PURPOSE OF CHAPTER 11 FILING Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code enables a debtor to reorganize pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless approved by the Bankruptcy Court at a confirmation hearing. Creditors will be given notice concerning any plan, or if these chapter 11 cases are dismissed or converted to another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Each Debtor will remain in possession of its property and will continue to operate any business unless a trustee is appointed.

NOTICE OF MATTERS The Bankruptcy Court has entered an order establishing notice requirements with respect to all proceedings in these chapter 11 cases. Pursuant to that order, notice of all proceedings in these cases will be given only to those creditors who file with the Bankruptcy Court a written request to be included on a limited notice list established in these chapter 11 cases. Therefore you must file with the Bankruptcy Court, electronically if you are a registered user of the Bankruptcy Court's CM/ECF filing system, such written notice of appearance or request for service if you desire to receive notice of all proceedings in these cases. Further, any notice of appearance or request for special notice must be served on attorneys for the Debtors, Kirkland & Ellis, Attention: Samuel S. Kohn, Esq., 153 East 53rd Street, New York, New York 10022. You need not file a written notice of appearance or request for service to be included in the limited notice list for purposes of receiving notice of proceedings affecting your basic rights as creditors. Whether or not you file such a written notice of appearance or request for service, you will receive notice of any deadline established for the filing of proofs of claim or proofs of interest, the time fixed for filing objections and the hearing to consider adequacy of the disclosure statement, the time fixed for filing objections to consider confirmation of a chapter 11 plan and any other proceedings with respect to which notice is ordered to be given to you by the Bankruptcy Court.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS A creditor is anyone to whom the Debtors owe money or property. Under the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are granted certain protections against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting the Debtors to demand repayment of claims arising prior to the Commencement Date, taking action against the Debtors to collect money owed to creditors for such claims or to take property of the Debtors, and starting or continuing foreclosure actions or repossessions. If unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against the Debtors, the Bankruptcy Court may penalize that creditor. A creditor who is considering taking action against the Debtors or the property of the Debtors should review section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice.

CLAIMS Schedules of creditors will be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim which is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount may, but is not required to, file a proof of claim in these chapter 11 cases. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated as to amount and who desire to participate in the cases or share in any distribution must file their proofs of claim. A creditor who desires to rely on the schedule of creditors has the responsibility for determining that the claim is listed accurately. Separate notice of the deadlines to file proofs of claim will be provided.

at a later date to the Debtors' known creditors. Bankruptcy Management Corporation is the court-appointed claims agent for the Debtors and can provide claim forms and information on filing claims. Bankruptcy Management Corporation can be reached at: 1330 East Franklin Avenue El Segundo CA 90245 (888) 909-0100. In addition, proof of claim forms are available in the clerk's office as well as at the following websites: <http://www.nysb.uscourts.gov> or <http://www.algx.com/restructuring>. The fact that you have received this Notice does not mean that you have a claim against any of the Debtors. You should consult with your own counsel to determine whether you hold a claim against the Debtors. You should not file a proof of claim if you do not have any claims against the Debtors. Questions about this notice may be directed to Bankruptcy Management Corporation.

DISCHARGE OF DEBTS Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See section 1141(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from any of the Debtors, except as provided in the plan of reorganization.

OFFERS TO PURCHASE CLAIMS Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims held by creditors against a debtor for an amount that is less than the face amount of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact you and offer to purchase your claim against one or more of the Debtors. Some of the written communications from these entities may be easily confused with official Bankruptcy Court documentation or communications from the Debtors. These entities do not represent the Bankruptcy Court or the Debtors. Therefore, you have no obligation to sell your claim to these entities. In the event you do decide to sell your claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and any applicable orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

LEGAL ADVICE The staff members of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court, the Office of the United States Trustee, and Bankruptcy Management Corporation are not permitted to give legal advice. You may want to consult with an attorney to protect your rights.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In particular types of cases or circumstances such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

The person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor.

Creditor

A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.

Proof of Claim

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property.

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car, truck, boat, television set, or other item of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began, in some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition, to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim. (See also Unsecured Claim.)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not a secured claim it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full.

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority, so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case, and the bankruptcy case number. If you received a notice of the case from the court, all of this information is near the top of the notice.

Information about Creditor

Complete the section giving the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property, and the debtor's account number, if any. If anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt, if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case, if your address differs from that to which the court sent notice, or if this proof of claim replaces or changes a proof of claim that was already filed, check the appropriate box on the form.

1 Basis for Claim

Check the type of debt for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check "Other" and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid.

2. Date Debt Incurred:

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor.

3 Court Judgments

If you have a court judgment for this debt, state the date the court entered the judgment.

4 Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges.

5 Secured Claim

Check the appropriate place if the claim is a secured claim. You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim, attach copies of the documentation of your lien, and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured. (See DEFINITIONS above.)

6 Unsecured Priority Claim

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim, and state the amount entitled to priority. (See DEFINITIONS, above.) A claim may be partly priority and partly nonpriority if, for example, the claim is for more than the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim.

7 Credits

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor.

8. Supporting Documents

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or, if the documents are too lengthy, a summary of those documents. If documents are not available, you must attach an explanation of why they are not available.
