NOTICE OF SALE OR ABANDONMENT OF DE MINIMIS ASSETS (THE "NOTICE")

This Notice is provided to you pursuant to that certain order of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Court") authorizing and approving expedited procedures for the sale or abandonment of De Minimis Assets entered as of May 21, 2003 (the "Court Order").[2]

Pursuant to the Court Order, the Debtors are authorized to: (a) sell De Minimis Assets pursuant to certain procedures (the "Sale Procedures"); and (b) abandon De Minimis Assets pursuant to certain procedures (the "Abandonment Procedures").

The Sale Procedures require the Debtors to send this Notice to certain parties (the "Sale Notice Parties") for any sale of De Minimis Assets in any individual transaction or series of related transactions to a single buyer or a group of related buyers (excluding transactions with "insiders," if any, as defined in section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code) with a selling price equal to or less than $2,500,000 that the Debtors determine in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment to be in the best interests of their estates (the "Sale"). If none of the Sale Notice Parties objects to the Sale within ten calendar days (excluding the date of service) after the date of the Notice (the "Ten-Day Period") in accordance with the Opposition Procedures (described below), then the Debtors may submit a Certificate of No Objection and a proposed order to the Court, and upon the Court's entering of such order or other order authorizing the Sale, the Debtors may immediately sell the subject De Minimis Assets. If an objection is received within the Ten-Day Period that cannot be resolved, the De Minimis Assets will not be sold except upon further order of the Court after notice and hearing.

The Abandonment Procedures require the Debtors to send this Notice to all parties that have expressed an interest in purchasing such De Minimis Assets, and to known affected creditors asserting a lien on any De Minimis Assets (except that counsel to Exxon Mobile Corporation shall also receive notice of any assets abandoned by Dunigan Fuels, Inc.) (the "Abandonment Notice Parties") for any abandonment of De Minimis Assets that the Debtors determine in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment to be in the best interests of their estates (the "Abandonment"). If none of the Abandonment Notice Parties objects to the proposed Abandonment within the Ten-Day Period in accordance with the Opposition Procedures, the Debtors are authorized to proceed with the Abandonment without further order of this Court. If you oppose the Sale or Abandonment of the De Minimis Assets, you must follow the procedures (the "Opposition Procedures") delineated below.
