3. As set forth in the Objection, the Debtors seek the entry of an order disallowing certain pension-related claims because they assert liabilities to which the Debtors have no liability.

4. On March 2, 2010 at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Eastern Time, a hearing (the "Hearing") on the Objection will be held before the Honorable Martin Glenn, United States Bankruptcy Judge, in Courtroom 501 at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Alexander Hamilton Custom House, One Bowling Green, New York, New York 10004-1408.

- The name of the claimant and description of the bases for the amount of the underlying claim;

- A concise statement setting forth the reasons why the Court should not sustain the Objection, including, but not limited to, the specific factual and legal bases upon which the Claimant will rely in opposing the Objection;

- A copy of any documentation or other evidence of the claim upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Objection at the Hearing, to the extent that such documentation or evidence is not included with the claimant's proof of claim;

- A declaration of a person with personal knowledge of the relevant facts that support the Response unless the claimant intends to rely solely on the documents submitted with the claimant's proof of claim and Response; and

- The name(s), address(es), telephone number(s), facsimile number(s) and e-mail address(es) of the person(s) (who may be the claimant and/or the claimant's legal representative) to whom the Debtors' attorneys should serve any reply to the Response.

If you or your designated representative or attorney do file a Response and the matter is not otherwise resolved, it will be presented to the Court at the Hearing. Only those Responses made in accordance with the above-referenced requirements and timely filed and received by the Court and the Debtors' attorneys will be considered by the Court at the Hearing. If you fail to respond in accordance with this Notice, the Court may grant the relief requested in the Objection without further notice or hearing.

OMNIBUS OBJECTION OF DEBTORS AND DEBTORS IN POSSESSION SEEKING TO DISALLOW CERTAIN PENSION CLAIMS FILED BY CURRENT OR FORMER EMPLOYEES OF THE DEBTORS (OMNIBUS OBJECTION NO. 12)

CLAIMANTS RECEIVING THIS OBJECTION SHOULD LOCATE THEIR NAME AND CLAIM(S) ON THE ATTACHED EXHIBIT 1.

TO THE HONORABLE MARTIN GLENN
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Oldco M Corporation (f/k/a Metaldyne Corporation) and 30 of its domestic direct and indirect subsidiaries, as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), respectfully represent as follows:

Background

1. On May 27, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). By an order entered on May 29, 2009, the Debtors' chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession, pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On June 4, 2009, pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code, the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (Docket No. 129), as subsequently amended (Docket No. 248).

3. Oldco M Corporation (f/k/a/ Metaldyne Corporation) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Metaldyne Holdings LLC ("Metaldyne Holdings"), which, in turn, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Asahi Tec Corporation ("Asahi Tec"), a Japanese corporation. RHJ International S.A. ("RHJI"), a corporation formed under the laws of Belgium and listed on the Euronext exchange, presently holds approximately 60.1% of the outstanding capital stock of Asahi Tec. Debtor MD Products Corp. ("MD Products") is a New York corporation. Oldco M Corporation is the direct or indirect parent of MD Products, each of the other Debtors and each of the Debtors' nondebtor subsidiaries (collectively, the "Oldco M Companies"). As of the Petition Date, the Oldco M Companies were leading global manufacturers of highly engineered metal components for the global light vehicle market and among the 50 largest auto parts suppliers in North America.

4. Shortly after the Petition Date, the Debtors filed motions (Docket Nos. 214 and 323) to sell a majority of their assets and to establish an auction process or processes and bid procedures to consummate these sales, and also began the process of marketing their other business units for sale (collectively, the "Sale Processes"). On August 5, 2009 and August 6, 2009, the Debtors held an auction (the "Auction"), pursuant to which MD Investors Corporation ("MD Investors") presented a bid for the assets, which included a cash component, a credit bid component and other consideration. On August 12, 2009, the Court entered an order (Docket No. 674) (the "Sale Order") authorizing the sale to MD Investors (the "MD Investors Transaction") of substantially all of the Debtors' assets free and clear of all liens, claims, interests and encumbrances. The MD Investors Transaction closed on October 16, 2009.

5. The Debtors are in the process of winding down and liquidating their remaining assets and seeking confirmation of a plan of liquidation in these cases. To that end, on January 11, 2010, the Debtors filed their Second Amended Joint Plan of Liquidation of Debtors and Debtors in Possession (Docket No. 1180) (as it may be amended, the "Plan") and the related Disclosure Statement (the "Disclosure Statement"). Also on January 11, 2010, the Court entered an order (Docket No. 1187) approving the Disclosure Statement and scheduling a hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan to commence on February 23, 2010.

6. For the fiscal year ended March 29, 2009, the Oldco M Companies recorded annual revenue of approximately $1.32 billion, of which approximately $782 million was from sales of the Debtors. As of March 29, 2009, utilizing book values, the Oldco M

Companies had assets of approximately $977 million and liabilities of approximately $927 million.

Background Regarding the Claims Process

7. On July 7, 2009, the Debtors filed their respective schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs (Docket Nos. 361-391) (collectively, the "Schedules"). By an order entered on July 7, 2009 (Docket No. 394) (the "Bar Date Order"), the Court established August 14, 2009 as the general bar date for creditors to file proofs of claim asserting prepetition liabilities against the Debtors (the "General Bar Date").

8. After the entry of the Bar Date Order, the Debtors provided notice of the Bar Dates to all known creditors and potential creditors in accordance with the requirements of the Bar Date Order. Over 3,500 proofs of claim have been filed in these cases to date. Approximately 1,000 additional claims are deemed filed pursuant to section 1111(a) of the Bankruptcy Code due to their identification in the Schedules.

9. On October 9, 2009, the Debtors filed the Motion of Debtors and Debtors in Possession for an Order, Pursuant to Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3007, Authorizing the Filing of Omnibus Claim Objections (Docket No. 850) (the "Rule 3007 Motion"). On October 30, 2009, the Court entered an order granting the Rule 3007 Motion (Docket No. 934) (the "Rule 3007 Order"). By the Rule 3007 Order, the Court authorized the Debtors and any trustee or other estate representative appointed under section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, among other things, to file omnibus objections seeking reduction, reclassification and/or disallowance of claims on additional grounds that are not enumerated in Rule 3007(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"). These additional grounds include pension claims for which the Debtors assert that they are not liable.

Jurisdiction

10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Requested Relief

11. Pursuant to sections 105 and 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and the Rule 3007 Order, the Debtors hereby seek the entry of an order disallowing claims filed by or on behalf of the claimants identified on Exhibit 1 (collectively, with any transferees, the "Claimants"). Specifically, the Debtors seek the entry of an order disallowing claims related to a qualified defined benefit pension plan under Title IV of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") (the "Pension Claims"), on the attached Exhibit 1 because they are not valid liabilities of the Debtors or their estates, but instead have become liabilities of the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (the "PBGC"). In support of this Objection, the Debtors submit the Declaration of Daphne Corry Hoppenrath, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and incorporated by reference herein.

Request to Disallow the Pension Claims

12. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors were sponsors of the Metaldyne Corporation Pension Plan (the "Plan"), a qualified defined benefit pension plan covered by Title IV of ERISA. Many of the plan participants have filed numerous claims — making up the Pension Claims — asserting liabilities owed to them under the Plan.

13. The PBGC is a federal government agency that administers the qualified defined benefit pension plan termination insurance program established by Title IV of ERISA. When a pension plan terminates without sufficient assets to pay all of its promised benefits, the PBGC typically becomes the trustee of the plan and pays the plan participants their pension benefits subject to certain statutory limits. See 29 U.S.C. §§ 1321, 1322, 1341,1344, 1361. Here, the PBGC involuntarily terminated the Debtors' qualified defined benefit pension plan effective July 31, 2009.

