Be sure all items are answered on the claim form. If not applicable, insert "Not Applicable."

DEFINITIONS

DEBTOR

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

CREDITOR

A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed.

CLAIM

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment on a debt that was owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

PROOF OF CLAIM

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debtor owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the court-appointed Claims Agent, BMC Group, at the address listed on the reverse side of this page

SECURED CLAIM Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors.

The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car.

A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

UNSECURED NONPRIORITY CLAIM

If a claim is not a secured claim it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full.

UNSECURED PRIORITY CLAIM Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor should redact and use only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, all but the initials of a minor's name and only the year of any person's date of birth.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Unpaid Travel Expense Report

- See attached Expenses report for travel to Aspen Colorado to review customer complaints at the Ritz.
- $1,645.16

Vacation Pay

- With 25 years of service with AoM my earned vacation was 4 weeks per year. This has always been noted in the handbook that the vacation is earned as of January 1st of each year. This would account for one month's salary. As noted in the WAREN Act, employers must pay earned vacation.
- $4,941.90

Sick day Pay

- The AoM Employee handbook notes that earned sick day will be paid up to 40 days. In 25 years service I never used a sick day (always used vacation for sick days, which were few anyway). According to the handbook I would be entitled to 40 days sick pay.
- $9,883.81

60 Days pay for WAREN Act

- I was not given notice 60 days prior to shutdown & termination; in fact notice was given after shutdown & termination. Also, the Warn act notes only 3 exception for not giving 60 days notice and this situation does not fit any of the three as:
 - There was no Natural Disaster
 - Business conditions were certainly foreseeable
 - There was no faltering company as Hancock Park owns the company and they are not faltering and certainly were well aware of the company finances for a long period of time. In fact customers were made aware of the financial situation and plan to restructure as well as refinance, so there was not reasonable believes that advance notice would hurt the ability to find the capital or business it needs to continue operating

Salaried and Non-Exempt
Handbook
for Associates

Error in Pay

Every effort is made to avoid errors in your paycheck. If you believe an error has been made, contact your supervisor immediately. Necessary steps will be taken to assure that any appropriate corrections are made promptly.

Overtime Pay

From time to time it may be necessary for you to perform overtime work in order to complete a job on time. All overtime must be approved in advance by your manager. When it is necessary to work overtime, you are expected to cooperate as a condition of your employment. There are two types of overtime work:

1. Scheduled Overtime: Scheduled overtime work is announced in advance and generally will involve an entire department or operation.
2. Incidental Overtime: Incidental overtime isn't scheduled, it becomes necessary in response to extenuating circumstances.

If you are a "non-exempt" associate and you perform overtime work, you will be paid one and one-half (1-1/2) times your regular hourly wage for any time over forty (40) hours per week that you work.

Full-time "non-exempt" associates who work on a company holiday will be given another day off for the holiday and be paid time and one half for work performed on the holiday. Again holiday pay hours as well as work performed on the holiday will be counted in calculating overtime pay for the week.

Note: See "Holiday Policies" in the "Benefits" section of this manual for further information.

Pay Cycle

Exempt & non-exempt associates are paid once each month (12 pay periods per year). Payday is normally the last working day of each calendar month for services performed during the month.

Pay Period & Hours

Our payroll workweek begins on Sunday at 12:01 a.m. and ends on Saturday at 12:00 midnight.

Termination & Severance Pay

American of Martinsville hopes and expects that you will give at least two weeks notice in the event you intend to leave our employ. Any vested but unused vacation time will be paid at the time of employment termination, as specified under "Vacations" in the "Benefits" section of this Manual.

American of Martinsville does not normally pay severance pay.

Breaks/Rest Periods

These will be determined by the department in which you work.

Lunch Periods

If you work longer than four (4) hours a day, you will be given an unpaid lunch period. The time when lunch periods are scheduled varies among departments, depending on the needs of each department. Your manager will give you your lunch period schedule.

Non-exempt associates are expected to take a one (1) hour unpaid lunch period daily; please understand that you may not "work through lunch" in order to arrive late or to leave early or to work extra time without prior approval by your department manager or supervisor.

Associates will be reconsidered for employment after a six month waiting period.

Should the time ever come when you are thinking of leaving American of Martinsville, please talk it over with your supervisor. This is a very important decision, and you may have failed to consider some important factors.

