OBJECTION OF MISSISSIPPI PHOSPHATES CORPORATION TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF DANIEL C. HOLLAND – CLAIM NO. 157

Mississippi Phosphates Corporation, the Debtor and debtor-in-possession herein (the “Debtor”), by and through its attorneys, file this Objection of Mississippi Phosphates Corporation to Proof of Claim of Daniel C. Holland - Claim No. 157 (the “Objection”) and respectfully request that the Court enter an Order disallowing Proof of Claim No. 157² (the “Claim”) of Daniel C. Holland (“Claimant”) as set forth herein. In support of the Objection, the Debtor respectfully states as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) & (B).
2. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

² Pursuant to the Court’s Order Authorizing Debtors to Employ and Retain BMC Group, Inc. as Noticing and Claims Agent [Dkt. # 257], the Debtors retained BMC Group, Inc. (“BMC”) as the claims and noticing agent. Accordingly, BMC maintained the official claims register on behalf of the Clerk and BMC assigned the claim its own BMC claim number – BMC Claim No. 157.

3. The Debtor files the Objection and requests the relief sought herein pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 102, 105, and 502, Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Miss. Bankr. L.R. 3007-1.

BACKGROUND

4. The Board of Directors of MPC (the “Board”) adopted the Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan (the “Plan” or the “Severance Pay Plan”) on December 19, 2011, to be effective as of November 7, 2011. Under the Plan, the Board reserved the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice:

3.4 Amendments and Discontinuation of the Plan. Severance Benefits are not intended to be a vested right. The Company reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice; provided, however, that the Plan cannot be amended or terminated so as to reduce the benefit to which an Eligible Employee has become entitled as the result of a termination of active employment in connection with a Reduction in Force prior to the date on which the amendment or termination is effective, except that benefits under the Company's group medical plan (and therefore of COBRA Premium Payments with respect thereto) may be reduced, amended or eliminated without prior notice to the extent consistent with changes made to the benefits under the Company's group medical plan provided to active employees of the Company).

A copy of the Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. Effective as of October 24, 2014, in consideration of the impact of the Plan on the operations of MPC and MPC's ability to continue to operate in a cost-efficient manner, the Board took the following action and terminated the Severance Pay Plan:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Directors, on behalf of the Corporation in its capacity as the sponsor of the Plan, hereby approves the termination of the Plan effective as of October 24, 2014.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the officers of the Corporation are authorized and directed to do all such things as necessary, proper or advisable to promptly notify employees of the termination of the Plan.

A copy of the Minutes of the Special Actions Taken by Written Consent of the Board of Directors of Mississippi Phosphates Corporation in Lieu of a Special Meeting Thereof terminating the Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

6. On October 27, 2014 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed its voluntary petition for relief and thereby commenced the Bankruptcy Case under chapter 11, title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Mississippi, Southern Division (the “Court”). Pursuant to Sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor operated its business and managed its properties as debtor-in-possession.

7. On November 11, 2014, a memorandum (the “Memo”) from Steve Russo, MPC’s Chief Executive Officer, gave notice to all MPC employees of the Plan’s termination:

Our recent bankruptcy filing has forced us to review many of our existing policies and practices in light of our economic reality and the need to focus our assets on operational requirements. In 2011, Mississippi Phosphates Corporation (MPC) adopted a severance plan, the Mississippi Phosphates Severance Pay Plan. One provision of the Plan was that MPC reserved the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice. Because of MPC's bankruptcy and the financial constraints under which MPC must operate, the Plan was recently terminated by the Board of Directors of MPC. We are writing to give you notice of the termination of the Plan.

A copy of the Memo is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

8. As of the Effective Date of the termination of the Severance Pay Plan and the actual notice to all MPC employees of the Plan’s termination, there had not been a Reduction in Force for MPC Employees. Further, the requirements for a Reduction in Force, pursuant to Section 1.9 of the Plan, were never met; MPC never designated the downsizing of the workforce as a Reduction in Force because it had terminated the Severance Pay Plan prior to the downsizing and the termination of the employment of the Claimant. Consequently, the Claimant was not an Eligible Employee who became entitled to severance benefits under the Severance Pay Plan as the result of a termination of active employment in connection with a Reduction in Force prior to the date on which the amendment or termination is effective.

9. On the Petition Date, the Debtors filed their Motion of the Debtors for Authority to Pay Certain Pre-Petition Employee Obligations (the “Employee Motion”) [Dkt. # 15], in which the Debtors sought authority from the Court to pay certain pre-petition Employee Obligations (as defined in the Employee Motion), including wages and salaries, accrued PTO, employee deductions, and employee benefits for the self-funded Employee Health Protection Plan pursuant to a proposed Approved Budget.

10. On November 5, 2014, the Court entered its Interim Order Granting, in Part, Motion of the Debtors for Authority to Pay Certain Pre-Petition Employee Obligations [Dkt. # 129], authorizing the Debtors to pay the Employee Obligations that included, among other things, the wages and salaries, and employee deductions.

11. On December 3, 2014, the Court entered its Final Order Granting Motion of the Debtors for Authority to Pay Certain Pre-Petition Employee Obligations [Dkt. # 288] in which the Debtors were authorized to pay the Employee Obligations that included the wages and salaries, PTO, business expenses, and employee deductions, and to pay Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Mississippi, the third-party administrator for the self-funded Employee Health Protection Plan (the “Health Plan”) for the Debtors, for allowed claims of Covered Persons under the self-funded Health Plan.

12. The Debtors ceased production of product at the Pascagoula facility after the first week of December 2014. The Debtors then worked to idle the production facility, while maintaining the terminalling operations and the Debtors’ environmental responsibilities.

Because of the cessation of production, MPC terminated the employment of a number of its production employees. MPC, however, paid all wages and salaries, PTO, business expenses, employee deductions, and allowed claims of covered persons under the self-funded Health Plan until the Health Plan was terminated.

13. Thereafter, for those employees retained by the Debtors for terminalling operations and the Debtors' environmental responsibilities, the Debtors continued to pay all wages and salaries, PTO, business expenses, and employee deductions until October 16, 2015, when the Debtors closed the Alternative Transactions by transferring substantially all of its real and personal property to the MPC Environmental Trust and to the MPC Liquidation Trust. As of October 16, 2015, the MPC Environmental Trust assumed the responsibility for the wastewater treatment and the gyp stacks maintenance, while the MPC Liquidation Trust assumed the responsibility for the ammonia terminalling operations of the Debtors. Although MPC terminated all of its employees working in the terminalling operations or environmental maintenance on October 16, 2015, many of those employees were retained by the MPC Environmental Trust, the MPC Liquidation Trust, or their agents.

14. The Claimant was paid all wages and compensation for the period of time the Claimant was employed by the Debtor – both pre-petition and post-petition.

15. An Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors was appointed by the United States Trustee in the Bankruptcy Case on November 12, 2014 [Dkt. # 161], and the Court approved the Committee's retention of Burr & Forman LLP as counsel for the Committee [Dkt. # 473].

16. The last day for creditors and parties-in-interest, with the exception of governmental units, to file claims or proofs of interest against the Debtors was February 24, 2015 (the “Bar Date”). The claims bar date for governmental units was April 25, 2015.

