In Re: Cano Petroleum, Inc., et al.
Case No. 12-31549-bjh-11
Jointly Administered (Chapter 11)

Dear Ms. Marshall,

With this letter, I object to the Trustee's Omnibus Objection to Certain Proofs of Claim Based on the Debtors' Books and Records.

My name appears on Schedule C attached to the Trustee's Omnibus Objection. It should not be on Schedule C, for two reasons:

- First, I received a notice of the bankruptcy filing, along with a claim form. This is evidence that I have a history or a business relationship with at least one of the Debtors.

- Second, my brother, William C. Jackson, and I own identical mineral interests. He filed a claim that was exactly like mine, except for his name and address. His name does not appear on Schedule C. This is further evidence that I have a history or a business relationship with at least one of the Debtors.

I request the Court to direct the Trustee to remove my name from Schedule C.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Lewis Jackson