If you decide to resign, please give at least two weeks notice. This will help us to find a replacement. You will receive your final paycheck (including any payment you are owed for accrued vacation) on the next regular pay day.

BENEFITS

Eligibility for Benefits

If you are a full-time associate, you will enjoy all of the benefits described in this manual as soon as you meet the eligibility requirements of each particular benefit.

Part-time associates are not eligible for benefits.

Holidays

All full-time associates are eligible for holiday pay after the 90-day introductory period is completed. In order to be paid holiday pay, you must work the regularly scheduled work day shift prior to and immediately after the holiday.

If you are out on a leave of absence, you will not receive holiday pay.

Recognized Holidays

Notices giving definite dates will be posted on the bulletin boards as far in advance as possible. If you are required to work on a holiday, you will be paid time and one-half (1-1/2) for the hours worked that day.

Vacations

Vacation is a time for you to rest, relax, and pursue special interests. Regular full-time associates are eligible for paid vacation.

Amount of Vacation

The vacation year starts January 1 and ends on December 31 of each year. All earned vacation is credited on January 1 of each year and must be taken by December 31 of the same year. Associates will be eligible for a paid vacation, dependent upon the length of service, as follows:

Length of Service January 1

Earned Vacation Days

Less than one year

Hired no later than June 30th, will be eligible for five (5) days

1 - 4 Years

10 Days

5 - 11 Years

15 Days

12 or more Years

20 Days

 If hired no later than June 30th, associates will be eligible for (5) five days of vacation. Although vacation accrual begins on the date of hire, associates are not eligible to take vacation until after six months and it is not considered an earned benefit until completion of six months continuous service. During their first six months, new associates will be required to work during vacation shutdown periods. New hires with less than six months continuous service on January 1, will be allowed to transfer earned but unused vacation to the next year, but both transferred vacation and credited vacation must be taken during the next fiscal year.

Vacation is earned at (1) one day per month to a maximum of 10 days. 15 days is earned at 1.5 days per month. 20 days is earned at 2 days per month. Vacation time may not be carried over and accumulated in subsequent calendar years. Unused vacation will be pro-rated at time of separation.

Scheduling Vacation

Every effort will be made to grant you your vacation at the time you desire. However, vacations cannot interfere with your department's operation and therefore must be approved by your manager. Vacation time may be taken in hourly, half-day, or full day increments. If conflicts arise in requests for vacation time, the supervisor will resolve them. Vacation time must be scheduled at least 24 hours in advance with your supervisor's approval.

Accumulation Rights

Vacation earned at (1) one day per month, a maximum of 10 days. 15 days is earned at 1.5 days per month. 20 days is earned at 2 days per month. Vacation time may not be carried over and accumulated in subsequent calendar years.

Sick Leave

Non-exempt associates are eligible for paid sick leave. To qualify for paid sick leave, you must be a full-time associate in a non-exempt position, and have completed your initial 90-day period. Time taken off during the initial 90-day period will be without pay. If you must be absent from work because of a personal illness, you will be eligible to receive your regular straight time pay for up to ten (10) days per calendar year. Please advise your manager as soon as possible when you need to be absent from work due to illness.

You will be eligible for paid sick days after you have completed your introductory period as follows: one (1) day when you have completed your introductory period plus one (1) day for each month from the end of your initial 90-day period. Time taken off during the initial 90-day period. Time taken off during the period through the end of the calendar year (not to exceed five (5) days during your first year of employment). Thereafter, you will be eligible for the normal ten (10) paid sick days per calendar year. Please check the Attendance section of this Manual.

Sick leave may be used for the purpose of visiting doctors, dentists or other practitioners in their offices, or for illnesses in your immediate family.

American of Martinsville may request "proof-of-illness" and may also use a company-appointed physician to examine the associate.

If you are required to take a disability leave of absence, any accrued sick leave will be used at the time the leave commences.

In the event of an illness or injury covered by workers' compensation, this sick leave policy will not apply but will defer to state statutes.

 Sick leave may be carried over to a maximum of forty (40) days. If you have accumulated at least twenty-five (25) days of sick leave at the beginning of the calendar year you may use a maximum of two (2) sick days during that calendar year as personal days. These personal days will not be counted as occurrences when taken and are not subject to payment if the associate terminates employment prior to using them. Regular full-time eligible for vacation pay and vacation time off.

