ORDER AUTHORIZING THE SALE OF THE MASTER OF ORION FRANCHISE AND GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

Upon the Debtors’ motion, dated May 22, 2013 (the “Motion”),² pursuant to sections 105, 363, and 365 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”)³ and rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9008, and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) for, among other things, entry of an order (i) authorizing the sale (the “Sale Transaction”) of the Master of Orion Franchise (the “Master of Orion Assets”) to Wargaming World Limited (the “Buyer”) free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests, except to the extent set forth in that certain Asset Purchase Agreement (the “APA”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, (ii) authorizing the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts in connection with the Sale Transaction, and (iii) granting certain related relief, all as more fully described in the Motion; and the Court having entered an order on June 14, 2013 (the “Bid Procedures Order”) approving, among other things, the (a) proposed procedures for submitting competing bids for the Master of Orion Assets (the “Bid Procedures”), (b) procedures for the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts (the “Assumed Contracts”) in connection with the Sale Transaction (the “Assumption and Assignment Procedures”); and (c)

¹ The “Debtors” are Atari, Inc., Atari Interactive, Inc., Humongous, Inc., and California U.S. Holdings, Inc.

² Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in the Motion.

the date, time and place of the Sale Hearing; and the Sale Hearing having been held on July 24, 2013; and upon the record of the Sale Hearing and all of the proceedings had before the Court; and the Court having reviewed the Motion and all affidavits, declarations, responses, and objections thereto and found and determined that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and all parties in interest and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Sale Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby:

FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. Jurisdiction and Venue. The Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine and to grant the relief requested in the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(1) and 1334(b). Venue of these cases and the Motion in this district is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

B. Statutory Predicates. The statutory predicates for the relief requested in the Motion are §§ 105, 363, and 365 and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9008, and 9014.

C. Sufficiency of Notice. As evidenced by the affidavits and certificates of service and publication previously filed with the Court, in light of the exigent circumstances of these bankruptcy cases and based on the representations of counsel: (i) proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Bid Procedures, the Sale Transaction, the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts, and the Sale Hearing (collectively, the “Noticed Items”) have been provided in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a), 6004(a), 6006(c) and 9014, and all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York and in compliance with the Bid Procedures Order; (ii) such notice was good, sufficient, reasonable, and appropriate under the particular circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, and reasonably calculated to reach and apprise all holders of liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests, including, without limitation, any holder asserting any rights or claims based on any taxes or successor or transferee liability, about the Noticed Items; and (iii) no other or further notice of the Noticed Items, or any matters in connection therewith is or shall be required. With respect to entities whose identities are not reasonably ascertainable by the Debtors, publication of the Sale Notice in domestic and international editions of The Wall Street Journal on June 18, 2013 and June 19, 2013, respectively, was sufficient and reasonably calculated under the circumstances to reach such entities.

D. Objections. To the extent not withdrawn, resolved, or otherwise addressed by the terms of this Order, all objections to the Motion are overruled.

E. Assets Property of the Estate. The Master of Orion Assets are property of the Debtors' estates and title thereto is vested in the Debtors' estates.

F. Sufficiency of Marketing. The Debtors and their professionals marketed the Master of Orion Assets as set forth in and in accordance with the Motion and the Bid Procedures. Based upon the record of these proceedings, all creditors and other parties in interest and all prospective purchasers have been afforded a reasonable and fair opportunity to bid for the Master of Orion Assets.

G. Bid Procedures. The Bid Procedures were substantively and procedurally fair to all parties and all potential bidders and afforded notice and a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any person to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Master of Orion Assets. The Debtors conducted the sale process, including the Auction, without collusion and in accordance with the Bid Procedures.

H. Sale Highest and Best Offer. After the conclusion of the Auction held on July 18, 2013, the Debtors determined in a valid and sound exercise of their business judgment that the highest and best Qualified Bid for the Master of Orion Assets was that of the Buyer, and constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act and any other applicable laws, and may not be avoided under § 363(n). No other person or entity or group of persons or entities has offered to purchase the Master of Orion Assets for an amount that would provide greater value to the Debtors than the Buyer. The Court's approval of the Sale Transaction is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors and all other parties in interest.

I. Corporate Authority. Subject to the entry of this Order, the Debtors have full power and authority to: (i) transfer the Master of Orion Assets to the Buyer and execute such bills of sale and other documents as may be appropriate in their discretion; (ii) take all company action necessary to authorize and approve the sale of the Master of Orion Assets (the "Sale"), and (iii) take any action required in order to consummate the Sale. No consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for in this Order, are required for the Debtors to consummate the Sale.

