In re:	Chapter 11
SEA CONTAINERS LTD., et al.,	Case No. 06-11156 (KJC)
Debtors.	Jointly Administered

THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS OF SEA CONTAINERS LTD.'S REQUEST FOR THE PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS DIRECTED TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE SEA CONTAINERS 1983 SCHEME

Pursuant to Rules 7034 and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Sea Containers Ltd. ("the Committee"), hereby requests that The Trustees of the Sea Containers 1983 Scheme (the "Claimant") produce the documents described below for inspection and copying at the offices of Bingham McCutchen LLP, c/o Sabin Willett, Esq., 150 Federal Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02110 on or before March 14, 2008.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Scope of Requests. In responding to this request for the production of documents, the Claimant is under an obligation to make a diligent search of all files that the Claimant reasonably believes may contain responsive documents. Claimant is required to produce all documents in its possession, custody or control, regardless of location, including documents held by its employees, agents, representatives, attorneys, and advisors, and any other person whose actions the Claimant may direct with respect to this request for production.

2. Organization of Production. Pursuant to F.R.B.P. 7034, F.R.C.P. 34(b) applies to this request for production.

3. Loss or Destruction of Documents. If any document responsive to this request for production is known or believed to have been lost, destroyed, discarded or otherwise disposed of, the Claimant shall provide, to the extent reasonably possible, a description of the document, its date, author(s), recipient(s) and contents, the date of its loss or other disposition, and the circumstances surrounding its loss or other disposition.

4. Deletions from Documents. Where anything has been deleted or redacted from a document produced in response to this request for production, the Claimant shall state with specificity (a) the nature of the material deleted or redacted; and (b) the reason for deletion or redaction.

5. Privileged Materials. Pursuant to F.R.B.P. 7026, F.R.C.P. 26(b)(5) applies to this request for production.

6. Duty to Supplement or Correct. Pursuant to F.R.B.P. 7026, F.R.C.P. 26(e) applies to this request for production.

DEFINITIONS

1. "Document" means those things described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), including without limitation the original and each draft or otherwise non-identical copy of such document, all writings, graphics, printed matter, recordings of any kind, including audiotape, videotape, and all information retrievable from computer systems, including electronic mail, in the actual or constructive possession, custody, care or control of the Claimant, its attorneys, or other persons or entities acting on behalf of the Claimant. Any copy differing in any respect from an original shall be deemed herein to be a separate document.

2. "Communication" means the transmittal of information in any form, including any oral or written transmittal of information, or request for information, made from one person to another person, whether made in person, by telephone, by electronic mail, or by any other means, and includes any documents made only for the purpose of recording a communication, idea, statement, opinion, or belief.

3. A document that "concerns," "refers to" or "relates to" a given subject matter means any document that evidences, constitutes, describes, contains, embodies, reflects, identifies, states, references, deals with, or is in any way pertinent to that subject, including, without limitation, documents concerning the presentation of other documents.

4. The terms "you" and "your" mean the Trustees of the Sea Containers 1983 Pension Scheme, and its members, directors, officers, agents, and attorneys.

5. The singular form shall include the plural and vice versa, wherever such dual construction will serve to bring within the scope of these requests for production any answer or response that otherwise would not be brought within its scope.

6. The words "and" and "or" shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively, and each shall include the other, wherever such dual construction will serve to bring within the scope of these requests for production any answer or response which otherwise would not be brought within its scope.

7. The term "TPR" shall mean The Pensions Regulator of the United Kingdom, its officers, directors, employees, personnel, attorneys, and agents.

8. The term "1983 Scheme Claims" shall mean the claims of the 1983 Scheme against the Debtors as asserted by the Trustees from time to time, including, without limitation, in the proofs of claim filed, on or about July 12, 2007, by the Trustees of the Sea Containers 1983 Pension Schemes against Sea Containers, Ltd., Sea Containers Services, Ltd., and Sea Containers Caribbean, Ltd. (Claim Nos. 73, 74, 75), and in any and all negotiations leading up to the Proposed Pension Settlement.

9. The term "1983 Scheme" shall mean the pension scheme identified in the 1983 Scheme Claims.

10. The term "Trustees" shall mean all current and former trustees of the 1983 Scheme and its agents and attorneys.

11. The term "Services Committee" shall mean the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Sea Containers Services Ltd., including its members, the Trustees of the Sea Containers 1983 Scheme and the Trustees of the Sea Containers 1983 Scheme, and its agents and attorneys.

12. The term "Debtors" shall mean Sea Containers Caribbean, Inc. ("SCC"), Sea Containers, Ltd. ("SCL") and Sea Containers Services, Ltd. ("SCSL"), including its representatives, agents and attorneys.

13. The term "Proposed Pension Settlement" shall mean the settlement reached between the Debtors, the Services Committee, and the trustees of the Sea Containers 1983 Schemes and the Sea Containers 1990 Pension Schemes as identified in the Debtors' Motion for Order Approving Settlement Regarding Pension Claims.

14. The term "Prudent Investor Rule" shall mean the methodology applied to certain United States pension claims as set forth in In re CSC Indus., Inc., 232 F.3d 505, 508 (6th Cir. 2000) and In re CF&I Fabricators, Inc., 150 F.3d 1293, 1301 (10th Cir. 1998).

15. The term "Buy-Out Method" shall mean the methodology applied to certain pension claims in the United Kingdom pursuant to s.75 of the Pensions Act of 1995.

16. The term "Equalisation" shall mean the requirement under United Kingdom law that the 1983 Scheme equalise the retirement age for the 1983 Scheme's male and female members.

17. The term "Equalisation Claims" shall mean the liability of the Debtors, if any, to the Trustees of the 1983 Scheme, or beneficiaries thereof, as the case may be, as a result of the treatment afforded by the 1983 Scheme to males and females, and in consequence of any private right of action that might rise therefrom.

18. The term "Debtors' Motion for Order Approving Settlement Regarding Pension Claims" shall mean the motion filed by the Debtors in connection with the above-captioned matter on or about February 18, 2008.

19. The term "Board" shall mean Board of Directors.
