WITHDRAWAL OF TORT
CLAIMANTS' OBJECTION TO
EMPLOYMENT OF RIDDELL
WILLIAMS AS TORT CLAIMANT
COMMITTEE COUNSEL

[Docket No. 168]

Tort Claimants, the Objecting Parties filed an Objection to Employment of Riddell Williams P.S. as Tort Claimant Committee Counsel ("Objection") (Docket no. 168) on January 20, 2005. This Objection is withdrawn as set forth herein

I. WITHDRAWAL OF OBJECTION.

Since the filing of the Objection, the United States Trustee appointed a "Tort Litigants Committee" on February 2, 2005, and moved the tort litigant members of the "Tort Claimants Committee," to the new committee leaving the initial committee comprised of persons, the majority of whom have the desire to insure the continuing ability of the Debtor to provide counseling and pastoral services to abuse

1 victims. Under the circumstances, including the ability of the newly appointed
2 committee and its prospective counsel to represent interests adverse to the Debtor
3 without any appearance of a conflict, the conflict which has concerned the objecting
4 parties appears to be moot. Based thereon, the Objection is withdrawn.

5 DATED this 7th day of February 2005.
