² Certain terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

Motion is in the best interests of Chicago Express, its estate and creditors; (iv) proper and adequate notice of this Motion and the hearing thereon has been given and that no further notice is necessary; and (v) good and sufficient cause exists for the granting of the relief requested in the Motion after having given due deliberation upon the Motion and all of the proceedings had before the Court in connection with the Motion. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as the actions contemplated are within the sound business judgment of Chicago Express.
2. Chicago Express is authorized, but not required, to reject the Agreements with such rejection being effective as of the Effective Date.
3. For purposes of determining the Effective Date, Chicago Express will be deemed to have surrendered possession of personal or real property on the date on which Chicago Express notifies the lessor in writing that it is relinquishing its possessory rights to the leased property and identifies the location of the property to the lessor.
4. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.
