ORDER DIRECTING CLERK NOT TO FILE THE AFFIDAVIT OF BOBBY K. COOPER AND DENYING ANY RELIEF SOUGHT THEREBY

In these jointly administered bankruptcy cases, one of the debtors was Pacifica of the Valley Corporation ("Pacifica"), Case No. 02-02253 jointly administered with other cases under Case No. 02-02250. Bobby K. Cooper filed a document on October 15, 2003, which has been placed in the claims file for Case No. 02-02253. In that document, Cooper indicates that he is in the process of completing a proof of claim form, and alleges that he suffered injuries in 2001 at the hands of employees and physicians of Pacifica. He thus may be asserting that he has a medical malpractice claim against the debtor, but it is theoretically possible that the claim arises from conduct other than medical treatment (for example, a slip and fall caused by negligence of hospital employees and physicians).

In any event, the document filed on October 15, 2003, did not set forth any amount claimed as owed, and was not submitted on the proof of claim form that is required by F.R. Bankr. P. 3001(a). Accordingly, if he failed to file a proper proof of claim, he has no allowed claim for a dollar amount that can lead to any payment under the confirmed plan. Cooper ought to contact an attorney to advise him regarding what steps, if any, he can take now to recover on his claim.

A plan has been confirmed in these cases. A copy was sent to all creditors, and a copy of the order confirming the plan with modifications was sent to all creditors. Although the plan set up a trust (the DCHC Liquidating Trust) which is being administered by Samuel J. Alberts for the benefit of some unsecured creditors, the confirmed plan provided that the reorganized debtors would retain responsibility for paying certain claims for medical malpractice and certain other claims.

On September 1, 2005, Cooper wrote the clerk of this court, complaining that Sam J. Alberts would not return his telephone calls, and attaching a letter to the United States Trustee in which he stated that Alberts' secretary told him to call the debtor (Pacifica Hospital of the Valley) whose David A. Denslaw, in turn, “did attempt to rebut my United States District Court Case over the telephone.” His September 1, 2005, letter asked the clerk to forward him “a complete disclosure of the case,” and to forward him “the disposition of my claim, and/or the percentage I may receive from the liquidated assets of the corporations, and/or any and all scheduled, and/or unscheduled compensation to me, Bobby K. Cooper.” On September 14, 2005, the clerk responded by a letter explaining to Cooper how he could obtain copies of any papers in the case.

On November 3, 2005, Cooper submitted to the clerk a rambling Affidavit in which Cooper accuses various persons of “subordination [sic] of perjury,” perjury, fraud, corruption, conspiracy to defraud Cooper, accepting bribes, and other misconduct. The court will direct the clerk not to accept the Affidavit for filing, and will deny the Affidavit if it was intended as a motion.

To the extent that the Affidavit is a request for information from the clerk, the clerk's letter of September 14, 2005, already explained the procedure for obtaining information from the court.

To the extent the Affidavit seeks relief in the form of an order from the court, the Affidavit is not in proper form for seeking relief from this court; is unclear in precisely what relief is sought; was not served on any party against whom relief is sought; and fails to set forth adequate grounds for this court to grant any relief. It is thus

ORDERED that the clerk shall not accept for filing and shall not docket the Affidavit of Bobby K. Cooper received on November 3, 2005. It is further ORDERED that to the extent to the extent that the Affidavit was intended as a motion seeking relief from the court it is DENIED. It is further ORDERED that Bobby K. Cooper is strongly encouraged to obtain the services of an attorney to advise him regarding whether Cooper can pursue his claim and to assist him in any pursuit of the claim.
