18. Applicant's fees for services rendered by its lawyers and paralegals as set forth in the table above are customary and usual in the legal community for handling matters of the types and complexity of both bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy issues of the kinds involved in this case.

19. The hourly rates are those customarily charged to Applicant's similarly situated bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy clients for similar legal services. Applicant's rates are similar to those of other bankruptcy professionals involved in this case.

20. Applicant's hourly rates charged in this case are consistent with the rates that Applicant charges in other comparable chapter 11 cases, regardless of the location of the chapter 11 case. Moreover, Applicant's rate structure is appropriate and not different from (a) rates that Applicant charges for other non-bankruptcy representations or (b) the rates of other comparably skilled professionals in the national marketplace for legal services.

21. Applicant's rates are at par with or lower than the rates Applicant would otherwise charge for an engagement of this size and complexity. Additionally, Applicant agreed to discount its standard rates for Derek Meek and Marc Solomon in this case, and have agreed to not increase the rates of Derek Meek, Marc Solomon and Bess Creswell in this case when Applicant's standards rates were increased firm wide on January 1, 2015 and January 1, 2016.

22. Applicant is regularly involved in bankruptcy work and has a great deal of expertise in that field, and submits that this factor has been and continues to be important in the case at bar.

23. Applicant requests that the Court approve the fees and expenses contained in this fee application incurred by Applicant during its Seventh Interim Fee Period, and submits this Application pursuant to Sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. Section 330 provides that the Bankruptcy Court may award to Applicant (1) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered to the Committee based on the nature, extent, and value of such services, the time spent on such services, Applicant's skill and experience in the bankruptcy field, and the cost of comparable services other than in a case under this title; and (2) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses. 11 U.S.C. § 330. In determining the allowance of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses under section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Fifth Circuit has concluded that the Bankruptcy Court must: (1) determine the nature and extent of the services rendered; (2) determine the value of those services; and (3) consider the twelve factors adopted by the Fifth Circuit in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Exp., Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717 (5th Cir. 1974), overturned on other grounds by Blanchard v. Bergeron, 489 U.S. 87 (1989). See also Migis v. Pearle Vision, Inc., 135 F.3d 1041, 1047 (5th Cir. 1998). Applicant has addressed each of the issues separately below.

A. Nature and Extent of Services Rendered During Seventh Interim Fee Period

25. Applicant has expended substantial time and effort in providing counsel to the Committee in connection with all aspects of the bankruptcy case during the Seventh Interim Fee Period, as more fully set forth herein.

B. Value of Services Rendered During Seventh Interim Fee Period

26. An objective estimate of value of the services of a creditors' Committee attorney is determined by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by the attorney's reasonable hourly rate. See Brantley v. Surles, 804 F.2d 321, 325 (5th Cir. 1986) (citing Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886 (1984)) (holding that an award of attorney's fees should normally be based on multiplying a reasonable number of hours worked by a reasonable rate of compensation); Louisiana Power & Light Co. v. Kellstrom, 50 F.3d 319, 324 (5th Cir. 1995) (finding that the district court must multiply the reasonable hours by the reasonable hourly rates). This estimate is referred to as the "lodestar" method. The attorney's reasonable hourly rate is the prevailing market rate in the relevant legal community for similar services by attorneys of reasonably comparable skill, experience, and reputation.

27. During the course of Applicant's assistance to the Committee during the Seventh Interim Fee Period, Applicant utilized lawyers and legal assistants with different skills and expertise, as necessary. Applicant's hourly rates reflect those of differing skills and experience of its lawyers and are in conformity with the prevailing market rates of the legal communities and municipalities outlined above. Applicant's hourly rates are neither more nor less than the hourly rates received by attorneys with comparable skill and experience in both bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy matters.

C. Reasonableness of Rates and Hours During Seventh Interim Fee Period

28. A determination of the reasonableness of the rates and hours submitted by Applicant involves consideration of the twelve (12) factors set forth below. See Johnson, 488 F.2d at 717.

(a) Time and Labor Required: Applicant has spent a substantial amount of time in the present case during its Seventh Interim Fee Period, and Applicant has also expended much effort because this case has required such effort for a thorough and complete job. Attached hereto as Exhibit "B" are detailed itemized records of Applicant's time and expenses during the Seventh Interim Fee Period which report the substance and time of every transaction performed by Applicant. Applicant has itemized telephone calls, correspondence, conferences, research, and document preparation time with respect to each aspect of the case. The time expended includes time for staff which has proven a cost effective means of handling some matters. Applicant submits that there has been a significant amount of time spent in the present case.