THE CLAIM

17. On January 26, 2015, the Claimant filed his Claim in the amount of $13,788.00 for “severance pay.” The Claim was filed as an unsecured claim. A copy of the Claim is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

RELIEF REQUESTED

18. The Debtor seeks entry of an Order, pursuant to Sections 102, 105, and 502 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3007, directing the disallowance of the Claim of the Claimant as detailed herein.

19. Because the MPC as the debtor-in-possession has objected to the Claim, the Claim is no longer deemed allowed, pursuant to Section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Johnson v. Midland Funding, LLC, 62 Bankr. Ct. Dec. 169 (11th Cir. 2016) (“Where a proof of claim is filed in a bankruptcy case, that claim is generally ‘deemed allowed,’ so it will be viewed as a valid claim and paid out of the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). However, the bankruptcy trustee is charged with ‘examin[ing] proofs of claim and object[ing] to the allowance of any claim that is improper.’ Id. § 704(a)(5); see also id. at § 1302(b)(1). Once the trustee objects, the bankruptcy court is in turn charged with determining whether the claim ‘is unenforceable against the debtor . . . under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured.’ Id. § 502(b)(1); ...”).

20. The burden of proof for claims brought in the bankruptcy court under 11 U.S.C. § 502(a) rests on different parties at different times. The shifting burdens is best described in In re Allegheny Int'l, Inc., 954 F.2d 167, 173-74 (3d Cir. 1992), in which the Court noted:

Initially, the claimant must allege facts sufficient to support the claim. If the averments in his filed claim meet this standard of sufficiency, it is “prima facie” valid. In re Holm, 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991) (quoting 3 L. King, Collier on Bankruptcy § 502.02, at 502-22 (15th ed. 1991)). In other words, a claim that alleges facts sufficient to support a legal liability to the claimant satisfies the claimant’s initial obligation to go forward. The burden of going forward then shifts to the objector to produce evidence sufficient to negate the prima facie validity of the filed claim. It is often said that the objector must produce evidence equal in force to the prima facie case. Id.; see In re Windsor Communications Group, Inc., 45 Bankr. 770, 773 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1985). In practice, the objector must produce evidence which, if believed, would refute at least one of the allegations that is essential to the claim’s legal sufficiency. If the objector produces sufficient evidence to negate one or more of the sworn facts in the proof of claim, the burden reverts to the claimant to prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence. See In re WHET, Inc., 33 Bankr. 424, 437 (Bankr. D. Mass. 1983). The burden of persuasion is always on the claimant. Holm, 931 F.2d at 623 (quoting Collier § 502.02, at 502-22); Windsor Communications, 45 Bankr. at 773.

21. The ultimate burden of proof is on the creditor seeking to establish its claim. See Franchise Tax Bd. v. MacFarlane (In re MacFarlane), 83 F.3d 1041, 1044 (“In bankruptcy proceedings, a properly filed claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. 11 U.S.C. §§ 501, 502(a). The debtor or trustee has the burden of presenting evidence to rebut this prima facie validity. If that burden is met, the creditor must present evidence to prove the claim. The ultimate burden of proof therefore is on the creditor. See In re Holm, 931 F.2d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 1991); United States v. Sampsell, 224 F.2d 721, 722-23 (9th Cir. 1955).”).

22. By the express terms of the Severance Pay Plan, MPC reserved the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice, provided that the Plan could not be amended or terminated so as to reduce the benefit to which an Eligible Employee had become entitled as the result of a termination of active employment in connection with a Reduction in Force prior to the date on which the amendment or termination is effective. See, Potter v. CNA Ins. Co. (In re MEI Diversified), 106 F.3d 829, 832 (4th Cir. 1997) (“MEI as debtor in possession could have terminated the insurance, either by exercising its power to reject executory contracts, see § 365, or by exercising its contractual right to cancel the policy at any time.”). The employment of the Claimant was not terminated by MPC prior to effective date of the termination of the Severance Pay Plan.

23. Because MPC properly terminated the Severance Pay Plan and notified its employees of the termination of the Severance Pay Plan prior to the date when the employment of the Claimant with MPC was terminated, the Claim of the Claimant should be disallowed.

24. The Claim is not enforceable against the Debtor or its property under any agreement or under applicable law. Pursuant to Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Claim should be disallowed and expunged for all purposes.

25. The Debtor expressly reserves the right to amend, modify, or supplement this Objection. Nothing contained in this Objection is intended to or shall be construed to constitute a waiver of any additional defenses, claims, or other issues the Debtor may have with the allowance or propriety of the Claim.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests that this Court enter an order disallowing and expunging the Claim described in this Objection, and for such further relief as is just and proper.

Exhibit A

Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan

MISSISSIPPI PHOSPHATES CORPORATION
SEVERANCE PAY PLAN

(Adopted by Board on December 19, 2011, to be Effective as of November 7, 2011)

WHEREAS, Mississippi Phosphates Corporation desires to formalize a plan for severance benefits and to revoke and replace any existing unwritten corporate policies, plans or agreements relating to severance or notice benefits and so that employees can know in advance the benefits to be provided to Eligible Employees hereunder in the event of a Reduction in Force;

NOW, THEREFORE, Mississippi Phosphates Corporation hereby establishes the Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan to read as follows, effective as of November 7, 2011:

I. ELIGIBILITY AND CERTAIN DEFINITIONS

1.1 Agreement. "Agreement" refers to the Agreement of Acceptance of Severance Benefits attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein.

1.2 COBRA. "COBRA" means the Consolidated Omnibus Reconciliation Budget Act of 1985, as amended from time to time.

1.3 Company. "Company" shall refer to Mississippi Phosphates Corporation and to any of its affiliates which adopt this Plan, provided however, that all references to Company with respect to plan sponsor functions shall refer solely to Mississippi Phosphates Corporation.

1.4 Eligible Employees. An "Eligible Employee" is a full-time, regular employee of the Company who is on the payroll of the Company at the time of a Reduction in Force. "Eligible Employee" does not include the following:

- (a) an individual designated by the Company as an independent contractor (without regard to such person's status for Federal income tax purposes and without regard to any subsequent determination that such employee is a common law employee);
- (b) an employee designated by the Company as a part-time employee, (a "part-time employee" is an employee who has been approved by the Company for a part-time schedule, whose normal work schedule involves fewer than 40 hours per week and whose position has been designated by the Company as a position suitable for a part time schedule);
- (c) an employee designated by the Company as a temporary employee (a "temporary employee" is one hired for a defined period of time, which period may be defined by reference to a specific date or to the duration of a project or circumstance);
- (d) any employee who is providing services pursuant to an oral or written contract or leasing arrangement with an unrelated employer, whether or not the employee is a "leased employee" as defined in Section 414(n)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code;

- (e) any employee who is a member of a collective bargaining unit for which no applicable agreement specifies inclusion as an Eligible Employee under this Plan; or
- (f) any employee who is employed through a cooperative studies or intern program.

An employee who is otherwise an Eligible Employee shall not fail to be considered an Eligible Employee simply because he/she is on an authorized Leave of Absence at the time of a Reduction in Force.

1.5 ERISA. "ERISA" means the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

1.6 Pay. "Pay" means the weekly base salary of an Eligible Employee determined based on his/her stated hourly, weekly, monthly, or annual rate on the date of the Reduction in Force. Pay does not include overtime pay or other remuneration. The calculation of the weekly amount shall be made by the Plan Administrator based upon a 40-hour work week. In the case of an Eligible Employee who is on an authorized Leave of Absence on the date of the Reduction in Force, "Pay" shall mean the weekly base salary determined immediately prior to the beginning of the authorized Leave of Absence.

1.7 Plan. "Plan" herein shall refer to this Severance Pay Plan, as the same may from time to time be amended.

1.8 Plan Administrator. The "Plan Administrator" for this Plan is Mississippi Phosphates Corporation or such other person or persons named by Mississippi Phosphates Corporation.

1.9 Reduction in Force. A "Reduction in Force" means, with respect to each Eligible Employee, an action (a) in which the Company's workforce is downsized and/or restructured as a consequence of economic factors affecting the Company, consolidation of operations of the Company, changes in the Company's strategy or business plan, or the sale or disposition (whether by merger, consolidation, reorganization, dissolution or otherwise) of the facility, division or entity at or for which the Eligible Employee is employed if and only if such Eligible Employee is not hired or retained in employment by the purchaser, successor to the Company or a related entity within thirty (30) days of the sale or disposition; (b) in which the Eligible Employee is involuntarily terminated due to such downsizing and/or restructuring; (c) in which the Company eliminates the position of the Eligible Employee due to such downsizing and/or restructuring; and (d) which the Company, acting in good faith, designates as a Reduction in Force.

1.10 Severance Benefits. "Severance Benefits" means the severance benefits described in Sections 2.2 and 2.3 of this Plan, subject to the other provisions hereof.

1.11 Years of Service. See Section 2.4.

II. BENEFITS

2.1 Severance Benefits. An Eligible Employee will be entitled to receive Severance Benefits only when (a) he or she is terminated solely due to a Reduction in Force, (b) he or she properly executes and returns in a timely manner an acceptance form provided by the Company, which form shall be substantially in the form of the Agreement, (c) such Eligible Employee does not revoke his or her acceptance within seven (7) days following its execution, and (d) such Eligible Employee meets any other applicable conditions hereunder.

2.2 Severance Pay. "Severance Pay" means payments equal to one half (½) of the Eligible Employee's Pay at the time of the Eligible Employee's termination. The period of time during which Severance Pay will be provided will depend upon each Eligible Employee's length of service as a regular employee with the Company or any related entity, with a minimum duration of five weeks and a maximum duration of 52 weeks, in accordance with the table attached hereto as Exhibit B and incorporated herein.

2.3 COBRA Premium Payments. If an Eligible Employee and/or his/her dependents covered under the Company's group medical plan just prior to the Eligible Employee's termination, if any, are eligible for and timely elect medical COBRA continuation coverage and properly complete the forms provided by the Company, the Company shall pay the cost of such medical COBRA continuation coverage commencing as of the date specified in Section 2.5 until the earliest of (a) the Company has paid such premiums for the number of weeks for which Severance Pay is payable pursuant to Section 2.2 with respect to the Eligible Employee (reduced by any period during which the Company pays such Employee's group medical plan premiums in accordance with the second paragraph of Section 2.6 of this Plan); (b) the date coverage ends under the terms of the applicable Company group medical plan; or (c) the date the Eligible Employee's COBRA continuation coverage would otherwise end in accordance with COBRA, regardless of reason (e.g., if an individual receiving such coverage becomes eligible for Medicare, participation in another group health plan, termination of the Company's group medical plan, etc.). Thereafter, the Employee will be responsible for paying the full COBRA premium for the remainder of the COBRA continuation coverage. The Plan will not pay COBRA premiums relating to any dental plan, the Catastrophic Illness/Cancer Insurance Plan, any voluntary disability plan, a replacement plan for any of the foregoing plans or any other plan covered by COBRA; nor will the Company provide benefits under any benefit plan other than payment of COBRA Premium Payments in connection with the Company's group medical plan as set forth above.

2.4 Years of Service. The length of service of an Eligible Employee is the elapsed time between his or her date of hire by the Company or an affiliate of the Company (regardless of whether the affiliate has adopted the Plan) as a regular employee through his or her termination date as a regular employee due to the Reduction in Force, but does not include any period(s) during which an employee (a) does not perform services as an employee of the Company or an affiliate (as defined in the preceding sentence) or (b) is an individual listed in Sections 1.4 (a) through (f) above.

2.5 Payment. Payment of Severance Pay will begin on or as soon as practicable after the eighth day following the Eligible Employee's execution of the Agreement, provided that said Agreement has not been revoked by the Eligible Employee within seven (7) days following such execution. Thereafter, Severance Pay will be paid on the former Eligible Employee's previously scheduled paydays and, when possible, will be made by direct deposit. Notwithstanding the preceding, all payments of Severance Benefits shall be completed within the time limits for this Plan to be considered an employee welfare benefit plan (within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(1) and a separation pay plan (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)), therefore, a failure to timely execute the Agreement will result in the forfeiture of benefits if the benefits cannot be completed within such time period.

2.6 Subsequent Employment. If a terminated employee receiving Severance Benefits is re-hired as a regular employee, his or her Severance Benefits will cease immediately.

If a terminated employee receiving Severance Benefits is re-hired as a temporary or part-time employee, Severance Pay will be suspended during such temporary or part-time employment and will be resumed when such employment ends. If such an employee is not eligible to participate in the Company's group medical plan during such temporary or part-time employment, COBRA Premium Payments will continue for the period set forth in Section 2.3. If such employee is eligible to participate in the Company's group medical plan during such temporary or part-time employment, the employee may elect to pay the premiums of a regular employee who elects his or her level of coverage, in which event the COBRA Premium Payments will be suspended during such temporary or part-time employment and will be resumed when such employment ends. Alternatively, such employee may elect to have the Company continue to pay the cost of his or her group medical plan coverage during such temporary or part-time employment for the period set forth in Section 2.3.

No Eligible Employee shall receive COBRA Premium Payments (or payments of group medical plan premiums for temporary or part-time employees in accordance with the previous paragraph) for a total period greater than that set forth in Section 2.3, regardless of whether such payments relate to coverage that qualifies as COBRA coverage.

2.7 Other Severance Benefits. If any Eligible Employee receives severance benefits from the Company under any other plan or employment agreement, such benefits will be subtracted from the total Severance Benefits otherwise due hereunder.

2.8 Reduction of Severance Benefits by WARN Payments. To the extent that any federal, state or local law, including, without limitation, so-called "plant closing" laws, requires the Company to provide advance notice or make a payment of any kind to an Eligible Employee because of that employee's involuntary termination due to a layoff, reduction in force, plant or facility closing, sale of business, change of control, or any other similar event or reason, the Severance Benefits provided under this Plan shall either be reduced or eliminated. The benefits provided under this Plan are intended to satisfy any and all statutory obligations that may arise out of an Eligible Employee's involuntary termination for the foregoing reasons, and the Plan Administrator shall so construe and implement the terms of the Plan.

