IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

In re: EXIDE TECHNOLOGIES, ET AL., Debtors.	Chapter 11 Case No. 02-11125 (KJC) Jointly Administered

AFFIDAVIT OF PETER D. WOLFSON IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS TO EMPLOY AND RETAIN SONNENSCHEIN NATH & ROSENTHAL AS SPECIAL LITIGATION COUNSEL PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§ 1103 AND 327(e)

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

PETER D. WOLFSON being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

1. I am a member of the law firm of Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal ("Sonnenschein"), which maintains an office for the practice of law at 1221 Avenue of the Americas, 24th Floor, New York, NY 10020. I am a member in good standing of the bar of, and am admitted to practice in, the State of New York, the United States District Courts for the Southern District of New York and the Eastern District of New York, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second, Third, and Fifth Circuits. This Affidavit is submitted in support of the application ("Application") of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases of Exide Technologies and certain of its subsidiaries, each of which is a debtor and debtor-in-possession herein (the "Debtors"), to employ and retain Sonnenschein, nunc pro tunc to December 4, 2002, as special litigation counsel to the Committee pursuant to Sections 1103 and 327(e) of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), as well as to provide disclosure required under Rule 2014(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure ("Bankruptcy Rules"). Unless otherwise stated in this Affidavit, I have personal knowledge of the facts as set forth herein[1].

2. In connection with the representation of the Committee as its special litigation counsel, it is anticipated that Sonnenschein will serve as special counsel to prosecute (including, without limitation, to pursue any appeals), the claims and causes of action (the "Bank Litigation") with respect to the Debtors' Pre-Petition Lenders (the "Pre-Petition Lenders") and the agent for the Pre-Petition Lenders (the "Pre-Petition Agent"), including, without limitation, advising and representing the Committee with respect to the following:

a. Analyzing the possible claims of and against the Pre-Petition Lenders and the Pre-Petition Agent, including the bases underlying each; and

b. Pursuing the Bank Litigation.

3. To the best of my knowledge and information, neither I, Sonnenschein, nor any partner, counsel or associate of Sonnenschein holds or represents any interests adverse to the Debtors regarding the matters upon which Sonnenschein is to be employed.

4. Sonnenschein has conducted a series of searches of its records to identify representations and relationships with creditors and other parties-in-interest (or potential parties-in-interest) in respect of the Debtors. In addition, Sonnenschein has searched its records to identify representations and potential relationships with the following entities, the names of which have been provided to Sonnenschein by the Committee: (a) the Debtors and their Domestic and Foreign Affiliates; (b) Pre-Petition Lenders and Holders of Securitization Notes;

[1] Certain of the disclosures herein relate to matters within the knowledge of other attorneys at Sonnenschein and are based on information provided by them.

(c) Unsecured Creditors; (c) Indenture Trustees; (d) Current and Recent Officers and Directors; (e) Equity Holders Holding More Than 5% of Equity in the Company; (e) Insurance Companies and Insurance Premium Finance Companies; (f) Unions; and (g) Miscellaneous entities.

5. Exhibit A lists all of the entities that were reviewed for potential connections with Sonnenschein.

6. Sonnenschein, which has more than six hundred (600) attorneys in nine (9) U.S. locations, has a large and diversified legal practice which encompasses the representation of many financial institutions and commercial corporations, some of which may be or become claimants or equity security holders in these pending chapter 11 cases or otherwise have an interest in such pending cases. Notwithstanding its size, Sonnenschein will make every effort to disclose each involvement that it has ever had with the Debtors. Sonnenschein maintains a database of the clients it represents or has in the past represented. The professionals who will be working in this matter within Sonnenschein have conducted a search of this database, commonly referred to as a "conflicts search," to determine its relationships, if any, with the Debtors. Neither I, Sonnenschein, nor any member or associate thereof, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, has any connection with the Debtors herein, other than as described below. Based upon a review of the Firm's conflict search, Sonnenschein has no other relationship to the Debtors or non-Debtor affiliates.

7. Our conflicts search facility can most readily identify on-going instructions from specified clients. In other words, when we are presented with a list of named parties, our searches will identify any ongoing matters where those parties are our instructing client. Our searches ought also to identify closed matters in which we acted for those parties. However, our searches do not enable us to identify wider interests. Specifically, our searches do not enable us to identify ongoing matters which relate to a named party, or in which a named party is involved in some capacity other than instructing client. Accordingly, Sonnenschein's records will not identify, even during the last five years, all circumstances in which Sonnenschein had relationships with clients other than the Debtor entities on matters involving the Debtor entities. In other words, Sonnenschein's records will not identify all circumstances in which other clients of Sonnenschein are adverse to the Debtors and the Debtors entities. The only way to identify them is to circulate a complete list of parties (i.e. all the parties in interest) to all the professionals in Sonnenschein and in our associated offices, asking them to consult their teams or former colleagues where necessary. Accuracy would also depend on the individual input of each professional being complete.

8. Once the conflict report comes back from accounting, members of my team review said information to identify potential conflicts. Thereafter, members of my team or I contact the various individuals to clarify any information that may cause a potential conflict. All the individuals on whom inquiry has been made have been asked to provide additional information as to whether any of the matters upon which they or their staff have been engaged or involve the Debtors in any capacity or have been adverse to the Debtors' interests.

9. Sonnenschein is currently representing, in the past has represented, and may in the future represent certain parties in interest to the Debtors reflected on Exhibit A, or their respective attorneys, accountants, and investment bankers in matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a list of entities, also reflected on Exhibit A, that Sonnenschein has represented and/or currently represents in matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors since January, 2001.

10. Sonnenschein currently represents Credit Suisse First Boston Mortgage Capital LLC ("CSFBMC") in a matter involving the sale of a hotel on which CSFBMC foreclosed that is wholly unrelated to the Debtors. Further, a member of Sonnenschein previously represented Credit Suisse (Bahamas) in a matter unrelated to the Debtors. That matter was closed before he joined Sonnenschein. Finally, we believe that Sonnenschein represents two affiliates of R2 Investments, LDC, Amalgamated Gadget L.P. and R2 Top Hat Ltd. in matters totally unrelated to the Debtors.

11. As part of its practice, Sonnenschein is involved in numerous cases, proceedings and transactions involving many different professionals, including Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP and other attorneys, accountants and financial consultants, some of which may represent claimants and parties in interest in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. Sonnenschein has in the past and will likely be working with or against other professionals involved in these cases unrelated to these cases. Based on my current knowledge of the professionals involved, and to the best of my knowledge and information none of these business relationships represent interests adverse to the Debtors in matters upon which Sonnenschein is to be engaged.

12. I am not related to, connected to, and to the best of my knowledge, no other professional of Sonnenschein who will work on this engagement is related to, connected to, any United States Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Delaware, any of the District Judges for the District of Delaware who handle bankruptcy cases, the United States Trustee for Region 3 or any employee in the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 3.

13. In light of the extensive number of other creditors and other parties in interest, and the limitation on our search facilities outlined above and because definitive lists of all such creditors and other parties have not been prepared, neither I nor the firm are able to conclusively identify all potential relationships. To the extent that I become aware of any additional relationship that may be relevant to Sonnenschein's representation of the Committee, I will promptly cause to be filed a supplemental affidavit.

14. Subject to this Court's approval, Sonnenschein will seek compensation on an hourly basis in accordance with its ordinary and customary hourly rates in effect on the date services are rendered. Sonnenschein's current billing rates range from $225 - $775 per hour for partners, $125 - $400 per hour for associates and $70 - $230 per hour for paralegals. These rates are reviewed annually and are set at a level designed fairly to compensate Sonnenschein for the work of its legal staff and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses.

15. Subject to this Court's approval, Sonnenschein and the Committee have agreed upon the following fee arrangement with respect to the services to be rendered by Sonnenschein:

a. Sonnenschein will bill the Committee for its legal services on an hourly basis in accordance with its ordinary and customary hourly rates in effect on the date such services are rendered and for out of pocket expenses that it regularly charges to its other clients (the "Actual Fees and Costs"), plus a five percent per annum (5%) interest rate on fees and expenses to the extent such fees and expenses are not paid within 30 days of the date upon which said fees are allowed or expenses incurred.

b. Subject to the Court's approval of the amount sought, payment shall be due upon confirmation of a plan of reorganization, unless the Court approves an earlier payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses.

16. Sonnenschein is customarily reimbursed for all expenses and charges incurred by it in connection with representation of a client in a given matter. These expenses and charges include, without limitation, travel costs, telecommunications, express mail, messenger services, document processing, photocopying costs, temporary employment of additional staff, overtime, meals, court fees, transcript costs and, in general, all identifiable expenses (such as third party fees) that would not have been incurred except for representation of a particular client.

17. The fees described above are consistent with Sonnenschein' normal and customary billing practices for the services expected to be rendered in these chapter 11 cases. Sonnenschein understands that all compensation and expenses to be paid to Sonnenschein by the Committee will be subject to ultimate Court approval upon application in accordance with Sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the rules and orders of this Court, the fee and expenses guidelines established by the U.S. Trustee's Office and any other applicable requirements.

18. Sonnenschein has no agreement with any other entity to share any compensation received in connection with these cases, nor will any be made, except as permitted under 11 U.S.C. § 504(b). Moreover, no commitments have been made or received by Sonnenschein, nor any partner or employee associate thereof, as to compensation or payment in connection with these cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 13th day of December, 2002.
