EXHIBIT "B"

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
JACKSONVILLE DIVISION

IN RE: CHAPTER 11

TAYLOR, BEAN & WHITAKER MORTGAGE CORP., CASE NO. 3:09-bk-07047-JAF

Debtor.

ORDER GRANTING BANK OF AMERICA'S MOTION TO COMPEL DRAFT CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

This case came before the Court on July 16, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. for a hearing on Bank of America's Motion to Compel Draft Confidentiality Agreement (Doc. No. 1631, "Motion"). For the reasons stated in open court, which shall constitute the decision of the Court, it is

ORDERED:

1. The Motion, as modified in open court, is GRANTED, to allow counsel for Bank of America and counsel for the Joinder Parties to review the information provided by Freddie Mac to the Debtor in connection with the Order on Taylor, Bean & Whitaker Mortgage Corp.'s Motion Authorizing and Directing Examination of Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation and Related Joinders Thereto (Doc. No. 1247), in accordance with the paragraphs below.

2. The Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") is directed to execute the "Non-Disclosure Agreement between Freddie Mac and a Joinder Party," a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" ("NDA"), upon receiving an executed copy of the NDA from counsel for Bank of America, N.A.

3. Freddie Mac is directed to execute the NDA upon receiving an executed copy of the NDA from counsel of any Joinder Party (as defined in the order dated March 26, 2010, Doc. No. 1247) upon receiving an executed copy of the NDA from a Joinder Party.

4. The Court reserves jurisdiction to enforce this order.

DATED: July 26, 2010, in Jacksonville, Florida.

JERRY A. FUNK
United States Bankruptcy Judge

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT BETWEEN FREDDIE MAC AND A "JOINDER PARTY"
(FREDDIE/JOINDER)

Pursuant to the order entered on March 26, 2010 (the "Order") [D.E. 1247], in the matter In re: Taylor, Bean & Whitaker Mortgage Corp., Case No. 09-07047 JAF, pending in the Jacksonville Division of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida (the "Proceeding"), Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac") has been ordered to provide certain confidential and non-confidential information to debtor Taylor, Bean & Whitaker Mortgage Corp. ("TBW") pursuant to Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

The Order provides that certain parties who joined TBW's Motion for Rule 2004 Exam of Freddie Mac (BNP Paribas, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Bank of America, N.A., Deutsche Bank, AG, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.) (collectively, the "Joinder Parties," and together with Freddie Mac and TBW, the "Parties") may join in the examination of Freddie Mac authorized by the Order with certain limitations. Pursuant to the Order, the Joinder Parties may not without further court order independently propound discovery on Freddie Mac and may not obtain from TBW certain Freddie Mac confidential information, e.g. privileged, confidential, competition sensitive, proprietary or otherwise sensitive information; however, subject to the orders entered in the Proceeding which granted the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Clarification of the Court's Ruling on Taylor Bean and Whitaker Mortgage Corp.'s Motion for Authorization of an Examination of Freddie Mac (the "Clarification Motion") and Related Joinders (together, the "Clarification Motion Joinders") and the terms of this Agreement, the outside counsel of the Joinder Parties that are signatories hereto are permitted access to certain confidential (and non-confidential) information on behalf of their clients (though such confidential information may not be disclosed to any counsel's client or any other person or entity, as further described herein).

In order to give effect to the terms of the Order and the orders granting the Clarification Motion and Clarification Motion Joinders and memorialize their agreement with respect to the restricted access to certain confidential information, Freddie Mac and the signatory party and/or parties hereto (which are each a member of the group of Joinder Parties) (the "Signatory Joinder Party") agree as follows:

1. All production and disclosure of any information obtained in this Proceeding involving Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information – as defined in Paragraphs 2 and 3 below – or Protected Litigation Information – as defined in Paragraphs 2 and 4 below – shall be governed by this Agreement. Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information and Protected Litigation Information (collectively, "Protected Information") may be used by persons gaining access to it subject to this Agreement only for the purposes of examination under Rule 2004, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and for the purpose of counsel's representation of its client(s) in the Proceeding, and shall not be given, shown, made available, discussed or otherwise communicated in any form except as authorized herein.