2.9 Death of Former Employee. In the event a terminated Eligible Employee dies while receiving Severance Pay, the remainder of the Severance Pay will be paid in a lump sum to the individual(s) named as beneficiary on such terminated employee's most recent Group Life Insurance enrollment. If no such beneficiary is named, or if the beneficiary has predeceased the employee, the Severance Pay will be paid to the terminated employee's surviving spouse, or, if none, to the employee's surviving children equally. Notwithstanding the preceding, the Company shall not be obligated to pay any death benefits until it is satisfied that it shall not be exposed to multiple liability. Notwithstanding the acceleration of the payment of Severance Pay, the COBRA Premium Payments shall continue to be made for the benefit of the Eligible Employee's dependents for the period determined under Section 2.3.

2.10 Other Benefits. Participation in all employee benefit programs of the Company other than this Plan will cease on or after the date of termination as determined under the provisions of the individual benefit programs of the Company. Severance Benefits paid under this Plan will not be considered compensation for purposes of determining contributions and benefits under the Company's retirement plan(s).

III. MISCELLANEOUS

3.1 Unfunded Benefits. Benefits under the Plan shall be paid out of the general assets of the Company and shall not be funded through a trust or other arrangement, nor shall Eligible Employees be required to make a contribution as a condition of receiving benefits.

3.2 Administration of the Plan. The Plan shall be administered by the Plan Administrator, which shall have the sole discretionary authority to construe and interpret the Plan and determine all questions of eligibility for Severance Benefits and the amount thereof. In addition, the Plan Administrator shall have full authority to interpret and apply the provisions of the Plan, including authority to correct any defects or omissions or to reconcile any inconsistencies herein, in such a manner and to such an extent as the Plan Administrator shall deem necessary or desirable to effectuate the Plan. The Plan Administrator may make such rules and regulations for the administration of the Plan as the Plan Administrator deems necessary or desirable. All decisions of the Plan Administrator shall be final and binding on all parties. The Plan Administrator shall be the agent for service of legal process. Legal process can be served at the address provided in Section 3.5.

3.3 No Transfer. To the extent an Eligible Employee or other person acquires a right to receive payments under the Plan, such rights will not be subject to assignment, pledge (including collateral for a loan or security for the performance of an obligation), encumbrance or transfer. Any attempt to assign, pledge, encumber or transfer such rights will not be recognized.

3.4 Amendments and Discontinuation of the Plan. Severance Benefits are not intended to be a vested right. The Company reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice; provided, however, that the Plan cannot be amended or terminated so as to reduce the benefit to which an Eligible Employee has become entitled as the result of a termination of active employment in connection with a Reduction in Force prior to the date on which the amendment or termination is effective, except that benefits under the Company's group medical plan (and therefore of COBRA Premium Payments with respect thereto) may be reduced, amended or eliminated without prior notice to the extent consistent with changes made to the benefits under the Company's group medical plan provided to active employees of the Company).

3.5 Plan Year. The Plan Year will run from January 1 through December 31.

3.6 Purpose and Applicable Law. The Plan is intended to be a welfare benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(1) of ERISA and a separation pay plan within the meaning of Treas. Reg. Section 1.409A-1(b)(9), and the Plan shall be interpreted consistently with that intention. In no event shall benefits payable to any Eligible Employee under this Plan exceed twice the Eligible Employee's "Annual Compensation" (as defined in Labor Reg. § 2510.3-2(b)(2)) during the year immediately preceding the year of termination. To the extent not governed by ERISA or other federal law, the Plan shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state of Mississippi without regard to its conflicts of laws provisions.

3.7 Claims for Benefits. Severance Benefits under the Plan will ordinarily be paid to Eligible Employees without the need to demand payment. Nevertheless, a former employee (a "claimant") who believes he or she is entitled to a Severance Benefit that has not been paid may file a claim for a benefit with the Plan Administrator. If you believe you have a claim for benefits from the Plan, you must utilize the Claims Procedure attached as Exhibit C, provided, however, that any claims pertaining to the group medical plan described above must be made in accordance with the claims procedure applicable to that plan.

3.8 Withholdings. Severance Benefits under the Plan will be subject to all applicable employment taxes, like Social Security and Medicare taxes (i.e., FICA) and federal and state income taxes. Severance Benefits may also be reduced by the amount of any legally required withholding, such as wage attachments for child support and bankruptcy payments.

3.9 Right of Set-Off. Severance Benefits will be reduced by the amount of any indebtedness or obligation an Eligible Employee has to a Company participating in the Plan.

3.10 Right of Recovery. If for any reason a benefit is paid which is larger than the amount allowed by the Plan, the Plan has a right to recover the excess amount from the Eligible Employee who received it. The Company must produce any instruments or papers necessary to enforce this right of recovery.

3.11 Responsibility for Taxes. Each Eligible Employee is solely responsible for the payment of all taxes attributable to Severance Benefits paid under the Plan. The Company will withhold all required tax withholdings but makes no guarantee of the tax consequences of the payment of Severance Benefits to any employee.

3.12 Nonguarantee of Employment. Participation in the Plan is not a contract of employment or the right to be continued in the employment of the Company. The Company may discharge an Eligible Employee at any time, without regard to this Plan.

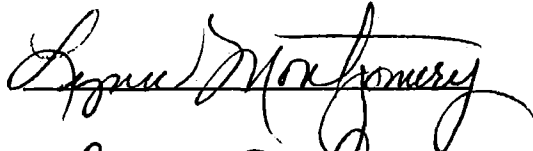

3.13 Supersession. The Plan supersedes and replaces in their entirety all prior existing severance pay plans, programs or practices for employees, whether formal or informal, provided, however, that this Plan shall not supersede, replace or affect in any way severance provisions in any written employment agreement or other written agreement with the Company.

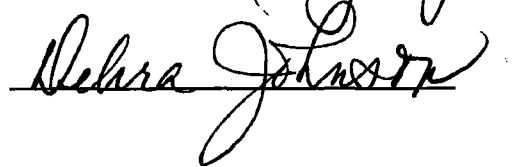

3.14 Limitation of Liability. Neither the Company nor the Plan Administrator, shall be liable for any act or failure to act which is made in good faith pursuant to the provisions of the Plan, except to the extent required by applicable law. It is expressly understood and agreed by each Eligible Employee that, except for its or their willful misconduct or gross neglect, neither the Company nor the Plan Administrator shall be subject to any legal liability to any Participant, for any cause or reason whatsoever, in connection with this Plan, and each such Eligible Employee (and his/her successors) hereby releases the Company, its officers and agents, and the Plan Administrator, and its agents, from any and all liability or obligation except as provided in this Section.

EXECUTION

This Plan is executed in Madison, Mississippi, this 7th day of November, 2011, but effective as of November 7, 2011.

AGREEMENT OF ACCEPTANCE OF SEVERANCE BENEFITS

TO: [insert Eligible Employee's name]	Date:
---------------------------------------	-------

To indicate your acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan effective as of _____, 2011, as the same from time to time may have been amended (the "Plan"), please sign and date below and return this Agreement of Acceptance of Severance Benefits (the "Agreement") to _____, [Title], [COMPANY NAME AND ADDRESS], telephone number _____; fax number _____. The Agreement may be returned in person by hand delivery, or by U.S. mail, fax, or overnight delivery, but it must be received no later than 5 p.m., _____, 20____. [Note: date must be at least 21 days after receipt by Eligible Employee (45 days if in connection with group termination or exit incentive program).]