Other Paid Leaves

If any of these paid leaves apply to you, please see the Human Resources Department.

To Whom it may concern:

Please accept this letter as a request on our (as undersigned) behalf, as former employees of American of Martinsville, to appeal to you as our elected government representative to assist us in securing money we feel is owed to us in the recent shut down of American of Martinsville. I have attached an article for your reference that will give you a quick reference as to the unusual circumstance involved in this factory closedown. I'm sure, with the assistance of your staff; you will find supportive facts to see how a big corporation has again profited from the "little man" (in this case, the employees of American of Martinsville).

Hancock Park Associates purchased American of Martinsville in 2006. With the normal "Big Corporate" business model, Hancock Park Associates began the process of destroying a 100 year old company that provided generations of employment for the Martinsville area. As with your normal "Holding type Company", they follow the "easy way out" to assure "return on investment" by moving production overseas, so the company assets can be sold for quick return on investment. In a short 4 years Hancock Park Associates managed to suck the blood out of a 100 year old company, all in the name of giving the investors a quick return on investment while destroying the lives of 100's of Martinsville area individuals. The ironic part is that after sucking the financial life out of the company they want to pull out and leave 100's of creditors and employees financially ruined.

As a slap in the face they boast of their financial stability on their web site: "HPA is currently investing out of Hancock Park Capital III, L.P., a $256 million institutional fund, which was established in 2005 with the objective of providing attractive returns for our partners through focused investments in smaller companies. This fund followed Hancock Park Capital II, L.P., our first institutional fund of $156 million, raised during 2002." <http://www.hpcap.com/AboutUs.aspx>

Is it not a complete joke for Hancock Park to now be asking to be able to purchase the company back for a mere 1.5 million after breaking it up and selling it off? Of course they want to say that the company owes them 32 million to threaten the government that if they don't go along with the plan that they will not forgive the debt. Would the government allow a family that owns an estate worth millions to get food stamps for their kids because they renamed their kids "incorporated"?

We are asking that as our elected representatives that you not allow this company to hide behind layers of corporations to avoid financial responsibilities, thus leaving local businesses, individuals and most importantly the employees to suffer with the debts while they boast of their financial stability.

Are we to believe that such a company cannot abide by the establish laws (WARN Act) and at least pay the employees the 60 days pay that they deserve? And as an even bigger insult are you going to allow the company to not reimburse employees for company expenses that they paid out of their own pockets? Should employees be harassed by credit card companies for debts of the company because their names were on the cards? Should the employee's credit be ruined because these credit card balances are not paid?

We are pleading with you as our elected officials to stand up for our rights. Please see that actions are taken to:

1. First of all, Assure Employees that spent money out of their own pockets are reimbursed for these company expenses.
2. Secondly, Don't allow Hancock Park Associates to hide behind corporation schemes and say American of Martinsville and Barcalounger are solely responsible for failure. Is this a one way street – is it OK that they are part of the TEAM if it is profitable but if there is debt then they hide behind "corporation"? The WARN Act was passed as law to protect the employees for just this situation – the employees deserve to be paid for the 60 days as protected by the WARN Act.
3. Thirdly, Assure that Credit card debts are paid so former employees are not harassed and credit ratings ruined.
4. Fourthly, do the right thing and go "above and beyond" and make this a landmark case by forcing Hancock Park Associates to pay each employee a lump sum that will offset the disruption to them and their families, that they so deserve.

Please reply back and inform us of your findings and actions.

U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration Fact Sheet

The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act

A Guide to Advance Notice of Closings and Layoffs

The Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (WARN) was enacted on August 4, 1988 and became effective on February 4, 1989.

General Provisions

WARN offers protection to workers, their families and communities by requiring employers to provide notice 60 days in advance of covered plant closings and covered mass layoffs. This notice must be provided to either affected workers or their representatives (e.g., a labor union); to the State dislocated worker unit; and to the appropriate unit of local government.

Employer Coverage

In general, employers are covered by WARN if they have 100 or more employees, not counting employees who have worked less than 6 months in the last 12 months and not counting employees who work an average of less than 20 hours a week. Private, for-profit employers and private, nonprofit employers are covered, as are public and quasi-public entities which operate in a commercial context and are separately organized from the regular government. Regular Federal, State, and local government entities which provide public services are not covered.

- o American of Martinsville / Barcalounger had over 100 employees.

Employee Coverage

Employees entitled to notice under WARN include hourly and salaried workers, as well as managerial and supervisory employees. Business partners are not entitled to notice.

- o Management was told April 16th that effective immediately they were no longer employed. We were notified that they was no money, thus there would be no vacation pay, no severance pay and no other pay. Expense reimbursements and company credit cards were left open, that they would be reviewed, to date (May 23rd nothing has been reimbursed or paid). A press release was given on April 23rd that the company was closed and notice of Warn Act was sent out; however, nothing referencing any 60 day pay.

What Triggers Notice

Plant Closing: A covered employer must give notice if an employment site (or one or more facilities or operating units within an employment site) will be shut down, and the shutdown will result in an employment loss (as defined later) for 50 or more employees during any 30-day period. This does not count employees who have worked less than 6 months in the last 12 months or employees who work an average of less than 20 hours a week for that employer. These latter groups, however, are entitled to notice (discussed later).

o Notice of shutdown was sent out on the May 23rd.

Mass Layoff: A covered employer must give notice if there is to be a mass layoff which does not result from a plant closing, but which will result in an employment loss at the employment site during any 30-day period for 500 or more employees, or for 50-499 employees if they make up at least 33% of the employer's active workforce. Again, this does not count employees who have worked less than 6 months in the last 12 months or employees who work an average of less than 20 hours a week for that employer. These latter groups, however, are entitled to notice (discussed later).

An employer also must give notice if the number of employment losses which occur during a 30-day period fails to meet the threshold requirements of a plant closing or mass layoff, but the number of employment losses for 2 or more groups of workers, each of which is less than the minimum number needed to trigger notice, reaches the threshold level, during any 90-day period, of either a plant closing or mass layoff. Job losses within any 90-day period will count together toward WARN threshold levels, unless the employer demonstrates that the employment losses during the 90-day period are the result of separate and distinct actions and causes.

Sale of Businesses

In a situation involving the sale of part or all of a business, the following requirements apply. (1) In each situation, there is always an employer responsible for giving notice. (2) If the sale by a covered employer results in a covered plant closing or mass layoff, the required parties (discussed later) must receive at least 60 days notice. (3) The seller is responsible for providing notice of any covered plant closing or mass layoff which occurs up to and including the date/time of the sale. (4) The buyer is responsible for providing notice of any covered plant closing or mass layoff which occurs after the date/time of the sale. (5) No notice is required if the sale does not result in a covered plant closing or mass layoff. (6) Employees of the seller (other than employees who have worked less than 6 months in the last 12 months or employees who work an average of less than 20 hours a week) on the date/time of the sale become, for purposes of WARN, employees of the buyer immediately following the sale. This provision preserves the notice rights of the employees of a business that has been sold.

Employment Loss

The term "employment loss" means:

(1) An employment termination, other than a discharge for cause, voluntary departure, or retirement;

- o All employees were terminated except a skeleton crew of approximately 6 to close down.

(2) a layoff exceeding 6 months; or

(3) a reduction in an employee's hours of work of more than 50% in each month of any 6-month period.

Exceptions: An employee who refuses a transfer to a different employment site within reasonable commuting distance does not experience an employment loss. An employee who accepts a transfer outside this distance within 30 days after it is offered or within 30 days after the plant closing or mass layoff, whichever is later, does not experience an employment loss. In both cases, the transfer offer must be made before the closing or layoff, there must be no more than a 6 month break in employment, and the new job must not be deemed a constructive discharge. These transfer exceptions from the "employment loss" definition apply only if the closing or layoff results from the relocation or consolidation of part or all of the employer's business.

Exemptions

An employer does not need to give notice if a plant closing is the closing of a temporary facility, or if the closing or mass layoff is the result of the completion of a particular project or undertaking. This exemption applies only if the workers were hired with the understanding that their employment was limited to the duration of the facility, project or undertaking. An employer cannot label an ongoing project "temporary" in order to evade its obligations under WARN.

- o Does not apply. Factory was not temporary, nor completion of a particular project or undertaking.

An employer does not need to provide notice to strikers or to workers who are part of the bargaining unit(s) which are involved in the labor negotiations that led to a lockout when the strike or lockout is equivalent to a plant closing or mass layoff. Non-striking employees who experience an employment loss as a direct or indirect result of a strike and workers who are not part of the bargaining unit(s) which are involved in the labor negotiations that led to a lockout are still entitled to notice.

