DEFINITIONS

Debtor
A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor
A creditor is the person, corporation, or other entity owed a debt by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a)
A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim
An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Redacted
A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Evidence of Perfection
Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Offers to Purchase a Claim
Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Plan Sponsor:	G.I. Joe's, Inc.
Contact:	Mr. Phil Pepin
Address:	9805 SW Boeckman Road Wilsonville, OR 97070
Telephone:	(503) 570-1366	Fax:	(503) 682-7200
Plan Name(s):	G.I. Joe's, Inc. Defined Benefit Pension Plan
Milliman Office:	Seattle, Washington	Milliman Service Effective Date:	September 1, 2004

This Agreement is entered into between Milliman, Inc. ("Milliman") and G.I. Joe's, Inc. ("Plan Sponsor") as of September 1, 2004. Plan Sponsor has engaged Milliman to perform consulting services as described in Schedule A attached hereto. Such services may be modified from time to time and may also include general actuarial consulting services. In consideration for Milliman agreeing to perform these services, Plan Sponsor agrees as follows:

1. Engagement Terms

Plan Sponsor acknowledges the obligation to pay Milliman for services rendered, whether arising from Plan Sponsor's request or otherwise necessary as a result of this engagement, at Milliman's standard hourly billing rates for the personnel utilized plus all out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Milliman will bill Plan Sponsor periodically for services rendered and expenses incurred. All invoices are payable upon receipt. Milliman reserves the right to stop all work if any bill goes unpaid for 60 days. Furthermore, Milliman's engagement may be terminated upon 90 days' written notice by Milliman or Plan Sponsor. Regardless of the reason for termination of services, Milliman shall be entitled to payment for services completed prior to such termination, and Milliman shall retain any records it has relating to Plan Sponsor plans for a period of at least three years from date of termination. If Milliman's assistance is reasonably required past termination, such services shall be provided at Milliman's then-standard hourly rate unless another basis is agreed to by both parties.

2. Handling of Data and Other Confidential Information

Milliman shall use reasonable efforts to identify errors in data and obtain corrections to erroneous data, but Milliman cannot warrant the correctness of data supplied by Plan Sponsor or other parties, nor can Milliman be responsible for data not provided in a timely manner.

Any information received from Plan Sponsor will be considered "Confidential Information." However, information received from Plan Sponsor will not be considered Confidential Information if (a) the information is or comes to be generally available to the public during the course of Milliman's work; (b) was independently developed by Milliman without resort to information from Plan Sponsor; or (c) Milliman receives the information from another source who is not under an obligation of confidentiality to Plan Sponsor. Milliman agrees that Confidential Information shall not be disclosed to any third party.

3. Tool Development

Milliman shall retain all rights, title, and interest (including, without limitation, all copyrights, patents, service marks, trademarks, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights) in and to all technical or internal designs, methods, ideas, concepts, know-how, techniques, generic documents, and templates that have been previously developed by Milliman or developed during the course of the provision of the Services, provided such generic documents or templates do not contain any Plan Sponsor Confidential Information or proprietary data. Rights and ownership by Milliman of original technical designs, methods, ideas, concepts, know-how, and techniques shall not extend to or include all or any part of Plan Sponsor's proprietary data or Plan Sponsor Confidential Information. To the extent that Milliman may include in the materials any pre-existing Milliman proprietary information or other protected Milliman materials, Milliman agrees that Plan Sponsor shall be deemed to have a fully paid up license to make copies of the Milliman-owned materials as part of this engagement for its internal business purposes and provided such materials cannot be modified or distributed outside Plan Sponsor without the written permission of Milliman.

4. Limitation of Liability

Milliman will perform all services in accordance with applicable professional standards. The parties agree that Milliman shall not be liable to Plan Sponsor, whether in tort, contract, or otherwise, for any damages in excess of five (5) times the total professional fees paid to Milliman during the 12-month plan-year cycle during which the work in question is performed. In no event shall Milliman be liable for lost profits of Plan Sponsor or any other type of incidental or consequential damages. The foregoing limitations shall not apply in the event of the intentional fraud or willful misconduct of Milliman. The provisions of this section will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

5. Disputes

(a) Mediation. In the event of any dispute arising out of or relating to the engagement of Milliman by Plan Sponsor, the parties agree first to try in good faith to settle the dispute voluntarily with the aid of an impartial mediator who will attempt to facilitate negotiations. A dispute will be submitted to mediation by written notice to the other party or parties. The mediator will be selected by agreement by the parties. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, a mediator will be designated by the American Arbitration Association at the request of a party.

The mediation will be treated as a settlement discussion and therefore will be confidential. Any applicable statute of limitations will be tolled during the pendency of the mediation. Each party will bear its own costs in the mediation. The fees and expenses of the mediator will be shared equally by the parties.

(b) Arbitration. If the dispute has not been resolved within 60 days after the written notice beginning the mediation process (or a longer period, if the parties agree to extend the mediation), the mediation will terminate, and the dispute will be resolved by final and binding arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration will take place in Seattle, Washington, before a panel of three arbitrators. Within 30 days of the commencement of the arbitration, each party will designate in writing a single neutral and independent arbitrator. The two arbitrators designated by the parties will then select a third arbitrator. The arbitrators will have a sufficient background in either employee benefits, actuarial science, or law to reasonably prepare them to decide a dispute. The arbitrators will have the authority to permit limited discovery, including depositions, prior to the arbitration hearing, and such discovery will be conducted consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The arbitrators will have no power or authority to award punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrators may, in their discretion, award the cost of the arbitration, including reasonable attorney fees, to the prevailing party. Any award made may be confirmed in any court having jurisdiction. Any arbitration shall be confidential, and except as required by law, neither party may disclose the content or results of any arbitration hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties, except that disclosure is permitted to a party's auditors and legal advisors.

6. No Third-party Distribution

Milliman's work is prepared solely for the internal business use of Plan Sponsor. Milliman's work may not be provided to third parties without Milliman's prior written consent. Milliman understands that Plan Sponsor may want to distribute some of Milliman's reports to its auditors in connection with the preparation of the financial statements of the Plan or of Plan Sponsor. Milliman will consent to such distribution as long as each work product is distributed in its entirety. Milliman does not intend to benefit any third-party recipient of its work product, including the auditor, and does not intend to create any legal duty from Milliman to the auditor even if Milliman's work product is so distributed. In the event that any audit reveals any error or inaccuracy in the data underlying this report, Milliman requests that the auditor notify Milliman as soon as possible. Milliman's work may include the preparation of certain government forms. Milliman consents to the release of these forms to the applicable agency. Any additional release of any Milliman work product by Plan Sponsor requires prior written consent by Milliman.

7. Status of Milliman

Milliman will provide the services covered by this Agreement as an independent contractor. No other relationship to Plan Sponsor or the Plan is implied or intended. Milliman shall not be deemed to be a "named fiduciary" or "plan administrator" as these terms are defined under ERISA or any similar or successor law.

8. Choice of Law

The construction, interpretation, and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive contract law of the State of New York without regard to its conflict of laws provisions. In the event any provision of this Agreement is unenforceable as a matter of law, the remaining provisions will stay in full force and effect.