I hereby accept the Plan and this Agreement and specifically agree to the following:

1. In consideration of the Severance Benefits described in Article II of the Plan, which is incorporated herein by reference as if copied herein, payable commencing on the eighth day after my execution of this Agreement, I hereby and forever, irrevocably and unconditionally, waive and release any and all rights, claims and causes of action against [COMPANY NAME] (the "COMPANY"), its agents, servants and employees, shareholders, members, directors, members of the board of directors, past and present officers, and any and all other persons, firms, partnerships, associations, or corporations who are or may be liable in any manner whatsoever for its acts, or for the acts of any of them (said parties being collectively referred to as the "Releasees") of whatever kind or nature, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, that may have arisen prior to or that may exist as of the date of my execution and acceptance of this Agreement. It is expressly understood and agreed that the claims covered by my release include, but are not limited to, any and all claims, rights and causes of action arising or that could be asserted under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1001 et seq., Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 621 et seq., the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq., and any other federal, state, or local statute, law, rule, or regulation concerning employment discrimination or otherwise regulating the employment relationship. In addition, it is understood and agreed that by this Agreement, I waive any claims I may have against the Releasees under any other severance plan, policy, or employment contract or based on any other theory of liability, statutory or non-statutory, in contract or in tort, including, but not limited to, claims for wrongful discharge, breach of any express or implied employment contract or agreement, breach of any covenant of good faith and fair dealing, fraud, defamation, or any personal or emotional injury.
2. The execution of this Agreement and the payment of the Severance Benefits provided under the Plan are in no way an admission by the Releasees of any fault, wrongdoing, or liability owed to me arising out of or in any way connected with my employment and the termination of such employment by the Company. The Releasees specifically disclaim any liability to or wrongful acts against _____ or any other person, on the part of itself, their employees or their agents.
3. I agree not to make any negative or derogatory remarks regarding the Releasees, or any of the Company's vendors, contractors, customers, or suppliers.
4. I agree to fully cooperate with the Company, its subsidiary, parent and affiliated entities, and its attorneys regarding any legal matter in which I might be called as a witness or concerning which I may have knowledge of material facts.

5. I expressly acknowledge that I have accepted and signed this Agreement voluntarily and that my acceptance is not based upon any representations or promises of any kind made by the Releasees except as expressly stated in this Agreement and the Plan. I further acknowledge that, pursuant to the Older Worker Benefits Protection Act, (i) I have read and fully understand each paragraph of this Agreement, (ii) that I was (and hereby am being) advised in writing to consult with an attorney before signing this Agreement, (iii) that I could take up to twenty-one (21) days (forty-five (45) days if in connection with a group termination or exit incentive program) within which to consider this Agreement before signing and returning it to the Company, and (iv) that for a period of seven (7) days following my execution of this Agreement, I may revoke this Agreement by delivering a written notice of revocation to _____ at _____ on or before the seventh (7th) day after I sign this Agreement. This Agreement will not become effective or enforceable until this revocation period has expired and I have not exercised any right to revoke this Agreement as provided for in this paragraph. I have considered this Agreement and consulted with legal or other counsel to the full extent I desire. I also acknowledge that at the same time I was given a copy of the Plan and this Agreement to consider, I was provided the following information by the Company: [applicable only in connection with a group termination or exit incentive program]

- (a) identification of the class, unit, or group of individuals covered by the Plan;
- (b) the eligibility factors required for participation in the Plan;
- (c) all time limits applicable to the Plan;
- (d) the job titles and ages of all Eligible Employees under the Plan; and
- (e) the ages of all individuals in my same job classification or organizational units who are not eligible for participation in the Plan.

6. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the Company and me concerning the termination of my employment by the Company, and there are no other extraneous agreements or understandings concerning the termination of my employment.

7. The provisions of this Agreement are severable, meaning that if any part is found to be unenforceable or inoperable, then such provision shall be deemed severed, and all other parts shall remain fully valid and enforceable.

8. The Company and I have agreed to cooperate fully and to execute any and all supplementary documents and to take all additional actions that may be necessary or appropriate to give full force and effect to the basic terms and intent of this Agreement. Further, I agree that if there are any mistakes in this Agreement that cause the release of the Releasees to be defective or less than full, absolute and complete, I will execute any and all instruments and do any other such things necessary to effectuate a full, final and complete release to the Releasees at the request of any of the Releasees.

CLAIMS PROCEDURE
FOR THE
SEVERANCE PAY PLAN

This Claims Procedure (the "Procedure") describes the procedures for making a claim for benefits and for contesting any denial of a claim for benefits under the Plan. This Procedure shall be applied in a uniform, nondiscriminatory manner.

1. Authority of the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator shall make all determinations as to the right of any person to a benefit in accordance with the terms of the Plan.
2. Forms for Making Claims. All initial claims for benefits shall be made by completing a severance agreement and release provided by the Plan Administrator, together with such other forms as the Plan Administrator shall prescribe.
3. Denial of Claims. Any denial of a claim for benefits under the Plan from a Participant shall be stated in writing by the Plan Administrator. It shall be delivered or mailed to the Participant within 90 days after the receipt of a claim for benefits by the Plan Administrator. An extension of time for processing the claim for benefits is allowable if special circumstances require an extension, but such an extension shall not extend beyond 180 days from the date of claim for benefits as received by the Plan Administrator. Written notice of any extension of time shall be delivered or mailed to the Participant within 90 days after receipt of the claim by the Plan Administrator and shall include an explanation of the special circumstances requiring the extension and the date by which the Plan Administrator expects to render the final decision. If the Plan Administrator fails to act within 90 days of the receipt of a claim for benefits, the claim for benefits shall be deemed denied.
4. Appeal of Denial of Claims. If a claim for benefits is denied, the Plan Administrator shall afford a reasonable opportunity to any Participant whose claim for benefits has been denied (or his/her representative) to submit any issues and comments in writing for a review of the decision denying the claim and to submit and review any pertinent documents. The Plan Administrator may require a hearing or any other investigative procedures it deems necessary to aid it in its determination. Any request for review of a denial of a claim shall not be reviewed by the Plan Administrator if submitted more than 60 days after receipt by the claimant of written notification of a claim denial. Within 60 days after the receipt by the Plan Administrator of the request for review, the Plan Administrator shall deliver or mail to the claimant written notice of its decision. An extension of time for making the decision on the request for review is allowable if special circumstances shall occur, but such an extension shall not extend beyond 120 days from the date the request for review is received by the Plan Administrator. Written notice of the extension of time shall be delivered or mailed to the claimant within 60 days after receipt of the claim by the Plan Administrator.

