OF

WATTS HEALTH FOUNDATION, INC.

ENDORSED - FILED
In the office of the Secretary of State of the State of California

NOV 2 1 2003

KEVIN SHELLEY
Secretary of State

FRANKLIN B. STEVENS certifies that:

1. He is the duly appointed, confirmed, and acting conservator for WATTS HEALTH FOUNDATION, INC., a California corporation.

2. The Articles of Incorporation of this corporation are amended and restated in their entirety to read as follows:

I

The name of this corporation is Watts Health Foundation, Inc.

II

This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for public and charitable purposes.

III

The specific purpose of this corporation is to advance, foster and promote health, and make available adequate health insurance needs for within under served communities in Los Angeles, California.

IV

This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for public and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

V

No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for office.

VI

The corporation is not organized, and shall not be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit. It does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends for purposes of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, to any individual. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to public and charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person.

VII

Upon the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, or scientific purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

VIII

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

3. The foregoing amendment and restatement of Articles of Incorporation has been duly approved by the conservator in accordance with Section 6110 of the California Corporations Code.

4. The corporation has no members.

I further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the matters set forth in this certificate are true and correct of my own knowledge.

AMENDED AND RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
THE WATTS HEALTH FOUNDATION (INC.)

CLYDE W. ODEN, O.D.,M.P.H., and MAXINE CRAIG, certify that:

1. They are the President and Secretary, respectively, of The Watts Health Foundation (Inc.), a California nonprofit public benefit corporation.

2. The Articles of Incorporation of this corporation shall be amended and restated in full as follows:

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation is Watts Health Foundation, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes.

Solely for the above purposes, the corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of California upon nonprofit public benefit corporations.

ARTICLE III

The corporation has no capital stock, is not formed for profit and is a corporation that does not contemplate the distribution of accumulations, gains, profits or dividends to any person. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (the "Code"). No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any person having a personal or private interest in the activities of the corporation, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the charitable purposes set forth in Article II.

ARTICLE IV

The corporation shall not carry on propaganda, or otherwise attempt to influence legislation, to such extent as would result in the loss of exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE V

The sole member of the corporation, as the term "member" is defined in section 5056 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, shall be Watts Health Systems, Inc. (the "Member").

ARTICLE VI

The property of the corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes. Upon the winding up and dissolution of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment or adequate provision for payment, of all debts and obligations of the corporation shall be distributed in accordance with a plan of liquidation to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation approved by the Member that is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code. However, no assets shall be distributed to any organization if any part of the net earnings of such organization inures to the benefit of any private person or individual, or if a substantial part of the activities of such organization is the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or if the organization participates in, or intervenes in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office, or if the organization carries on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (b) by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

ARTICLE VII

These Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, or any part hereof, may be amended or repealed, and new Articles of Incorporation may be adopted, only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the authorized number of directors of the corporation and with the approval of the Member.

ARTICLE VIII

Any reference in these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to a section of the Code shall be interpreted to include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any applicable future United States internal revenue law.

ARTICLE IX

This corporation elects to be governed by all of the provisions of the Nonprofit Corporation Law of 1980 not otherwise applicable to it under Part 5 thereof.

ARTICLE X

The corporation's agent for the service of process is Clyde W. Oden and his address is 10300 Compton Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90002.

3. The foregoing amendment and restatement has been approved by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

4. The foregoing amendment and restatement has been approved by the Member.

We further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the matters set forth in this certificate are true and correct of our own knowledge.

EXHIBIT "2"

DRAFT

AMENDED AND RESTATED BY-LAWS OF

WATTS HEALTH FOUNDATION, INC.

a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

ARTICLE I

OFFICES

SECTION 1. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal office for the transaction of the business of the corporation ("principal executive office") is located in Los Angeles County, California at such location as determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may change the principal office from one location to another.

SECTION 2. OTHER OFFICES

The Board of Directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places where the corporation is qualified to do business.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

The corporation shall have no members. Any action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members shall require only approval of the Board of Directors. All rights which would otherwise vest in the members shall vest in the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. POWERS

(a) General Corporate Powers. Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and any limitations in the articles of incorporation and these by-laws, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate the management of the activities of the corporation to any person or persons, a management company, or committees however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board of Directors.

