We were told that they were like verizon so it was assumed that our centrex services would be the same We actually canncelled and we were told that if we did, there would be down time We had down time anyway They do not have centrex services which we were not told by the sales rep when they switched us over we ended up with down time anyway We were billed by verizon for cancellation of centrex services When I asked Allegiance for a copy of the signed paperwork I discovered that my name was forged on 2 documents One was a contract and the other was a Service termination acknowledgement centrex only The signature on one document exactly to another document that I did sign Mr Robinson mis represented Allegiance by saying that centrex was offered when in fact it was not Because of this, we are being billed five thousand dollars which if we werer informed that centrex was not offered, we would not have signed up for service
