ORDER GRANTING EX PARTE MOTION TO FILE CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS REGARDING INVOLUNTARY PETITION UNDER SEAL

The Ex Parte Motion of JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMorgan"), petitioning creditor, to File Confidential Materials Regarding Involuntary Petition Under Seal was filed with the court. Dkt. No. 7. Good cause appearing, it is hereby:

ORDERED that JPMorgan has permission to file the unredacted Debt Trade Documents under seal.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that these documents shall remain confidential and be accessible only to the Court, unless a party in interest petitions the Court for access to the documents and provides good cause why access should be granted to that party.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any party obtaining access to these documents shall maintain their confidentiality.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this order is entered subject to the restrictions contained within Rule 9018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and, thus, any entity that is affected by the entry of this order may move to vacate or modify this order. If such a motion is filed with the court, the court will, as required by Bankruptcy Rule 9018, determine the issue following notice and a hearing.