5. Contents of Notices. All written notices required under this Procedure shall be written to the best of the Plan Administrator's ability in a manner that may be understood by the claimant and shall state the specific reasons upon which the claim denial, the review of a decision, or the extension of time is based. Written notice of a denial of a claim or request for review shall also contain references to specific Plan provisions upon which any denial or request for review is based. In addition, any denial of benefits by the Plan Administrator, other than the review of a previous denial, shall include a description of any additional material or information necessary for the claimant to perfect the claim, an explanation of why such information is necessary and the steps required to be taken to obtain a review. Any notice of denial shall also state that the claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and without charge, all documents, records or other information relevant to the claim and that the claimant has a right to bring a lawsuit to challenge the determination, and shall include reference to available alternative dispute resolution options available. Special circumstances as used herein shall include, but shall not be limited to, the need to hold a hearing under this Procedure.
6. Mandatory Exhaustion of Claims Procedure. Exhaustion of the Plan's claims procedure shall be a condition precedent to any suit relating to the denial of benefits.
7. Time Limit on Commencing Suit Following Final Determination. Once the Plan Administrator has made a final written determination denying a Participant's claim, the Participant shall be forever barred from filing a legal action to contest the denied claim unless such action is filed not later than 180 days following the date of the Plan Administrator's final determination.
8. Address for Making Claims. Unless the Plan Administrator specifies an alternate address, all claims for benefits and appeals of denied claims shall be made to:

Minutes of the Special Actions Taken by Written Consent of the Board of Directors of Mississippi Phosphates Corporation in Lieu of a Special Meeting Thereof

MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL ACTIONS TAKEN BY
WRITTEN CONSENT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF MISSISSIPPI PHOSPHATES CORPORATION
IN LIEU OF A SPECIAL MEETING THEREOF

Effective as of October 24, 2014

These Consent Minutes describe certain special actions taken by the Board of Directors of Mississippi Phosphates Corporation, a Delaware business corporation (the "Corporation"), in lieu of a special meeting thereof and pursuant to Section 141 of the General Corporate Law of the State of Delaware, which consent shall be unanimous. Such consent herein and hereto is evidenced by the signatures of the Directors of the Corporation affixed hereto.

The Directors acknowledge that it is necessary or desirable to consider the termination of the Corporation's Severance Pay Plan. Therefore, the undersigned Directors, being all of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, do hereby waive (i) notice of the time, place and purpose of, (ii) call of, and (iii) the necessity of a special meeting and unanimously and severally and collectively adopt, by consent and without the necessity and formality of convening, and in lieu of, a special meeting thereof, the following Resolutions as being the special actions of the Board of Directors, as if in meeting duly assembled:

Termination of the Severance Pay Plan:

WHEREAS, the Corporation established the Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan (the "Plan") effective as of November 7, 2011 pursuant to action of the Board of Directors on December 19, 2011; and

WHEREAS, the Corporation reserved the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors has considered the impact of the Plan on the operations of the Corporation and the Corporation's ability to continue to operate in a cost-efficient manner;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Directors, on behalf of the Corporation in its capacity as the sponsor of the Plan, hereby approves the termination of the Plan effective as of October 24, 2014.

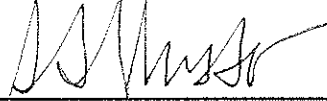

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the officers of the Corporation are authorized and directed to do all such things as necessary, proper or advisable to promptly notify employees of the termination of the Plan.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the Board of Directors hereby ratifies and confirms all lawful actions heretofore taken by the officers of the Corporation which are consistent with the foregoing resolutions.

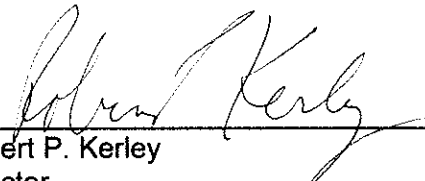

Filing of Consent Minutes:

RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Corporation is hereby directed to make the original of these Consent Minutes part of the original minutes of the Corporation to be filed in the appropriate records of the Corporation.

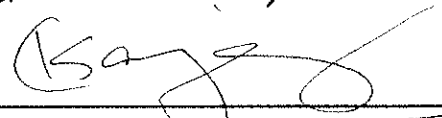

THE UNDERSIGNED DIRECTORS, BEING THE ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF MISSISSIPPI PHOSPHATES CORPORATION, DO HEREBY EXPRESSLY CONSENT TO THE FOREGOING RESOLUTIONS AS BEING THE SPECIAL ACTIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION, IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 141 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATE LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE IN LIEU OF A SPECIAL MEETING THEREOF, DATED EFFECTIVE AS OF October 24, 2014.

MEMO

Date: November 11, 2014

To: All Employees

From: Steve Russo, CEO

Subject: Mississippi Phosphates Severance Plan

Our recent bankruptcy filing has forced us to review many of our existing policies and practices in light of our economic reality and the need to focus our assets on operational requirements. In 2011, Mississippi Phosphates Corporation (MPC) adopted a severance plan, the Mississippi Phosphates Severance Pay Plan. One provision of the Plan was that MPC reserved the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time without prior notice. Because of MPC's bankruptcy and the financial constraints under which MPC must operate, the Plan was recently terminated by the Board of Directors of MPC. We are writing to give you notice of the termination of the Plan.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:
 Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:
 Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:
 State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:
 State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:
 State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:
 Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:
 If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:
 Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).
 If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:
 An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:
 Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:
 The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

INTRODUCTION

This Summary Plan Description (or "SPD") is being furnished to you as an employee eligible to participate in the Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan. The effective date of the plan described in this Summary Plan Description is November 7, 2011.

The purpose of this Summary Plan Description is to provide you with a general overview of the more significant provisions of the plan. Unfortunately many provisions of the plan are detailed and technical so this Summary Plan Description only describes the major provisions of the plan and does not address all provisions or possible exceptions. A copy of the entire plan document is available for review by you or your legal representatives in the plan administrator's office. This SPD is not meant to interpret, extend or change the provisions of the plan in any way. The provisions of the plan may only be determined accurately and fully by reading the actual plan document. If there are any differences between this Summary Plan Description and the language of the plan document, the plan document will control and this document will be disregarded. For this reason, you are urged to review the plan document whenever an issue of importance affects or potentially affects you.

GENERAL PLAN PROVISIONS

A. Plan Sponsor and Employer. The plan sponsor and employer is Mississippi Phosphates Corporation; it is referred to in this SPD as "employer". The plan sponsor/employer identification number is 64-0794981 and its address and phone number are 601 Industrial Road, P.O. Box 848, Pascagoula, Mississippi 39568-0848, (228) 667-3210.

B. Plan Year. The plan year begins on January 1 and ends on December 31 for purposes of maintaining the plan's accounting records.

C. Type of Plan. This plan is a severance pay plan and an employee welfare benefit plan. It is designed to provide specified benefits to certain employees who are involuntarily terminated. Eligibility to participate in the plan does not affect the employee's right to terminate an employee's employment at any time.

D. Administration of the Plan. The plan administrator is Mississippi Phosphates Corporation, and the address and telephone number of the plan administrator is Mississippi Phosphates Corporation, Attn: Severance Pay Plan Administrator, 100 W. Essex Circle, Suite 4, Madison, Mississippi 39110.

The plan administrator is responsible for the overall administration of the plan. The plan administrator is vested with the power and the discretion to construe the terms of the plan and to decide all questions that arise under the plan, including determining questions of eligibility for benefits and resolving ambiguities and factual disputes. The plan administrator's interpretation and determinations shall be binding on all parties.

