Re: U. S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware
TWA Inc. Post Confirmation Estate, Debtor
Case No. 01-00056 (PJW)
Second Omnibus Objection to Claims

To The Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court:

I respectfully request that you allow my claim for $4,808.75 for printing services provided for TWA for their employee newsletters and other printing to continue to be considered. That $4,808.75 is approximately 10% of my accounts receivable. We are a very small, family-owned business and we do not have an attorney nor the money to secure one to represent our interests; and we honestly thought we submitted our claim in time and it would be considered.

Considering it took all those attorneys representing TWA a year to tell us we were late and try to not pay our legitimate claim I find it hard to believe our claim would be dismissed because it did not arrive timely. With all the legal documents in tiny print forwarded to us perhaps I confused the due dates but I believe the intent of the law is to protect small companies such as ours and see to it that they are paid what is due them, not drown us in paperwork.

All supporting documents were sent with our claim and they have not disputed they owe us the money.

Responses may be sent to me, Peggy Bauer, c/o Insty-Prints, (a small, woman owned business), at 3788 McKelvey Road, Bridgeton, MO 63044, 314-739-7797.

Again, I respectfully request you do not dismiss my claim.

Thank you,

Peggy Bauer