2. The terms "Protected Litigation Information" and "Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information" as used herein mean any information that is properly designated in accordance with this Agreement. The designation by Freddie Mac of information as Protected Litigation Information or Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information shall not be construed as an admission or finding that the information is entitled per se to confidential treatment should it become part of the Court's record. Protected Information is limited to information not previously disclosed by Freddie Mac except: (a) to individuals that Freddie Mac employed or retained; (b) to third parties under an agreement restricting further disclosure; or (c) disclosure made pursuant to statute, rule, regulation or court order that protects the confidential nature of the information. Protected Information may be in any form, including but not limited to printed documents, electronically stored information, computer disks or other electronic media, e-mails, information contained in documents or electronic media, or information revealed during depositions (including, without limitation, testimony and/or exhibits) or in discovery responses.

3. The term "Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information" as used herein means any information that Freddie Mac believes, in good faith, to be:

a. Private information relating to individuals;

b. Information maintained in confidence and of value to Freddie Mac from the fact that it is not commonly or publicly known; and/or

c. Confidential processes or procedures.

Freddie Mac shall endeavor to limit the use of the Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information designation to those documents and materials that genuinely warrant the protection provided by the terms of this Agreement.

4. The term "Protected Litigation Information" as used herein means information Freddie Mac deems competitively sensitive, of whatever type or character, including, without limitation, information relating to existing and contemplated business, marketing and financial information such as business plans and methods, financial analysis, financial models, marketing information, cost estimates, actual costs, forecasts, contemplated product lines, proposed business alliances, budgets, bid and proposal information, bid analysis, government requests or communications, including without limitation, those from and with Freddie Mac's regulator or conservator, or government accounting requirements, which information is so sensitive that its disclosure to an adverse Party (including the Joinder Parties) in this Proceeding has the potential Freddie Mac believes to cause substantial competitive harm to Freddie Mac and could, Freddie Mac believes reasonably be expected to provide a competitor of Freddie Mac with a substantial competitive advantage in a present or reasonably foreseeable future competition, if disclosed to an individual, whether or not an attorney, who is or may in the future be involved in competitive decision making as that term/phrase (i.e. "competitive decision making") is used in U.S. Steel v. United States, 730 F.2d 1465 (Fed. Cir. 1984)(see generally footnote three)("Competitive Decision Making").

5. Freddie Mac shall make a good faith effort to identify and designate specific portions of documents as Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information in the event that the entire document does not meet the appropriate definition.

6. Any information, documents and tangible things subject to this Agreement produced or disclosed in this Proceeding shall be marked by Freddie Mac in accordance with the following procedures:

a. All documents and tangible things containing Protected Information shall be clearly and prominently marked by placing on each page (including deposition transcripts) containing Protected Information, and in a prominent location on the exterior of any tangible object, one of the following legends, as appropriate to the level of protection, or ones substantially similar:

UNRESTRICTED PROTECTED LITIGATION INFORMATION
-- THIS DOCUMENT IS SUBJECT TO A CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT.

Or:

PROTECTED LITIGATION INFORMATION -- THIS DOCUMENT IS SUBJECT TO A CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT.

In lieu of marking the original of documents produced for inspection, the Party may mark copies that are produced or exchanged.

b. For a period of ten (10) business days after receipt of a deposition transcript (i.e. the "cooling off period"), the Signatory Joinder Party (i.e. their counsel as explained herein) shall treat such deposition transcript and any attached exhibits as Protected Litigation Information to permit Freddie Mac sufficient time to determine whether the deposition transcript has been properly marked in accordance with this Agreement.