Benefits Payable Solely from Employer's General Assets This plan is unfunded and employee contributions are not required. All benefits will be paid solely from the general assets of the employer. Benefits are not guaranteed or secured by any governmental agency or any other party.

Agent for Service of Process Robert Jones is designated to sign for service of legal process at 100 Webster Circle, Suite 4, Madison, Mississippi 39110. Service of process may also be made on the Plan Administrator (see Part D).

PARTICIPATION

G. Participation Requirements

Eligible Employees

To be eligible to participate in the plan, you must be an "eligible employee," which means a full-time, regular employee of the employer who was on the payroll at the time of a reduction in force. This term does not include: (1) an individual designated as an independent contractor; (2) an employee designated as a part-time employee or as a temporary employee; (3) an individual who is providing services pursuant to an agreement or arrangement with an unrelated employer; (4) an employee who is covered by a collective bargaining agreement which does not provide for participation in this plan; or (5) an employee who is employed pursuant to a cooperative studies or intern program. An employee who otherwise qualifies as an eligible employee does not lose that status simply because he or she is on an authorized leave of absence at the time of the reduction in force.

Reduction in Force

A "reduction in force" means, with respect to an eligible employee, an action (a) in which the employer's workforce is downsized and/or restructured as a consequence of the employer acting on the employer's consolidation of operations of the employer, merger, acquisition, divestiture, reorganization, business plan, or the sale or disposition (whether by merger, acquisition, reorganization, dissolution or otherwise) of the facility, division or entity at or for which the eligible employee is employed if and only if the eligible employee is not hired or rehired or reemployed by the purchaser, successor to the employer, or a related entity within ninety (90) days of the sale or disposition; (b) in which the eligible employee is involuntarily terminated due to such downsizing and/or restructuring; (c) in which the employer eliminates the position of the eligible employee due to such downsizing and/or restructuring; and (d) which the employer, acting in good faith, designates as a reduction in force.

BENEFITS

Severance Benefits

Requirements:

An eligible employee will be entitled to receive severance benefits when (1) he or she is terminated or laid off due to a "reduction in force," (2) he or she properly executes and signs a release agreement in a form acceptable to the employer, (3) the eligible employee does not revoke his or her acceptance of the release agreement within 7 days of its execution, and if the other conditions described in the plan are satisfied. The benefits provided to eligible employees who satisfy all plan requirements consist of severance pay and the COBRA premium payments described below.

Severance Pay:

An eligible employee will be entitled to severance pay based upon his or her pay and years of service as of the date of the reduction in force, subject to the reductions and adjustments described below.

An eligible employee shall be entitled to the number of weeks of severance pay based on his or her years of service as determined under the schedule attached as Exhibit A. Years of service for this purpose means complete years of service with the employer and certain affiliates but excluding service while he or she was not an employee or was not employed in an eligible employment classification (see Part G).

The amount of severance pay paid per week will be equal to one-half (1/2) of the eligible employee's weekly pay as of the reduction in force. For this purpose, pay means the eligible employee's weekly base salary based upon his or her stated hourly, weekly, monthly or annual rate at the reduction in force, using a 40-hour work week; overtime pay and other compensation will not be considered.

COBRA Premium Payments:

With respect to each eligible employee who receives severance pay, the employer will pay the cost of COBRA medical continuation coverage on behalf of the eligible employee and his or her dependents provided they are covered under the employer's group medical plan immediately prior to his or her termination, they are eligible for and timely elect COBRA medical continuation coverage, and they properly complete the forms required by the employer and the group medical plan administrator. Those payments will commence when the payment of severance pay commences (as described in Part I) and continue until the earliest of (1) the date the employer has paid premiums for the number of weeks for which severance pay is payable with respect to the eligible employee, subject to certain adjustments applicable to reduced employees; or (2) the date coverage ends under the terms of the applicable employer group medical plan on (1) the date such COBRA continuation coverage would otherwise end or terminate with COBRA, regardless of reason. Thereafter, the employee will be solely responsible for paying the full COBRA premiums. The premium payments to be made by the employee are limited to premiums for medical coverage, and do not include coverage for dental or any other benefit, even if such benefit would be subject to COBRA.

Amounts Reduced by Other Plans.

The amount of severance pay determined above will be reduced by the amount of severance benefits received from the employer under any other plan or employee benefit.

Reduction for Certain Payments.

The amount of any severance benefits determined above will be further reduced by the amount of any other payments made to the eligible employee by the employer under applicable law because of that employee's involuntary termination due to layoff, reduction in force, plant or facility closing, sale of business, change of control or any other similar event or reason.

Set-off and Right of Recovery.

The amount of severance benefits determined above will be further reduced by the amount of any indebtedness or obligation an eligible employee has to the employer. Furthermore, if an eligible employee receives more than he or she was entitled to receive under this plan, the employer will be entitled to recover the excess amount from him or her.

Payment of Benefits.

Commencement.

The payment of severance pay will begin as soon as administratively feasible after the fifth day following the employee's execution of the required release agreement, provided that the release agreement has not been revoked by him or her within 7 days following execution. Thereafter, severance pay will be paid on the former employee's previously established pay date.

Effect of Subsequent Employment.

If a terminated employee receiving severance benefits is re-hired by the employer or a regular employer, his or her severance pay will cease immediately. If this occurs, the employer/employee will be notified of the effect of the re-hire on his or her COBRA premium payments.

Death of Eligible Employee.

In the event an eligible employee dies while receiving severance pay, the remainder of the severance pay due him or her will be paid in a lump sum to the beneficiary named on his or her most recently completed group life insurance enrollment. If no beneficiary is named, it is the beneficiary has predeceased the employee, the severance pay will be paid to the terminus of the employee's surviving spouse, or, if none, to the employee's surviving children. In addition, the COBRA premium payments will continue to be made for the benefit of the covered dependents of the eligible employee for the applicable period of coverage, subject to the limitations described above.

2.03 Holdings.

All payments of severance benefits under the plan will be subject to the customary withholding rules applicable to payments of this type.

7. Supersession of Other Arrangements. The benefits provided under this plan supersede and replace in their entirety all prior existing severance pay plans, programs or practices for employees of the employer other than severance provisions in any written employment or other written agreement between the employer and a particular employee.

8. Alienation of Benefits. Generally, benefits under the plan are not subject in any manner to alienation, except as described above and in this Part. This means that benefits generally cannot be sold, used as collateral for a loan, given away or otherwise transferred, and a creditor cannot attach or garnish an employee's benefits.

The plan administrator may, however, be required by law to recognize a "qualified domestic relations order". A qualified domestic relations order is a decree or order from a court that obligates an eligible employee to pay child support or alimony or otherwise allocate a portion of his or her benefit to his or her spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent. The plan administrator will determine the validity of such an order. Persons who are or become a party to a domestic relations matter and anticipate that a portion of his or her plan benefit will be awarded to a spouse, former spouse or child, are urged to immediately contact the plan administrator for assistance to assure that any proposed court order relating to his or her plan benefit satisfies the requirements of a qualified domestic relations order. The court and expenses associated with determining whether a domestic relations order constitutes a qualified domestic relations order and the processing of any such order will be charged against the benefits to be paid hereunder.

The plan administrator may also be required to honor the terms of a federal tax levy issued by the Internal Revenue Service and by certain wage attachments for child support and bankruptcy payments.