J. Arm's-Length Sale and Buyer's Good Faith. The Sale was undertaken by the Debtors and the Buyer at arm's-length without collusion or fraud, and in good faith within the meaning of § 363(m). The Buyer recognizes that the Debtors: (i) were free to deal with any other party interested in acquiring the Master of Orion Assets; (ii) complied with the Bid Procedures, (iii) subjected their bid to competitive bidding, and (iv) have disclosed all payments to be made by the Buyer and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Buyer in connection with the Sale. The Buyer has not violated § 363(n) by any action or inaction, and no common identity of directors or controlling stockholders exists between the Debtors and the Buyer. As a result of the foregoing, the Buyer is entitled to the protections of § 363(m), including in the event this Order or any portion thereof is reversed or modified on appeal, and otherwise has proceeded in good faith in all respects in connection with the proceeding.

K. Satisfaction of Section 363(f) Standards. The Debtors may sell the Master of Orion Assets free and clear of all liens, claims and interests because, with respect to each creditor asserting a claim or interest, one or more of the standards set forth in § 363(f)(1)-(5) has been satisfied. Those holders of claims and interests who did not object or who withdrew their objections to the Sale or the Motion (as relates to the Sale) are deemed to have consented to the Motion and Sale pursuant to § 363(f)(2). Those holders of claims and interests who did object fall within one or more of the other subsections of § 363(f).

L. Free and Clear Findings Required by Buyer. The Buyer would not have bid at the Auction and would not consummate the Sale if the sale of the Master of Orion Assets to the Buyer were not free and clear of all liens, claims and interests to the extent provided by Bankruptcy Code section 363(f).

M. No Liability Under Section 363(n). Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Sale to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed, under § 363(n).

N. No Fraudulent Transfer. The Sale is not being consummated for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors of the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any other applicable law. Neither the Debtors nor the Buyer are consummating the Sale with any fraudulent or otherwise improper purpose.

O. No Successor Liability. The Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors and is not an “insider” or “affiliate” of the Debtors, as those terms are defined in the Bankruptcy Code, and no common identity of incorporators, directors, or stockholders exists between the Buyer and the Debtors. The Buyer is not purchasing all or substantially all of the Debtors’ assets and the Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors. The conveyance of the Master of Orion Assets does not amount to a consolidation, merger or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors and/or Debtors’ estates, there is no substantial continuity between the Buyer and the Debtors, there is no continuity of enterprise between the Debtors and the Buyer and the Buyer does not constitute a successor to the Debtors’ estates. Upon the Closing (as defined in the APA), the Buyer shall be deemed to have assumed only the Assumed Liabilities (as defined in the APA). Except for the Assumed Liabilities, the Buyer’s acquisition of the Master of Orion Assets shall be free and clear of any “successor liability” claims of any nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown and whether asserted or unasserted as of the Closing. The Buyer’s operations shall not be deemed a continuation of the Debtors’ businesses as a result of the acquisition of the Master of Orion Assets. The Buyer would not have acquired the Master of Orion Assets but for the foregoing protections.

P. Sale as Exercise of Business Judgment. The selection of the Buyer as the Successful Bidder for the Master of Orion Assets and consummation of the Sale constitute the exercise of the Debtors’ sound business judgment, and such acts are in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and all parties in interest. The Court finds that the Debtors have articulated good and sufficient business reasons justifying the Sale of the Master of Orion Assets.

Q. Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures, including notice of proposed cure amounts, are reasonable and appropriate and consistent with the provisions of § 365 and Bankruptcy Rule 6006. Such procedures have been tailored to provide adequate opportunity for all non-Debtor counterparties to the relevant Assumed Contracts (the “Counterparties”) to raise any objections to the proposed assumption and assignment or to cure amounts. No objections having been made, no further consent of the Counterparties is required.

R. Compelling Reasons for an Immediate Sale. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling circumstances for the Sale outside: (a) the ordinary course of business, pursuant to § 363(b); and (b) a plan of reorganization, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale to the Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtors’ estates and the Sale will provide the means for the Debtors to maximize distributions to the Debtors’ creditors. To maximize the value of the Master of Orion Assets, it is essential that the Sale occur promptly. Time is of the essence in consummating the Sale.

It is therefore:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:
