THIS CASE came before the court at a hearing on March 27, 2018 to consider and act upon the application of the debtor-in-possession to employ Edward J. Fore and the Law Office of Jeffrey D. Ostlie, P.A. ("Special Counsel") as Special Counsel for the Debtor (Doc. no. 93). Having considered the application and accompanying verified statement of proposed attorney, and for the reasons stated and recorded in open court, it is:

ORDERED:

1. The Application to employ Special Counsel is approved, nunc pro tunc March 1, 2018.

2. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § 327, Debtor is authorized to retain Special Counsel as special counsel to represent Debtor and Debtor-in-Possession in connection with real property law issues and any other real estate issues which are necessary in the Debtor's business.

3. The Debtor's principal or affiliates may pay Special Counsel each month for services performed as set forth in the fee schedule attached as Exhibit A to the Application. No payments will be made from property of the estate and no claim against the estate will arise from payments made to Special Counsel. 4. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-1(b), Special Counsel may bill against the funds received in the ordinary course towards compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses without further order, subject to a final review and approval by the Court.

5. All compensation shall be subject to 11 U.S.C. §330 and §331 and to a proper fee application, including time records. Any fees determined to be unreasonable shall be subject to disgorgement.