9. Release Agreement. As a condition to receiving any benefit under the plan, an eligible employee must first execute a release agreement in a form satisfactory to the employer and all legally required waiting periods for the release agreement to be legally effective under applicable law. The required release agreement will provide that the eligible employee releases the employer and all other parties from liability for all claims, known and unknown, the eligible employee has or may have in relation to his or her employment by the employer and the termination of his or her employment. A failure or refusal to execute the required release agreement will result in a complete denial of benefits hereunder; a delay in execution of the required release agreement can result in the loss of a portion of the benefits otherwise payable. No benefits will be paid until the employer is satisfied that the release agreement constitutes a legally binding obligation of the eligible employee.

PLAN AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

M. Plan Amendment and Termination. The benefits provided under this plan are not intended to, and do not create, a vested right. The employer reserves the right to amend or terminate the plan at any time without prior notice and without further obligation. Any amendment or termination will be effective to reduce the benefit to which an eligible employee has become entitled as a result of a termination in connection with a reduction in force prior to the date on which the amendment or termination is effective, except, however, benefits under the employer's group medical plan may be reduced, amended or eliminated at any time without prior notice to the extent consistent with changes made to the benefits under the employer's group medical plan provided to active employees.

CLAIMS PROCEDURE AND ERISA RIGHTS

N. Claims Procedure. A person who believes he or she has not received the full benefit to which he or she is entitled under the plan (a "claimant") must make a written claim to the plan administrator. If the claim for benefits, including any claims relating to alleged administrative errors, is denied, the claimant must, except as described in the next paragraph, follow the plan's claims procedure attached as Appendix B to contest the denial. A claimant must timely exhaust the plan's claims procedure before he or she may bring a lawsuit contesting the denial of his or her claim. If a claimant has timely exhausted the plan's claims procedure and wishes to bring a lawsuit to contest the denial of benefits, he or she must commence his or her lawsuit within 180 days after the final denial of the claim or he or she will be forever barred from bringing a lawsuit to contest the denial.

Notwithstanding the preceding, any claims pertaining to the group medical plan for which the COBRA premium payments are being made by the employer (as described above) must be made in accordance with the claims procedure applicable to that plan.

O. ERISA Rights. The following statement of ERISA Rights is required by federal law and regulations:

As a participant in the Mississippi Phosphates Corporation Severance Pay Plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of

1978, as amended (the "ERISA"). ERISA provides that all plan documents shall be made

Receive Information about Your Plan and Benefits

- Receive, without charge, at the employer's office and at other convenient locations, all documents governing the Plan and a copy of the latest annual report filed with the SEC, as well as a copy of the latest annual report filed with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Social Security Administration's Employee Benefits Security Administration.
- Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan and copies of the latest annual report filed with the SEC and the latest updated summary plan description. The Plan Administrator may require a reasonable charge for the copies.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA also imposes duties on the people who are responsible for the operation of the Plan. The people who operate the Plan, called "fiduciaries," have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. No one (including your employer or any other person) may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way solely in order to prevent you from obtaining a benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For example, if you request a copy of Plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan Administrator and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you expenses (including attorney's fees) for the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in state or federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan's internal appeal process or with the qualified status of a domestic relation under your plan, or if you believe your plan provider has not first exhausted the Plan's claims and appeal process, you may file suit in a federal court. It should happen that the Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor. If you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs in federal court. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay reasonable

Yes. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees. For more information about your claim, see the previous page.

Assistance With Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory, or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

APPENDIX E
to the
Summary Plan Description of the
Mississippi Phosphates Corporation
Severance Pay Plan

CLAIMS PROCEDURE

This Claims Procedure (the "Procedure") describes the procedures for making a claim for benefits and for contesting any denial of a claim for benefits under the Plan. The Procedure shall be applied in a uniform, nondiscriminatory manner.

1. Authority of the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator shall make all determinations as to the right of any person to a benefit in accordance with the terms of the Plan.
2. Forms for Making Claims. All initial claims for benefits shall be made by completing a severance agreement and release provided by the Plan Administrator, together with such other forms as the Plan Administrator may prescribe.
3. Denial of Claims. Any denial of a claim for benefits under the Plan from a Participant shall be stated in writing by the Plan Administrator. It shall be delivered or mailed to the Participant within 90 days after the receipt of a claim for benefits by the Plan Administrator. An extension of time for processing the claim for benefits is allowable if special circumstances require an extension, but such an extension shall not extend beyond 180 days from the date of claim for benefits as received by the Plan Administrator. Written notice of any extension of time shall be delivered or mailed to the Participant within 90 days after receipt of the claim by the Plan Administrator and shall include an explanation of the special circumstances requiring the extension and the date by which the Plan Administrator expects to render the final decision. If the Plan Administrator fails to act within 90 days of the receipt of a claim for benefits, the claim for benefits shall be deemed denied.
4. Appeal of Denial of Claims. If a claim for benefits is denied, the Plan Administrator shall afford a reasonable opportunity to any Participant whose claim for benefits has been denied (or his/her representative) to submit any issues and comments in writing for a review of the decision denying the claim and to submit and review any pertinent documents. The Plan Administrator may request a hearing or any other investigative procedures it deems necessary to aid it in its determination. Any request for review of a denial of a claim shall not be reviewed by the Plan Administrator if submitted more than 60 days after receipt by the claimant of written notification of a claim denial. Within 30 days after the receipt by the Plan Administrator of the request for review, the Plan Administrator shall deliver or mail to the claimant written notice of his decision. An extension of time for making the decision on the request for review is allowable if special circumstances shall occur, but such an extension shall not extend beyond 120 days from the date the request for review is received by the Plan Administrator. Written notice of the extension of time shall be delivered or mailed to the claimant within 60 days after receipt of the claim by the Plan Administrator.

5. Contents of Notices. All written notices required under this Procedure shall be written to the best of the Plan Administrator's ability in a manner that is understandable by the claimant and shall state the specific reasons upon which the claim denial, the review of a decision, or the extension of time is based. Written notice of a denial of a claim or request for review shall also contain references to specific Plan provisions upon which any denial or request for review is based. In addition, any denial of benefits by the Plan Administrator, other than the review of a previous denial, shall include a description of any additional material or information necessary for the claimant to perfect the claim, an explanation of why such information is necessary and the steps required to be taken to obtain a review. Any notice of denial shall also state that the claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and without charge, all documents, records or other information relevant to the claim and that the claimant has a right to bring a lawsuit to challenge the determination, and shall include reference to available alternative dispute resolution options available. Special circumstances as used herein shall include, but shall not be limited to, the need to hold a hearing under this Procedure.
6. Mandatory Exhaustion of Claims Procedure. Exhaustion of the Plan's claims procedure shall be a condition precedent to any suit relating to the denial of benefits.
7. Time Limit on Commencing Suit Following Final Determination. Once the Plan Administrator has made a final written determination denying a Participant's claim, the Participant shall be forever barred from filing a legal action to contest the denied claim unless such action is filed not later than 180 days following the date of the Plan Administrator's final determination.
8. Address for Making Claims. Unless the Plan Administrator specifies an alternate address, all claims for benefits and appeals of denied claims shall be made to:
