, III

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
COUNTY OF HINDS

Personally came and appeared before me, the undersigned authority in and for the jurisdiction aforesaid, the within named George M Yoder, III, who after being by me first duly sworn, on oath deposed and said the following

1 My name is George M Yoder, III I am over the age of 18 and am competent to testify to the matters set forth herein

2 I represent the above-named Plaintiff Sophia Parson, who filed their original lawsuit in Noxubee County, Mississippi, Cause No 2002-187 The case was subsequently removed to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi on a number of theories, all of which are opposed by Plaintiffs

3 I am presently attempting to be admitted pro hac vice in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois for purposes of filing a motion to lift the automatic stay to the extent insurance coverage exists which would pay for these claims

4 The claims against pertinent Conseco entities are as follows Plaintiff approached Defendants for the purchase of a new mobile home Defendants Mitchell and/or Milons told her that bad credit or lack thereof was of no consequence in her financing for a new home, which would be approved Defendants Mitchell and/or Milons further advised that it would be in Plaintiff's best interests to purchase a new home because the financing fees, expenses and related charges for a used home would be the same as it would be for a used home Defendants advised that Plaintiff would have to pay a down payment of $2,000 00, for a new home but that Defendants Mitchell and/or Milons would handle the financing for a new home if Plaintiff paid $500 per month Plaintiff paid her first payment of $500 to Defendants Defendants then advised that her loan had been approved but that it was only approved toward the purchase of a used mobile home Plaintiff told Defendants she was no longer interested and requested a full refund of the $500 00 down payment Defendants have failed to refund any part of Plaintiff's money

5 Plaintiffs' had an "insurance commodity" rolled into their installment contract/security agreement which basically charged an excessive amount of money for worthless or overvalued insurance Plaintiff's claims also include, but are not necessarily limited to, breach of contract and/or tortuous breach of contract, conversion, breach of warranties, fraud and promissory fraud, breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, breach of fiduciary duty, civil conspiracy, violation Mississippi Statutes and insurance fraud, fraudulent inducement, fraudulent concealment, negligent and/or intentional misrepresentation, negligent and/or intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligence and gross negligence, and unconscionable conduct under the Mississippi Uniform Commercial Code As a direct result of Defendants' tortuous conduct, Plaintiffs incurred damages Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend their complaint to conform with evidence