An employer does not need to give notice when permanently replacing a person who is an "economic striker" as defined under the National Labor Relations Act.

Who Must Receive Notice

The employer must give written notice to the chief elected officer of the exclusive representative(s) or bargaining agency(s) of affected employees and to unrepresented individual workers who may reasonably be expected to experience an employment loss. This includes employees who may lose their employment due to "bumping," or displacement by other workers, to the extent that the employer can identify those employees when notice is given. If an employer cannot identify employees who may lose their jobs through bumping procedures, the employer must provide notice to the incumbents in the jobs which are being eliminated. Employees who have worked less than 6 months in the last 12 months and employees who work an average of less than 20 hours a week are due notice, even though they are not counted when determining the trigger levels.

The employer must also provide notice to the State dislocated worker unit and to the chief elected official of the unit of local government in which the employment site is located.

- No notice was given until after workers were terminated.

Notification Period

With three exceptions, notice must be timed to reach the required parties at least 60 days before a closing or layoff. When the individual employment separations for a closing or layoff occur on more than one day, the notices are due to the representative(s), State dislocated worker unit and local government at least 60 days before each separation. If the workers are not represented, each worker's notice is due at least 60 days before that worker's separation.

The exceptions to 60-day notice are:

(1) Faltering company. This exception, to be narrowly construed, covers situations where a company has sought new capital or business in order to stay open and where giving notice would ruin the opportunity to get the new capital or business, and applies only to plant closings;

- This is only an outlet for companies to avoid paying the 60 day notice – is there ever really a company that goes out of business that is not faltering and tries in some way to get capital? This exception could be used by every company.
- In this particular case, giving notice would not have ruined the opportunity new capital as the capital backing was being sought from the owning company

(Hancock Park).

- Hancock Park should not be allowed to hid behind layers of "Corporations" to avoid paying 60 day pay as required by the WARN Act.
- Hancock Park (Owner) boast of having investments of $256 million on it's Web Site (<http://www.hpcap.com/AboutUs.aspx>). Hardly a company that is "Faltering".

(2) unforeseeable business circumstances. This exception applies to closings and layoffs that are caused by business circumstances that were not reasonably foreseeable at the time notice would otherwise have been required; and

(3) Natural disaster. This applies where a closing or layoff is the direct result of a natural disaster, such as a flood, earthquake, drought or storm.

If an employer provides less than 60 days advance notice of a closing or layoff and relies on one of these three exceptions, the employer bears the burden of proof that the conditions for the exception have been met. The employer also must give as much notice as is practicable. When the notices are given, they must include a brief statement of the reason for reducing the notice period in addition to the items required in notices.

- No reason given as to reason for reducing the notice period.

Form and Content of Notice

No particular form of notice is required. However, all notices must be in writing. Any reasonable method of delivery designed to ensure receipt 60 days before a closing or layoff is acceptable.

Notice must be specific. Notice may be given conditionally upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event only when the event is definite and its occurrence or nonoccurrence will result in a covered employment action less than 60 days after the event.

The content of the notices to the required parties is listed in section 639.7 of the WARN final regulations. Additional notice is required when the date(s) or 14-day period(s) for a planned plant closing or mass layoff are extended beyond the date(s) or 14-day period(s) announced in the original notice.

Record

No particular form of record is required. The information employers will use to determine whether, to whom, and when they must give notice is information that employers usually keep in ordinary business practices and in complying with other laws and regulations.

Penalties

An employer who violates the WARN provisions by ordering a plant closing or mass layoff without providing appropriate notice is liable to each aggrieved employee for an amount including back pay and benefits for the period of violation, up to 60 days. The employer's liability may be reduced by such items as wages paid by the employer to the employee during the period of the violation and voluntary and unconditional payments made by the employer to the employee.

An employer who fails to provide notice as required to a unit of local government is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $500 for each day of violation. This penalty may be avoided if the employer satisfies the liability to each aggrieved employee within 3 weeks after the closing or layoff is ordered by the employer.

Enforcement

Enforcement of WARN requirements is through the United States district courts. Workers, representatives of employees and units of local government may bring individual or class action suits. In any suit, the court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs.

Specific requirements of the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act may be found in the Act itself, Public Law 100-379 (29 U.S.C. 2101, et seq.)