14. Pursuant to ERISA, the Debtors are obligated to the PBGC (not the individual plan participants) for the "total amount of the unfunded benefit liabilities (as of the termination date) to all participants and beneficiaries under the plan . . . ." 29 U.S.C. § 1362(b)(1)(A). After the termination of a qualified defined benefit pension plan, the PBGC is the only entity entitled to recover from an employer on account of unfunded benefit liabilities. See United Steelworkers of Am. v. United Eng'g, Inc., 52 F.3d 1386, 1389-90 (6th Cir. 1995) (holding that the PBGC was the sole entity entitled to assert claims arising from the termination of qualified defined benefit plans and observing that the text of ERISA "strongly implies that Congress intended the PBGC to be the sole source of recovery of payment to employees"); Ricke v. Armco, Inc., 882 F. Supp. 896, 901 (D. Minn. 1995) (holding that plan participants may not sue for non-guaranteed benefits under certain amendments to ERISA); Int'l Ass'n of Machinists & Aerospace Workers v. Rome Cable Corp., 810 F. Supp. 402, 407 (N.D.N.Y. 1993) ("It would be counterproductive indeed to find that the employer would, following a distress termination, be liable not only to the PBGC but also remain liable to the plan participants and beneficiaries."); In re Adams Hard Facing Co., 129 B.R. 662, 663 (W.D. Okla. 1991) (disallowing the direct claims for non-guaranteed benefits filed by pension plan participants where the PBGC had filed similar claims); cf. In re Lineal Group, Inc., 226 B.R. 608, 612-13 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. 1998) (concluding that participants' direct claims for the differential between their full retirement benefits and the amount they would receive from the PBGC are preempted by ERISA). Indeed, in the Debtors' cases, the PBGC has itself made a claim for the Debtors' underfunded pension obligations and asserted other claims against the Debtors' estates on account of the Pan that was terminated by the PBGC. See Claim Nos. 2694-2696 (asserting liabilities owed under the Pan).

15. Because the Debtors have determined that the Claimants holding the Pension Claims have no right to payment, any payment made on account of the Pension Claims would duplicate payments made by the Debtors to the PBGC for the same liability. Moreover, the Claimants, if they hold valid claims, are entitled by law to receive any guaranteed pension benefits from the PBGC. Accordingly, by this Objection and pursuant to section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek to disallow and expunge the Pension Claims. This Objection is not an objection to the claims filed by the PBGC.

16. Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a court to disallow a claim when "such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under an agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured." 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1). The Debtors respectfully submit that the Pension Claims cannot, as a matter of law, state an allowable claim against the Debtors because the Debtors' obligations under the Plan are claims that belong to the PBGC — not the individual Claimants — even where they are beneficiaries of the Plan.

Reservation of Rights

17. The Debtors reserve the right to object further to each of the Pension Claims on any and all additional factual or legal grounds. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Debtors specifically reserve the right to amend this Objection, file additional papers in support of this Objection or take other appropriate actions, including to: (a) respond to any allegation or defense that may be raised in a Response — filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and orders of this Court — by or on behalf of any of the Claimants or other interested parties; (b) object further to the amount and/or classification of a Pension Claim for which a Claimant provides (or attempts to provide) documentation or substantiation; (c) object further to the amount and/or classification of a Pension Claim based on additional information that may be discovered upon further review by the Debtors or through discovery pursuant to the applicable provisions of Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules; and (d) in the event the Debtors deem it necessary, redesignate this Objection as to any particular Pension Claim. In addition, as described above, the Debtors reserve and retain their rights to object to any surviving claim on any and all available grounds.

Notice

18. Pursuant to the Administrative Order, Pursuant to Rule 1015(c) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Establishing Case Management and Scheduling Procedures (Docket No. 133) (the "Case Management Order"), entered on June 5, 2009, notice of this Objection has been given to the parties identified on the Special Service List, the General Service List (as such terms are defined in the Case Management Order) and the Claimants on the attached Exhibit 1. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided under the circumstances.

No Prior Request

19. No prior request for the relief sought in this Objection has been made to this or any other court in connection with these chapter 11 cases.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court: (a) enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 granting the relief requested herein; and (b) grant such other and further relief to the Debtors as the Court may deem proper.

[1] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Objection.

6. Each of the Pension Claims asserts a claim that relates, or appears to relate, to a qualified defined benefit pension plan under ERISA. In many cases, I identified the claims in this category as Pension Claims because the Claimants attached a MassMutual statement (as MassMutual was the Debtors' pension administrator), a letter from the Debtors regarding the employees' pension, other documents that would identify these claims as being pension-related, or other information set forth on the proof of claim form that revealed that the claim relates to an ERISA-qualified defined benefit pension plan.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing statements are true and correct.
