DECLARATION OF ROBERT J. ROSENBERG IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION OF THE DEBTORS PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) AND 328(a) FOR ORDER
AUTHORIZING THE EMPLOYMENT OF LATHAM & WATKINS LLP
AS SPECIAL COUNSEL AND DISCLOSURE
OF COMPENSATION PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 329

Robert J. Rosenberg declares as follows:

1. I am a partner in the law firm of Latham & Watkins LLP (“Latham”). Latham maintains offices at 885 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10022-4802. I am duly authorized to submit this declaration on behalf of Latham. This declaration is submitted in support of the application (the “Application”) of Allegiance Telecom, Inc. and its direct and indirect subsidiaries, as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”), to employ and retain Latham as counsel to the special committee of the board of directors of the Debtors pursuant to Section 327(a) of chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), as well as to provide disclosure required under Rule 2014(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (“Bankruptcy Rules”). Unless otherwise stated in this declaration, I have personal knowledge of the facts as set forth herein.

2. In pursuing a financial restructuring, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Allegiance Telecom, Inc. determined that many individual directors are either officers of the Debtors and/or are major shareholders and therefore might have conflicting issues in considering certain possible restructuring alternatives. Therefore, in January 2003, the Board formed a special committee comprised of independent directors (the “Special Committee”) who were authorized to assist in connection with the financial restructuring of the Debtors, including but not limited to amendment or replacement of the Prepetition Credit Agreement, Amendment, replacement or restructuring of the Debtors’ public debt and additional equity investments in the Debtors, and to make recommendations to the Board regarding the effectuation or rejection of such any such offers or proposals (the “Special Committee Matters”). Latham has been asked to represent the Special Committee. In connection with the representation of the Special Committee, it is anticipated that Latham will provide all legal support required in connection with the Special Committee Matters. Such support shall include, but not be limited to, reviewing and advising the Special Committee on various motions and orders filed in connection with such matters, and making appearances before the Court, as necessary in connection therewith.

3. To the best of my knowledge and information, neither I, Latham, nor any member, counsel or associate of Latham, as far as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any interests adverse to the Debtors or the Debtors’ estates in matters upon which Latham is to be employed. Accordingly, Latham’s retention pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) is appropriate.

4. Previously, Latham represented the Debtors in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases.

5. Latham, in the past has represented, currently represents, and may in the future represent, certain creditors or claimants of the Debtors and other parties in interest, or their respective attorneys, accountants or investment bankers in matters wholly unrelated to the Debtors, the Debtors' chapter 11 cases or those entities' claims against or interests in the Debtors. In addition, as set forth below, Latham has represented and will continue to represent certain entities in matters related to the Debtors; however, such matters are not related to matters upon which Latham will be employed.

6. Latham has conducted a series of searches of its records to identify representations and relationships with creditors and other parties in interest (or potential parties in interest) in respect of the Debtors. Specifically, Latham has searched its records to identify circumstances in which Latham had relationships with clients other than the Debtor entities on matters involving the Debtor entities. In addition, Latham has searched its records to identify representations and potential relationships with the following entities, the names of which have been provided to Latham by the Debtors: (a) known institutional lenders to and bondholders of one or more of the Debtors; (b) the Debtors' 40 largest unsecured creditors; (c) insurers to the Debtors; (d) significant vendors to the Debtors; (e) known shareholders holding more than 5% of Debtors' common equity; (f) entities who are parties to significant litigation with the Debtors; (g) indenture trustees of the Debtors; (h) the Debtors' officers and directors; and (i) other professionals retained by the Debtors. Exhibit A lists all of the entities that were reviewed for potential connections with Latham.¹

7. The information provided herein and in the charts on Exhibit B summarize the results of the foregoing searches. To the best of my knowledge and information, Latham has no connection with any of the Debtors, their creditors or any party in interest listed on Exhibit A, except as disclosed herein or in Exhibit B. Except as noted, these representations are wholly unrelated to the Debtors or their chapter 11 cases.