7. If the Signatory Joinder Party objects to the designation of any information as Protected Information, it shall state clearly the basis for the objection in writing to counsel for Freddie Mac. Thereafter, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to resolve the objection.

a. If the Parties are unable to resolve the objection with respect to the designation, the Signatory Joinder Party may move the Court for a ruling that the information is not properly designated. Until an objection to the designation of information has been resolved by agreement of counsel or by order of the Court, the designated information shall be deemed to be properly designated, and shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement.

b. In all disputes concerning the proper designation or non-designation of documents, the burden of justifying the claimed level of protection shall be on Freddie Mac.

c. In all disputes concerning the proper designation or non-designation of documents, the documents in question shall be filed with the Court under seal and the Court's review of the documents shall be conducted in camera.

8. The terms of this Agreement shall be binding on the Parties, their counsel, and any other individual, whether expert, witness, consultant, assistant or otherwise, to whom any information disclosed in this Proceeding is shown or provided pursuant hereto, and may be modified only by written agreement of counsel for the Parties or by Order of a Court for good cause shown.

9. Except as otherwise authorized by the Court, the only persons who may be given access to Freddie Mac's Protected Information are the following:

a. the Signatory Joinder Party's undersigned counsel, and such undersigned counsel's support personnel (including secretarial, clerical, technical, copying and other support personnel) whose function in connection with this Proceeding requires access to Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information and Protected Litigation Information and who will use the Protected Information only in connection with this Proceeding (as further explained in paragraphs 1 and 10), and whose responsibilities do not and will not involve Competitive Decision Making;

b. Outside consultants and their support personnel (including secretarial, clerical, technical, copying and other support personnel) whose function in connection with this Proceeding requires access to Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information and Protected Litigation Information, who have been retained by the Signatory Joinder Party, and who have completed and submitted to the Signatory Joinder Party's outside counsel of record an Agreement for Access in the form included as Exhibit A which shall be served on counsel for Freddie Mac within five (5) business days of execution of the same by the consultant (e.g. experts), and whether testifying or not, Protected Information shall not be disclosed (in any manner) to outside consultants who have been or will be retained to provide services to the Joinder Parties solely with regard to any engagement, litigation, dispute, anticipated litigation or any proceeding other than the Proceeding; and,

c. the Court and its employees.

10. Except as otherwise authorized by the Court, no Protected Information shall be shared with or provided to, in whatever form, a person not described in Paragraph 9, and subparts. In short, it is the purpose and intent of this Agreement to restrict access to Freddie Mac's confidential information (be it Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information) only to outside lawyers and ancillary support persons to such lawyers who are providing services to the Joinder Parties with respect to the Proceeding and who do not and will not have business roles and who in turn will not share such information with others.

11. The Signatory Joinder Party shall maintain Protected Information on password protected websites or electronic files, and shall otherwise secure both electronic and non-electronic forms of such information to protect against unrestricted and non-permitted access to the same. In the event the Protected Information contains "non-public personal information" as defined in the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act ("GLB") or any other information subject to any applicable privacy or data security law, rule, regulation and/or the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA") (including without limitation information that identifies, relates to or describes any particular information and/or that could be used for criminal purposes, e.g. dates of birth, Social Security numbers, drivers' license numbers and/or the like) (collectively, "Personal Protected Information") then such Personal Protected Information shall be protected by recipient Signatory

Joinder Party (i.e. outside counsel) in a manner that complies at a minimum with the requirements of the GLB and FCRA and their implementing rules and guidance and/or the applicable other privacy or data security law, rule and/or regulation as may apply. Moreover, such Personal Protected Information shall be maintained in commercially reasonable password protected encrypted format at all times unless being used for the purposes permitted in this Agreement and the event of its being used for the purposes permitted under this Agreement, such information shall still be used only in a manner that will not permit it to be accessed or obtained by non-authorized third-parties. Nor will such Personal Protected Information be copied or reproduced except to the extent necessary to perform the work permitted under this Agreement. Moreover, when such Personal Protected Information is later disposed of as contemplated herein or otherwise, such destruction shall be accomplished in a commercially reasonable manner that will not permit access or acquisition by unauthorized persons or entities but in any event in a manner that complies with applicable law, rule and/or regulation (e.g. without limitation GLB and/or FCRA).

In the event a Signatory Joinder Party (i.e. outside counsel therefor) learns or reasonably believes that there has been unauthorized access to and/or acquisition (a "Breach") of Protected Information, such Signatory Joinder Party (i.e. outside counsel therefor) shall a) immediately notify Freddie Mac of such Breach, b) promptly investigate, correct, and mitigate or otherwise deal with the Breach at the Signatory Joinder Party's expense, including without limitation, by identifying Protected Information affected by the Breach and preventing the continuation and recurrence of the Breach, c) provide to Freddie Mac all reasonable assistance at the Signatory Joinder Party's expense to enable Freddie Mac to provide timely notices disclosing the Breach as required by applicable law, including, without limitation, technical forensic assistance to determine the extent of the Breach and identify the names and contact information of affected individuals, and, d) without limiting other rights or remedies that may be available to Freddie Mac, reimburse Freddie Mac for expenses and/or professional fees Freddie Mac incurs as a result of the Breach, including, without limitation, any expenses Freddie Mac incurs investigating the Breach and notifying affected individuals. If both Freddie Mac and Signatory Joinder Party are required to notify affected individuals following a Breach, Freddie Mac and Signatory Joinder Party shall discuss whether it is appropriate and feasible to provide a single form of notice. In addition, Freddie Mac will have the right reasonably to approve (or to not permit) notices proposed by the Signatory Joinder Party to the extent such notices identify Freddie Mac or could lead to the belief that Freddie Mac was involved with the Breach.

12. Persons other than those identified in Paragraphs 9 and 10 ("Third Parties") may be permitted access to Protected Information either by agreement of Freddie Mac or pursuant to an Order of a Court upon motion. Third Parties shall not have access to Protected Information until the Court has entered an Order granting the Third Parties the requested access to the Protected Information or Freddie Mac agrees in writing. Persons provided access to the Protected Information pursuant to the Agreement shall not share, produce, copy transmit or otherwise disclose such Protected Information to Third Parties.

13. The provisions of this Agreement and the Court's jurisdiction to enforce its terms shall survive the conclusion of this Proceeding. Within sixty (60) days after the closing of TBW's bankruptcy case and the conclusion of any adversary proceeding involving Freddie Mac (unless extended by Order of a Court of competent jurisdiction), all persons having received Protected Information shall return it to counsel for Freddie Mac or destroy such material and all copies thereof and transmit a declaration of such destruction to Freddie Mac). The Signatory

Joinder Party's outside counsel shall be entitled to retain court papers, deposition and final evidentiary hearing transcripts, and attorney work product that contains Protected Information provided that such counsel, and employees of such counsel, shall not disclose any Protected Information contained in such court papers, transcripts, or attorney work product to any person or entity except pursuant to a written agreement with Freddie Mac.

14. If testimony concerning Protected Information is sought at a deposition conducted within the Proceeding, counsel for Freddie Mac may instruct its witness not to answer such questions so long as there are any persons present at the deposition during such questioning who have not been given access to Protected Information pursuant to Paragraphs 9, 10 or 12 of this Agreement. Upon request of Freddie Mac, or the Signatory Joinder Party, any such persons may be excluded from the deposition to permit the testimony concerning Protected Information to be taken. Counsel for Freddie Mac may designate in good faith portions of any deposition transcripts to be treated as Protected Information. Any such designations shall be made by notifying TBW and the Signatory Joinder Party in writing within ten (10) business days after the receipt of the applicable transcript, or by making a suitable designation on the record at the deposition. If such a designation is made, such portion of the transcript shall be so treated. Disputes concerning designations shall be resolved under the provisions of Paragraph 7.