(b) Specific Powers. Without prejudice to these general powers, and subject to the same limitations, the Board of Directors shall have the power to:

(i) Select and remove all officers, agents, and employees of the corporation; prescribe any powers and duties for them that are consistent with law, with the articles of incorporation, and with these by-laws; and fix their compensation.

(ii) Change the principal executive office or the principal business office in the State of California from one location to another; cause the corporation to be qualified to do business in any other state, territory, dependency, or country and conduct business within or outside the State of California; and designate any place within or outside the State of California for the holding of any meeting or meetings, including annual meetings.

(iii) Adopt, make, and use a corporate seal; and to alter the form of such seal from time to time as it deems best.

(iv) Borrow money and incur indebtedness on behalf of the corporation and cause to be executed and delivered for the corporation's purposes, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, and other evidences of debt and securities.

(v) Conduct, manage, and control the affairs and activities of the corporation and to make such rules and regulations therefor not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or these by-laws, as it deems best.

(vi) Review and approve any and all proposed changes to benefits provided to employees of the corporation, any employee contracts, any change in financial institutions, and any changes to the corporation's insurance policies.

SECTION 2. NUMBER AND QUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

(a) Number. The authorized number of directors shall be not less than three (3) and not more than seven (7), with the exact number to be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Directors need not be residents of the State of California.

(b) Qualifications. No member of the Board of Directors shall be an "interested person" as such term is defined in Section 5227 of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law.

SECTION 3. ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall be elected at each Annual Meeting (as defined in Section 6(a) of this Article III) of the Board of Directors to hold office until the next Annual Meeting; however, if any Annual Meeting is not held or the directors are not elected at any Annual Meeting, they may be elected at any special Board of Directors' meeting held for that purpose. Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy or elected at a special directors' meeting, shall hold office until expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

SECTION 4. VACANCIES

(a) Events Causing Vacancy. A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of the following: (i) the death, resignation, or removal of any director, (ii) the declaration by resolution of the Board of Directors of a vacancy of the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony or has been found by final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty under Sections 5230 and following of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, or (iii) the increase of the authorized number of directors.

(b) Resignations. Except as provided in this paragraph any director may resign, which resignation shall be effective on giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the resignation to become effective. If the resignation of a director is effective at a future time, the Board of Directors of directors may elect a successor to take office when the resignation becomes effective. No director may resign when the corporation would then be left without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs.

(c) Vacancies Filled by Directors. The remaining directors may elect a director or directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies.

(d) No Vacancy on Reduction of Number of Directors. No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director before that director's term of office expires.

SECTION 5. PLACE OF MEETINGS; MEETINGS BY TELEPHONE

Meetings of the Board of Directors of directors may be held at any place within or outside the State of California that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such designation, meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation. Notwithstanding the above provisions of this Section 5, a meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at any place consented to in writing by all the Board of Directors members, either before or after the meeting. If consents are given, they shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting. Any meeting may be held by conference telephone or similar communication equipment, so long as all directors participating in the meeting can hear one another, and all such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

SECTION 6. ANNUAL MEETINGS

(a) Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet annually for the purpose of organization, election of directors and officers, and the transaction of other business (the "Annual Meeting").

(b) Agenda; Board Report. One (1) week prior to the Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors shall be provided with an agenda and a Board report.

(c) Budget. At the Annual Meeting, the Chief Financial Officer shall present the corporation's proposed fiscal budget for the next succeeding fiscal year for discussion, review and approval by the Board of Directors.

(d) Minutes of Meetings. Minutes shall be kept of all meetings. The minutes of each meeting will be prepared and forwarded by the secretary for review by the Chairman of the Board no later than ten (10) business days following each Board of Directors meeting. The minutes of each meeting shall be approved by the Board of Directors at the next succeeding meeting and, upon approval, filed with the corporate records.

SECTION 7. SPECIAL MEETINGS

(a) Authority to Call. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or any two directors.

(b) Notice. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held upon four (4) days' notice by first-class mail or 48 hours' notice given personally or by telephone (including a voice messaging system or other system or technology designed to record and communicate messages) telegraph, facsimile, electronic mail, or other electronic means. Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each director at the director's address as shown upon the records of the corporation or as may have been given to the corporation by the director for purposes of notice or, if the address is not shown on the corporation's records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place where the meetings of the directors are regularly held.

