INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the debtor's full name, and the bankruptcy case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

AgFeed USA, LLC	13-11761
AgFeed Industries, Inc.	13-11762
Genetics Land, LLC	13-11776
Genetics Operating, LLC	13-11769
Heritage Farms, LLC	13-11767
Heritage Land, LLC	13-11768
M2P2 AF JV, LLC	13-11774
M2P2 Facilities, LLC	13-11770
M2P2 General Operations, LLC	13-11772
MGM, LLC	13-11771
Midwest Finishing, LLC	13-11775
New Colony Farms, LLC	13-11766
New Colony Land Company, LLC	13-11773
New York Finishing, LLC	13-11764
Pork Technologies, LC	13-11765
TS Finishing, LLC	13-11763

If your claim is against multiple Debtors, complete a separate form for each Debtor.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP 2002(g)).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4, 5, and 6. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

1a. Amount of Administrative Claim arising after Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed pursuant to section 503(b), excluding any amounts owed under section 503(b)(9), on account of claims arising from the period

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optical 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the Claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a):

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Amount of Claim that qualifies as an Administrative Expense under 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9):

State the value of any goods received by the debtor within 20 days before the date of commencement in which the goods have been sold to the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business.

7. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

8. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

9. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules from July 15, 2013, through the September 12, 2013 (the "Closing Date"), solely with respect to AgFeed USA, LLC and any other Debtor (excluding Debtor AgFeed Industries, Inc.).

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services provided, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if any interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. § 101(10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. § 101(5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the Debtors' claims agent, BMC Group, Inc., at the applicable following address:

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim.

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security's interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Administrative Claim

An administrative claim is a claim of the type described in sections 503 and 507 of title 11 of the United States Code. Among other things, these sections provide that certain types of claims are entitled to administrative expense priority, including, without limitation: (i) the action, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate, including wages, salaries, or commissions for services rendered after the commencement of the bankruptcy case; (ii) certain taxes and penalties related thereto; (iii) compensation and reimbursement of certain officers; (iv) the actual, necessary expenses incurred by (a) certain creditors, (b) a creditor, an indenture trustee, an equity security holder, or a committee representing any such entities, in making a substantial contribution to a debtor's chapter 11 case, (c) a custodian, and (v) compensation for services rendered by an indenture trustee. Claims alleged to be entitled to an administrative expense pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9) should be listed in item 6 of the form, but not in item 1a.

Administrative Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9)

Claims that are based upon facts or circumstances arising or occurring after the date of the Bankruptcy filing and that qualify as an administrative expense under section 503(b)(9) (excluding 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code).

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

AGREEMENT: It is agreed between the customer (You) and Genesis Securities, LLC. (Genesis):

All transactions are subject to the constitution, rules, customs, usages and interpretations of the Exchange or Market, and its clearing house, if any, where the transactions are executed, or of the NASD, if not executed on an Exchange. Your broker has entered into an agreement with Genesis that defines certain execution and clearing functions that are to be performed for your broker. Genesis Securities, LLC. accepts no liability or responsibility for any act or omission by your broker and its employees. All questions, comments and/or information should be directed to your broker, who is responsible for adherence to all laws, rules and regulations concerning your account.

If this is an agency transaction, we will furnish, upon request, information as to name of the broker or dealer from whom the security was bought and sold. In certain transactions the firm receives remuneration, compensation or other consideration for directing customer orders for equity securities to particular broker/ dealers or market centers for execution. The source and nature of any compensation received in connection with your particular transaction will be furnished upon written request to your broker.

On purchases, the securities are or may be hypothecated under circumstances which will permit the commingling thereof with securities carried for the account of other customers. Such commingling ceases, however, upon full payment for the securities purchased. Should payment for purchases be delayed beyond the settlement date indicated, we reserve the right, at our option, to charge interest or, without further notice, to sell out said securities and hold you liable for any loss thereby incurred or to cancel this transaction. On sales, if securities are not in our possession, their prompt delivery in proper form is essential to complete this transaction.

The time of execution of the transaction described on the face hereof will be furnished to you upon written request. We reserve the right, in our discretion, to apply any free credit balance in the account to cover any purchase which remains unpaid on the settlement date indicated. If a loss is incurred in the account because a purchase was not paid for and the securities were sold out, or because the securities for a sale are not in our possession on a timely basis and are bought to cover the sale, we reserve the right to apply any free credit balances in your account to the loss and/or to sell any securities already in your account to cover such loss. We retain all rights and remedies available to a secured creditor under the Uniform Commercial Code applicable in the State of New York in addition to rights and remedies provided herein or otherwise by law.

You and your broker are responsible for cancellation of Open Orders entered for your account. Any execution of an Open Order which your broker has not instructed us to cancel will be entered in your account and for your liability.

Compliance with SEC Rule 15c2-11 (Penny Stock Rule) requires certain disclosures by your broker in connection with execution of an equity trade under $5.00 a share not executed on an Exchange or NASDAQ.

If the word "unsolicited" appears on the confirmation, the transaction was effected pursuant to an unsolicited offer to buy or sell placed by the customer.

Genesis Securities, LLC. may record any or all telephone calls. Accounts may be subject to fees for customer requested services. e.g., security transfers, account transfers, etc. If this confirmation is incorrect in any particular, notify your broker immediately. Otherwise, reports of order execution and statements of this account will be conclusive.