15. An appropriate motion for leave to file under seal shall be made by any Party seeking to file in court any documents (including briefs and deposition transcripts) containing Protected Information. Before moving the Court to file under seal, the Party shall make a good faith attempt to redact or summarize the Protected Information (without revealing its actual confidential content) to avoid the need for filing under seal. If filing of Protected Information cannot reasonably be avoided, the motion for leave to file under seal must demonstrate good cause why the document must be filed under seal, and no attempt shall be made to file the document under seal unless approved in advance by the Court. All documents of any nature, including briefs, which contain Protected Information, shall, with leave of the Court to file under seal, be filed under seal and delivered in an envelope or other container marked with the title of the Proceeding, the title of the Court filing which contains the Protected Information, and a statement substantially in the following form:

[UNRESTRICTED] PROTECTED LITIGATION INFORMATION

TO BE DISCLOSED ONLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH COURT ORDER, CASE NO. 09-07047 JAF

[List Papers Enclosed]

16. This Agreement does not extend to designation of Protected Information that may be elicited at any final evidentiary hearing and which information will be dealt with by the Signatory Joinder Party, TBW and/or Freddie Mac with the Court prior to any final evidentiary hearing. The Parties agree that prior to filing any Protected Information with the Court, they will meet and confer in good faith to discuss how to maintain the confidentiality thereof. In the event that the Parties cannot agree, then they will file an appropriate motion with the Court seeking instruction prior to filing any Protected Information.

17. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure by Freddie Mac of Protected Information, regardless of whether the information was so designated at the time of disclosure, shall in no way prejudice or otherwise be deemed a waiver of, or estoppel as to Freddie Mac's claim that the information disclosed is Protected Information. Any such inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed Protected Information, not designated as such, shall be designated as Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information, as appropriate, provided that Freddie Mac informs the Signatory Joinder Party of its claim within ten (10) business days after learning of the inadvertent disclosure. The Signatory Joinder Party shall thereafter mark and treat the materials as Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information, as appropriate, and such materials shall be fully subject to this Order as if they had been initially so designated.

18. The designation or non-designation of documents or information pursuant to this Agreement is for the sole purpose of designating how those documents or information may be used and by whom. Nothing contained in this Agreement, including exhibits, or any action taken in compliance with it, shall operate as an admission by any Party or otherwise be admissible for any purpose, including without limitation, that any particular document or information is, or is not, information that might enjoy protection under the law. Moreover, nothing contained in this Agreement or any action taken in compliance with it, shall prejudice in any way the right of the Signatory Joinder Party or Freddie Mac to seek, by way of consent from the other Party, or by application to the Court, (i) additional protection for specific documents or information; and/or (ii) relief from the provisions of this Agreement with respect to specific items or categories of documents or information or the use of documents or information.

19. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing counsel from advising their respective clients as to counsel's opinions and conclusions so long as information designated as Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information is not disclosed to persons not properly authorized to receive such information under this Agreement.

20. Support personnel including secretarial, clerical, technical, copying and other support personnel, who will be given access to Protected Information pursuant to Paragraphs 9(a) of this Agreement, shall be provided with a copy of this Agreement and shall be advised that (i) the Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information is being disclosed pursuant to and subject to the terms of this Agreement and may not be disclosed or used other than pursuant to the terms hereof, and (ii) the violation of the terms of the Agreement (e.g., by use of the Protected Information in any impermissible manner) may subject the person to punishment for contempt of a Court Order or other applicable law.

21. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit or restrict a Party's use or disclosure of its own Protected Information for any purpose. Nothing contained herein shall impose any restrictions on the use or disclosure by the Signatory Joinder Party of documents, materials or information designated as Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information obtained lawfully by the Signatory Joinder Party independently of the Proceeding, or which:

a. was already known to the Signatory Joinder Party by lawful means prior to acquisition from, or disclosure by Freddie Mac in the Proceeding; or

b. is or becomes publicly known by lawful means and through no fault or act of the Signatory Joinder Party; or

c. is rightfully received by the Signatory Joinder Party from a third party that has authority to provide such Protected Information without restriction as to disclosure.

22. In addition, nothing herein shall prohibit the Signatory Joinder Party from disclosing Protected Information to:

a. any witness with prior knowledge of the information to be disclosed because, with respect to documents, such witness authored or received a copy of the document, as reflected on the face of the subject document;

b. witnesses, stenographers or videographers, who shall be bound by this Agreement and shall not provide, show, make available, discuss, or otherwise communicate Protected Information in any form with persons not authorized by this Agreement to have access to such information. Prior to the start of any deposition during which Protected Information may be disclosed, the witness and court reporter or videographer shall be provided with a copy of Paragraph 1 of this Agreement, or an equivalent statement, informing them of such restrictions. On the record, it shall be stated that the witness, court reporter, and videographer: (i) has received a copy of Paragraph 1 of the Agreement or equivalent notice; (ii) acknowledges that he or she shall be bound by the terms of this Agreement relating to nondisclosure of Protected Information to unauthorized persons; and (iii) acknowledges that he or she shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of enforcing this Agreement.

23. If the Signatory Joinder Party (a) is subpoenaed in another action, or (b) is served with a demand in another action to which it is a Party, or (c) is served with any legal process by anyone not a Party to this Proceeding, seeking any Protected Information, the Signatory Joinder Party shall give notice to Freddie Mac within five (5) days of the receipt of the subpoena, demand, request or legal process (or within sufficient time for Freddie Mac to respond to the subpoena, demand, request or legal process, if a response is due in a period less than five (5) days from the Party's receipt) and shall object to its production to the extent permitted by law. If Freddie Mac wishes to continue to protect that Protected Information, it shall promptly seek a protective order or other protection in the separate legal proceeding from which the subpoena, demand or legal process issued. If, before entry of such protective order, the person seeking access to the Protected Information takes action against the Signatory Joinder Party to enforce such a subpoena, demand or other legal process, the Signatory Joinder Party shall respond by setting forth the existence of this Agreement. Nothing herein shall be construed, however, as requiring the Signatory Joinder Party to challenge or appeal any Order requiring production of Protected Information covered by this Agreement, or to subject itself to any penalties for noncompliance with any legal process or Order, or to seek any relief from a Court. Absent protection obtained in the separate legal proceeding, this Agreement does not authorize the Signatory Joinder Party to refuse to produce documents responsive to a proper subpoena or demand for Protected Information.

24. In no event shall the Parties provide Protected Information to any other entity that is a party to this Proceeding (or any other person or entity) absent court order or agreement of both Parties.

AGREEMENT FOR ACCESS TO MATERIAL UNDER AGREEMENT BY CONSULTANT

1. I, [_____], am a consultant employed by [_____], and hereby seek access to Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information and Protected Litigation Information covered by the Agreement and certain orders issued by the Court in connection with the Proceeding.

2. I have been retained by and will assist _____ ("_____") in this Proceeding.

3. I hereby certify that I am not involved in and will not be involved in competitive decision making for or on behalf of any party to this Proceeding or, to the best of my information and belief, any other firm that would gain a competitive advantage from access to the Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information disclosed under the Agreement.

4. My professional relationship with the party for whom I am retained in this Proceeding and its personnel is strictly as a consultant on issues relevant to the Proceeding. I do not hold office or a management position in Taylor, Bean & Whitaker Mortgage Corp. ("TBW"), or in any competitor or potential competitor of Freddie Mac.

5. I have read a copy of the Agreement and I will comply in all respects with all terms and conditions of that Agreement including, but not limited to, paragraph 11 of the Agreement in handling any Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information and Protected Litigation Information filed or produced in connection with the Proceeding. I will not disclose any Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information to any individual other than those individuals admitted under the Agreement.

6. I acknowledge that any violation of the terms of the Agreement may result in the imposition of such sanctions as the Court deems appropriate, including but not limited to referral of the violation to appropriate disciplinary bodies or professional associations. I further acknowledge that a party whose Unrestricted Protected Litigation Information or Protected Litigation Information is improperly disclosed shall be entitled to all remedies under law or equity, including breach of contract. I consent to the jurisdiction of the Court (United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida) for the enforcement of such Agreement.

By my signature, I certify under penalty of perjury that, to the best of my knowledge, the representations set forth above (including attached statements) are true and correct.
