Re: In re Sea Containers Ltd., et al., Case No. 06-11156 (KJC)

Dear Tom:

As you know, we represent the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Sea Containers Services Ltd. (the "Services Committee") in the above-referenced bankruptcy cases. We understand from our meetings and from your Verified Statement filed pursuant to Rule 2019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure ("Rule 2019") on February 25, 2008 [Docket No. 1481] (the "Verified Statement") that you represent a number of Sea Containers Ltd. bondholders (the "Bondholder Group", and each bondholder individually, a "Bondholder").

We reviewed the Verified Statement and find it to be incomplete pursuant to Rule 2019 and applicable case law. Specifically, Rule 2019(a)(2) requires a disclosure for each Bondholder regarding "the nature and amount of [its] claim or interest and the time of acquisition thereof unless it is alleged to have been acquired more than one year prior to the filing of the petition." In addition, Rule 2019(a)(4) requires a disclosure for each Bondholder regarding "the amounts of claims or interests owned by the entity . . . the times when acquired, the amounts paid therefor, and any sales or other disposition thereof".

Relevant case law is unequivocal that an entity such as the Bondholder Group must comply with Rule 2019(a) with respect to each of the group's members. See In re Northwest Airlines Corp., 363 B.R. 701, 704 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (holding that an informal committee and its counsel each must comply with Rule 2019(a) and therefore must file an amended statement containing information called for in Rule 2019(a)).

Accordingly, please advise us whether you will fully comply with Rule 2019(a) and promptly file an amended verified statement, or whether it will be necessary for the Services Committee to file a motion to compel compliance pursuant to Rule 2019(b). In addition, please confirm that each of your clients remain committed to objecting to the Debtors' Motion pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure for approval of the settlement among the Debtors, the Trustees of the 1983 and 1990 Schemes, and the Services Committee. Unless you notify us otherwise, we intend to serve each of your clients with the enclosed discovery and would appreciate you letting us know whether we can proceed informally or whether each of your clients will insist on service of formal document requests.

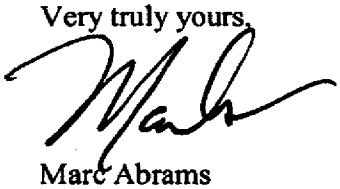
Very truly yours,



Marc Abrams

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

In re:	Chapter 11
SEA CONTAINERS LTD., et al.,	Case No. 06-11156 (KJC)
Debtors.	Jointly Administered

THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS OF SEA CONTAINERS SERVICES LTD.'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES DIRECTED TO THE HOLDERS OF UNSECURED NOTES ISSUED BY SEA CONTAINERS LTD.

Pursuant to Rules 7033 and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Sea Containers Services Ltd. ("the SCSL Committee") hereby requests that the holders of unsecured notes issued by Sea Containers Ltd. (the "Bondholders") serve upon the SCSL Committee responses to the following interrogatories, in writing and under oath by delivering to its counsel, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, c/o Brian E. O'Connor, Esq., 787 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY 10019 on or before March 31, 2008.

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

A. The SCSL Committee hereby incorporates by reference the definitions contained in its Request for Production of Documents in this matter that were sent to the Bondholders on February 28, 2008.

B. The term "identify" shall mean and include:

1. When used in reference to a document:

i. describe the date it was prepared or created, the identity of its author or originator, the type of document (e.g., letter, telegram, chart, photograph, sound recording, etc.), the identity of its recipient or addressee, its present location, and the identity of its present custodian(s); or, in lieu of providing the requested information regarding the identity of the document, to the extent that the document itself contains the requested information, you may attach the document to your answers; and

ii. if the document has been destroyed or is otherwise no longer in existence or cannot be found, state the reason why such document no longer exists, the identity of the person(s) responsible for the destruction or loss of the document, and the identity of its last known custodian(s).

2. When used in reference to a natural person:

i. state such person's name;

ii. state such person's present residential address and telephone number (or if not known or ascertainable, the last known address indicating that it is the last known address);

iii. state such person's present place of business and present business address and telephone number (or if not known or ascertainable, the last known place of business and business address indicating that it is the last known place of business and business address); and

iv. state such person's job title and employer (or if not known or ascertainable, the last known employer indicating that it is the last known employer).

3. When used in reference to any person other than a natural person:

i. state its full name;

ii. state the address and telephone number of its principal place of business;

iii. state the jurisdiction under the laws of which it has been organized or incorporated and the date of such organization or incorporation;

iv. identify all individuals who acted and/or who authorized another to act on its behalf in connection with the matters referred to;

v. in the case of a corporation, identify its directors and principal officers; and

vi. in the case of an entity other than a corporation, identify its partners, principals and all individuals who acted or who authorized another to act on its behalf in connection with the matters referred to.

4. When used in reference to a communication:

i. state the date or approximate date;

ii. identify the parties to the communication;

iii. describe in as much detail as possible the substance of the communication; and

iv. identify all documents which refer to, evidence, describe or constitute the communication.

5. When used in reference to a legal proceeding:

i. identify the title of the proceeding, the court or tribunal before which it is or was pending, its docket or file number, and the date on which it was initiated;

ii. describe the legal and factual claims made in the proceeding;

iii. describe its current status; and

iv. describe its result, if any, and identify any final determination or judgment entered.

INTERROGATORIES

INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Identify each person you expect to call as an expert witness at the April 21, 2008 hearing concerning Debtors' Motion For Order Approving Settlement Regarding Pension Claims stating for each expert the following:

a. name, address, occupation, and place of employment;

b. qualifications to give an opinion;

c. a statement of all opinions to be expressed and the bases and reasons therefore, including the data or other information considered by the witness in forming the opinions;

d. all exhibits to be used as a summary or demonstrative in support of the opinions;

e. a list of all publications authored by the witness;

f. all elements of compensation paid to the expert witness; and

g. a listing of any other cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial or by deposition.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

Identify each person you expect to call as a witness at the April 21, 2008 hearing concerning Debtors' Motion For Order Approving Settlement Regarding Pension Claims.

INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

With respect to each client listed on Exhibit A to the Verified Statement Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2019 of Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, filed on or about February 25, 2008, identify the following:

a. the principal amount of notes held by such client;

b. whether the client is the beneficial owner of such notes; and

c. if the client is not the beneficial owner of the notes, identify who the beneficial owner(s) is and the client's relationship to the beneficial holder.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

With respect to each beneficial owner identified in response to Interrogatory No. 3, identify the jurisdiction in which such beneficial owner resides and, if the beneficial holder is anything other than an individual, the jurisdiction in which the beneficial owner is incorporated or otherwise organized.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

Identify the jurisdiction in which the account holding the unsecured notes identified in response to Interrogatory No. 3 is located.