(b) The Novelty and Difficulty of the Question*: Applicant has been requested to advise the Committee on various novel and difficult legal issues and problems, all of which required the attention of Applicant to fulfill its duties and obligation to the Committee. The complexity and difficulty of the issues presented in this case warrant the full allowance of the fees requested and the services performed.

(c) The Skills Requisite to Perform the Professional Services Properly*: Applicant submits that a high degree of skill has been and continues to be essential in the representation of the Committee. The difficulty of the issues involved has often required the immediate attention of experienced attorneys; however, Applicant has made every effort to delegate matters not requiring the services of more experienced attorneys to less experienced attorneys with a lower hourly rate.

(d) The Preclusion of Other Employment by Applicant Due to the Acceptance of the Case*: While time and effort requirements of the representation of the Committee have not caused Applicant to be precluded from representing other clients, the time-sensitive nature of this bankruptcy case has demanded that this matter be given top priority. The representation of the Committee has not caused any conflicts of interest to occur.

(e) The Customary Fee*: Applicant avers that its hourly rates set out herein are the rates it typically charges, and that said fees are customary, fair, and reasonable in the community.

(f) Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent*: The fee is not contingent, other than the client's ability to pay, and no amount of the fee has been guaranteed by any third party.

(g) Time Limitations Imposed by the Client or the Circumstances*: Many of the matters that Applicant has handled for the Committee have been time-sensitive.

(h) The Amount Involved and the Results Obtained*: The fee requested by Applicant is reasonable given the size and complexity of the case and the results obtained thus far. As illustrated in the Project Summary Sheets set forth in Exhibit "C", Applicant has been diligent in representing the Committee's interests in the Debtor's bankruptcy case during the Seventh Interim Fee Period.

(i) The Experience, Reputation and the Ability of the Professionals*: As stated above, Applicant has extensive experience with representing debtors, creditors, and creditors' Committees in bankruptcy matters. Derek Meek, Marc Solomon, and Bess M. Parrish Creswell are bankruptcy lawyers with considerable experience in complex chapter 11 cases, and they have worked on all aspects of the bankruptcy-related work that has arisen in these cases. These attorneys have been assisted by junior attorneys and paralegals in their field as needed in order to provide excellent legal service to the Committee in the most cost-effective manner possible. Applicant submits that its regular involvement in bankruptcy work and its expertise in the field has been and continues to be important in the case at bar. The skill and experience of Applicant's attorneys has been of benefit to the Committee, and the complexity and difficulty of the issues involved in this case warrant the full allowance of fees requested for the services performed by Applicant.

(j) The Undesirability of the Case*: Applicant submits that the case at bar is not undesirable.

(k) The Nature and Length of Professional Relationship with the Client*: Not applicable.

(l) Awards in Similar Cases*: Applicant relies on this Court's experience and knowledge with respect to fee awards in similar cases. Applicant submits that the fees requested in this Application are comparable to those awarded in similar cases of this nature and complexity.

D. Statements Regarding Retention

29. The following is provided in response to the questions set forth in the U.S. Trustee Appendix B Guidelines:

(a) Question: Did Applicant agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, Burr & Forman's standard billing arrangements for this engagement?

> Answer: Yes. Applicant agreed to cap the hourly rate of Derek Meek at $425, whereas his standard rate is $440, and cap the hourly rate of Marc Solomon at $400, whereas his standard rate is $425. Additionally, Applicant agreed to charge travel time at ½ the hourly rate.

(b) Question: If fees sought in this Application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this Application are higher than 10% or more, did you discuss the reason for variation with the client?

> Answer: The fees sought in this Application as compared to those budgeted for during the Seventh Interim Fee Period were not in excess of 10% of the overall budget.

(c) Question: Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

> Answer: No.

(d) Question: Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices?

> Answer: No.

(e) Question: Does the fee application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information?

Answer: No.

(f) Question: If the fee application includes any rate increases since retention: (i) did your client review and approve those rate increases in advance? (ii) Did your client agree when retaining the law firm to accept all future rate increases?

Answer: The fee application includes standard step increase rates for those individuals identified specifically herein. The client reviewed and approved those rates in advance and agreed when retaining the law firm to accept all future rate increases.