Notice by mail shall be deemed to have been given at the time a written notice is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid. Any other written notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means, to the recipient. Oral notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the receiver.

SECTION 8. QUORUM

A majority of the presently elected number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; provided, however, the quorum shall not be less than one-third of the authorized number of directors. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board of Directors. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

SECTION 9. PARTICIPATION IN MEETINGS BY CONFERENCE TELEPHONE

Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a Board of Directors' meeting through use of conference telephone, electronic video screen, or other communications equipment. Participation in a Board of Directors' meeting through use of conference telephone constitutes presence in person at that meeting as long as all members participating in the meeting are able to hear one another. Participation in a meeting through the use of electronic video screen communications or other communications equipment (other than conference telephone) constitutes presence in person at that meeting if all of the following apply: (a) each member participating in the meeting can communicate with all of the other participating members concurrently; (b) each member is provided the means of participating in all matters before the Board of Directors including, without limitation, the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection to, a specific action to be taken by the corporation; and (c) the corporation adopts and implements some means of verifying both of the following: (i) a person participating in the meeting is a director or other person entitled to participate in the Board of Directors meeting and (ii) all actions of, or votes by, the Board of Directors are taken or cast only by the directors and not by persons who are not directors.

SECTION 10. WAIVER OF NOTICE

The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if (a) a quorum is present, and (b) either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice.

A majority of the directors present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given, unless the meeting is adjourned for more than 24 hours, in which case personal notice of the time and place shall be given before the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

SECTION 11. ACTION WITHOUT MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board of Directors, individually or collectively, consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 12. FEES AND COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors and members of committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement of expenses, as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors to be just and reasonable.

SECTION 13. INDEPENDENT ADVISORS

The Board of Directors, or any committee with the approval of the Board of Directors, shall have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent legal, accounting, or other advisors, retain outside counsel and financial/operational advisors to assist the Board of Directors in verifying information provided to them by management, to conduct special investigations, special analysis, and provide legal and financial advice. The corporation shall provide for appropriate funding for payment of compensation to such legal, accounting, or other advisors retained by the Board of Directors, or by a committee of the Board of Directors.

COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS

Subject to the provisions of this Article IV with respect to standing committees, the Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, designate one or more committees, each consisting of two or more directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Any committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors, shall have all the authority of the Board of Directors, except that no committee, regardless of Board of Directors resolution, may:

(a) Fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or in any committee;

(b) Fix compensation of the directors for serving on the Board of Directors or on any committee;

(c) Amend or repeal by-laws or adopt new by-laws;

(d) Amend or repeal any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;

(e) Appoint any other committees of the Board of Directors or the members of these committees; and

(f) Approve any transaction (i) to which the corporation is a party and one or more directors have a material financial interest; or (ii) between the corporation and one or more of its directors or between the corporation or any person in which one or more of its directors have a material financial interest.

SECTION 2. AUDIT COMMITTEE

An audit committee shall be a standing committee of the Board of Directors. The audit committee shall assist the Board of Directors to oversee and monitor (i) the integrity of the financial statements of the corporation, (ii) the corporation's internal controls, (iii) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, (iv) the performance of the corporation's independent auditors, (v) the compliance by the corporation with legal and regulatory requirements, (vi) the corporation's banking and financial relationships, (vii) the corporation's financing initiatives, and (viii) any other matters assigned by the Board of Directors. The audit committee shall consist of no fewer than three (3) members appointed by the Board of Directors. The audit committee shall meet as often as it determines, but not less frequently than four (4) times a year. The audit committee shall meet periodically with management, and the independent auditor in separate executive sessions. The audit committee may request any officer or employee of the corporation or the corporation's outside counsel or independent auditor to attend a meeting of the audit committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the audit committee. The audit committee shall have the sole authority to make recommendations to the Board regarding appointment or replacement of the corporation's independent auditor. The audit committee shall be directly responsible for the compensation and oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work. The independent auditor shall report directly to the audit committee.

SECTION 3. MEETINGS AND ACTION OF COMMITTEES

Except as otherwise provided in this Article IV, meetings and action of committees shall be governed by, and held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article III of these by-laws, concerning regular meetings of the Board of Directors, with such changes in the context of those by-laws as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the Board of Directors and its members, except that, unless otherwise specified in these by-laws, the time for regular meetings of committees may be determined either by resolution of the Board of Directors or by resolution of the committee. Special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the Board of Directors. Notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to any and all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of any committee. The minutes of each committee meeting will be prepared and forwarded for review by the Chairman of the committee no later than ten (10) business days following the committee meeting. The minutes of each meeting shall be approved by the committee at the next succeeding committee meeting and, upon approval, shall be filed with the corporate records. The Board of Directors may adopt rules for the governance of any committee not inconsistent with the provisions of these by-laws.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

SECTION 1. OFFICERS

The officers of the corporation shall be the Chairman of the Board, a Chief Financial Officer and a Secretary. The corporation may also have, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, a President, one or more Vice Presidents, on or more Assistant Treasurers, one or more Assistant Secretaries, and such other officers as may be appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this Article V. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, except that neither the Secretary nor the Chief Financial Officer may serve concurrently as either the President or the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The officers of the corporation, except those appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this Article V, shall be chosen by the Board of Directors, and each shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment.

SECTION 3. SUBORDINATE OFFICERS

The Board of Directors may appoint, and may authorize the Chairman of the Board of Directors or another officer to appoint, any other officers that the business of the corporation may require, each of whom shall have the title, hold office for the period, have the authority, and perform the duties specified in the by-laws or determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4. REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

Subject to the rights, if any, of an officer under any contract of employment, any officer may be removed, with or without cause, by the Board of Directors, at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, or, except in case of an officer chosen by the Board of Directors, by an officer on whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 5. RESIGNATION OF OFFICERS

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation. Any resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of that notice or at any later time specified in that notice; and, unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any resignation is without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party.

SECTION 6. VACANCIES IN OFFICES

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause shall be filled only in the manner prescribed in thee by-laws for regular appointment to that office.

SECTION 7. RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS

(a) Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall elect a Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside at the meetings of the Board of Directors and exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may be from time to time assigned to him by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the by-laws. If there is no Chief Executive Officer or President, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall, in addition, be the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation and shall have the powers and duties prescribed in paragraph b, below.

(b) Secretary. The Secretary shall attend to the following:

(i) Book of Minutes. The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal executive office or such other place as the Board of Directors may direct, a book of minutes of all meetings and actions of directors and committees of directors, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at such meetings.

(ii) Notices, Seal and Other Duties. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Board of Directors required by the by-laws to be given. The Secretary shall keep the seal of the corporation in safe custody. The Secretary shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the by-laws.

(c) Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer shall attend to the following:

(i) Books of Account. The Chief Financial Officer shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct books and records of accounts of the properties and business transactions of the corporation, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital, retained earnings, and other matters customarily included in financial statements. The books of account shall be open to inspection by any director at all reasonable times.

(ii) Deposit and Disbursement of Money and Valuables. The Chief Financial Officer shall deposit all money and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors; shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors; shall render to the Board of Directors, whenever they request it, an account of all of his or her transactions as Chief Financial Officer and of the financial condition of the corporation; and shall have other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

(iii) Bond. If required by the Board of Directors, the Chief Financial Officer shall give the corporation a bond in the amount and with the surety or sureties specified by the Board of Directors for faithful performance of the duties of his or her office and for restoration to the corporation of all its books, papers, vouchers, money, and other property of every kind in his or her possession or under his or her control on his or her death, resignation, retirement, or removal from office.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS.

For the purposes of this article VI, "Agent" means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation which was a predecessor corporation of the corporation or of another enterprise at the request of that predecessor corporation; "proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative; and "expenses" includes without limitation attorneys' fees and any expenses of establishing a right to indemnification under Section 4 or 5(b) of this Article VI.

SECTION 2. INDEMNIFICATION IN ACTIONS BY THIRD PARTIES

The corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, an action brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, or an action brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for any breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust), by reason of the fact that that person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with that proceeding if that person acted in good faith and in a manner that person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of that person was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

SECTION 3. INDEMNIFICATION IN ACTIONS BY OR IN THE RIGHT OF THE CORPORATION.

The corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action by or in the right of the corporation, or brought under Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, or brought by the Attorney General or a person granted relator status by the Attorney General for breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of the corporation, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the defense or settlement of that action if the person acted in good faith, in a manner such person believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. No indemnification shall be made under this Section 3:

(a) In respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which that person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation in the performance of that person's duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the proceeding is or was pending shall determine upon application that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for the expenses which the court shall determine.

(b) Of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a threatened or pending action, with or without court approval, or

(c) Of expenses incurred in defending a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval, unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

SECTION 4. INDEMNIFICATION AGAINST EXPENSES

To the extent that an agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits in defense of any proceeding referred to in Section 2 or 3 of this Article VI or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection therewith.

SECTION 5. REQUIRED DETERMINATIONS

Except as provided in Section 4 of this Article VI shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the agent has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 2 or 3 of this Article VI, by:

(a) A majority vote or a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties of the proceeding; or

(b) The court in which the proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney, or other person is opposed by the corporation.

SECTION 6. ADVANCE OF EXPENSES.

Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay that amount unless it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized in this Article VI.

SECTION 7. OTHER INDEMNIFICATION

No provision made by the corporation to indemnify its or its subsidiary's directors of officers for the defense of any proceeding, whether contained in the Articles, by-laws, a resolution of members of directors, an agreement, or otherwise, shall be valid unless consistent with this Article VI. Nothing contained in this Article VI shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than such directors and officers may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

SECTION 8. FORMS OF INDEMNIFICATION NOT PERMITTED

No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article VI, except as provided in Section 4 or 5(b), in any circumstances in which it appears:

(a) That it would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles, these by-laws, or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses where incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(b) That it would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

SECTION 9. INSURANCE

The corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the agent in that capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against liability under the provisions of this Article VI, provided, however, that a corporation shall have not power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

SECTION 10. NONAPPLICABILITY TO FIDUCIARIES OF EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN.

This Article VI does not apply to any proceeding against any trustee, investment manager, or other fiduciary or an employee benefit plan in such person's capacity as such, even though that person may also be an agent of the corporation as defined in Section 1 of this Article VI. The corporation shall have power to indemnify that trustee, investment manger, or other fiduciary to the extent permitted by Section 207(f) of the California General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE VII

RECORDS AND REPORTS

SECTION 1. MAINTENANCE AND INSPECTION OF ARTICLES AND BY-LAWS

The corporation shall keep at its principal executive office, or if its principal executive office is not in the State of California, at its principal business office in this state, the original or a copy of the articles and by-laws as amended to date, which shall be open to inspection.

SECTION 2. MAINTENANCE AND INSPECTION OF OTHER CORPORATE RECORDS

The accounting books, records, and minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors and any committee(s) of the Board of Directors shall be kept at such place or places designated by the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such designation, at the principal executive office of the corporation. The minutes shall be kept in written or typed form, and the accounting books and records shall be kept either in written or typed form or in any other form capable of being converted into written, typed, or printed form. The minutes and accounting books and records shall be open to inspection at any reasonable time during usual business hours. These rights of inspection shall extend to the records of each subsidiary corporation of the corporation.

SECTION 3. INSPECTION BY DIRECTORS

Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the corporation and each of its subsidiary corporations. This inspection by a director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

SECTION 4. ANNUAL REPORT

Nothing in these by-laws shall be interpreted as prohibiting the Board of Directors from issuing annual or other periodic reports of the corporation as they consider appropriate. However, the corporation shall provide to the directors, within 120 days of the close of its fiscal year, a report containing the following information in reasonable detail:

(1) The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the corporation as of the end of the fiscal year.

(2) The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds, during the fiscal year.

(3) The revenue or receipts of the corporation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purposes, for the fiscal year.

(4) The expenses or disbursements of the corporation, for both general and restricted purposes, during the fiscal year.

(5) Any information required by California Corporations Code Section 6322.

ARTICLE VIII

CONSTRUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction, and definitions in the California Nonprofit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these by-laws. Without limiting the generality of the above, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term "person" includes both the corporation and a natural person.

AMENDMENTS

These by-laws may be adopted, amended or repealed by a majority of the Board of Directors.
