IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

In re:	§	CHAPTER 11 CASE
TRIDIMENSION ENERGY, L.P. et al.,	§	CASE NO. 10-33565-SGJ
Debtors.	§	Jointly Administered

ORDER GRANTING THIRD INTERIM FEE APPLICATION OF FTI CONSULTING, INC., AS FINANCIAL ADVISORS FOR THE DEBTORS, FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES RENDERED AND FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES INCURRED FROM DECEMBER 1, 2010 THROUGH FEBRUARY 28, 2011

Came on to be considered the Third Interim Fee Application of FTI Consulting, Inc., as Financial Advisors for The Debtors, for Allowance of Compensation for Professional Services Rendered and for Reimbursement of Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred from December 1, 2010 through February 28, 2011 (the "Third Interim Fee Application") filed by FTI Consulting, Inc. ("FTI"), as Financial Advisors for the debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"). The Court finding that (a) the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and (b) the Third Interim Fee Application is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (B) and (O); the Court finding that notice of the Third Interim Fee Application was sufficient under the circumstances, and that no further notice need be given; the Court being fully advised of the premises and having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Third Interim Fee Application establish just cause for the relief herein; and the Court after consideration of the Third Interim Fee Application, finds that the Third Interim Fee Application should be granted on an interim basis, and further finds as follows:

1. Notice and opportunity for hearing on the Third Interim Fee Application were appropriate.

2. The award of fees to FTI on an interim basis is appropriate under 11 U.S.C. §§ 327, 328, 503(b)(1)(A), and 507(a).

3. FTI is a professional person properly employed under 11 U.S.C. §§ 327 and 328, and FTI does not have an interest adverse to the Debtors' estates and is disinterested.

4. After a review of the Third Interim Fee Application, the documents on file in these cases, and based on the nature, the extent, and the value of FTI's services, the award of fees requested in the Third Interim Fee Application is reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the Applicant to the benefit of the Debtors and their estates.

5. The time FTI spent on such services was reasonable.

6. The cost of FTI's services is less than or equal to comparable services for other similar cases and other cases in this district.

It is therefore

ORDERED, that FTI, as financial advisor to the Debtors, is hereby granted interim approval and allowance of compensation for professional fees during the Compensation Period (as defined in the Third Interim Fee Application) in the amount of $53,114.50; it is further

ORDERED that FTI is hereby granted interim approval and allowance of out-of-pocket expenses incurred during the Compensation Period in the amount of $6,086.48; it is further ORDERED that the Debtors are directed to pay FTI its unpaid fees and expenses in the amount of $10,622.90 within ten (10) days following entry of this Order.