8. The following is a list of matters, involving the Debtors, in which Latham has represented clients who are parties in interest to this case, including in certain instances matters which are or may be related to this case:

- Latham has represented many of the secured lenders to the Debtors in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases.
- Reed Hunt, a director of the Debtors, was formerly a Latham partner.
- Latham represents many of the financial institutions who hold debt securities of the Debtors in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases.

8. As part of its practice, Latham is involved in numerous cases, proceedings and transactions involving many different professionals, including attorneys, accountants and financial consultants, some of which may represent claimants and parties in interest in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. Further, Latham has in the past and will likely in the future be working with or against other professionals involved in these cases in matters unrelated to these cases. Based on my current knowledge of the professionals involved, and to the best of my knowledge and information, none of these business relationships represent interests materially adverse to the Debtors herein in matters upon which Latham is to be engaged.

9. Except as disclosed on Exhibit B attached hereto, none of the parties in interest (and/or their affiliates) as set forth on Exhibit A represents more than 1% of the annual fee billings of Latham for its 2002 fiscal year.

10. In addition to the above investigation, Latham will send a general inquiry by electronic mail to all attorneys to determine whether any such individuals hold any securities of or claims against the Debtors. To the extent such survey reveals any such relationships, Latham will update this disclosure to include the responses from the survey.

11. I am not related or connected to, and to the best of my knowledge, no other professional of Latham who will work on this engagement is related to or connected to, any United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of New York, any of the District Judges for the Southern District of New York who handle bankruptcy cases, the United States Trustee for Region 2 or any employee in the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 2. Mary Tom of the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 2 used to was formerly an associate of Latham & Watkins.

12. In light of the extensive number of creditors and other parties in interest, and because definitive lists of all such creditors and other parties have not been prepared, neither I nor the firm are able to conclusively identify all potential relationships. To the extent that I become aware of any additional relationship that may be relevant to Latham's representation of the Debtors, I will promptly cause to be filed a supplemental Declaration.

DISCLOSURE OF COMPENSATION

13. Since April 2003, Latham has represented the Debtors' Special Committee concerning the Special Committee Matters involved with the Debtors' possible financial restructuring. Latham received retainers (the "Retainer"), in an aggregate amount equal to $150,000, in connection with the pre-Petition Date legal services provided to the Debtors and for its proposed post-Petition Date representation of the Debtors. This Retainer constitutes a general retainer to be applied against the fees and expenses of Latham. Prior to the commencement of these cases, Latham applied $66,598.51 of the Retainer to the current amount of fees and expenses outstanding. If any amount remains after application to such fees, Latham proposes to add such amounts to its current retainer. All fees and expenses of Latham with respect to the pre-Petition Date period have been paid.

14. Subject to this Court's approval, Latham will seek compensation on an hourly basis in accordance with its ordinary and customary hourly rates in effect on the date services are rendered. Latham's billing rates currently range from $285 to $775 per hour for attorneys, and from $130 to $225 per hour for paraprofessionals. These hourly rates are subject to periodic increases in the normal course of Latham's business.

15. Moreover, it is Latham's policy to charge its clients for all other services provided and for disbursements and expenses incurred in the rendition of services. These disbursements and expenses include, among other things, costs for telephone and telecopier toll and other charges, mail and express mail charges, special or hand delivery charges, document processing, photocopying charges, travel expenses, expenses for "working meals," computerized research, transcription costs and witness fees and other fees related to trials and hearings, as well as non ordinary overhead expenses such as secretarial overtime.

16. The fees described above are consistent with Latham's normal and customary billing practices for the services expected to be rendered in these chapter 11 cases. Latham understands that all compensation and expenses to be paid to Latham by the Debtors will be subject to ultimate Court approval upon application in accordance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the rules and orders of this Court, the fee and expenses guidelines established by the U.S. Trustee's Office and any other applicable requirements.

17. Latham has no agreement with any other entity to share any compensation received in connection with these cases, nor will any be made, except as permitted under 11 U.S.C. § 504(b). Moreover, no commitments have been made or received by Latham, nor any partner or employee associate thereof, as to compensation or payment in connection with these cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

18. I declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing is true and correct.

Executed this 30th day of May, 2003.
