INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

ITEMS TO BE COMPLETED IN PROOF OF CLAIM FORM (IF NOT ALREADY PROPERLY FILLED IN)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the bankruptcy debtor's full name, and the case number. If you received a notice of the case from the Claims Agent, BMC Group, some or all of this information may have been already completed.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Administrative Expense Under 11 U.S.C. § 503 (b)(9) or Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a).

If any portion of your claim falls in one or more of the listed categories, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, attach a complete copy of any power of attorney, and provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

DEBTOR

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

CREDITOR

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101(10).

CLAIM

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101(5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

PROOF OF CLAIM

A proof of claim is a form sued by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. This form must be filed with the court-appointed Claims Agent, BMC Group, at the address listed on the reverse side of the first page.

SECURED CLAIM Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

UNSECURED CLAIM

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

CLAIM ENTITLED TO PRIORITY Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

REDACTED

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

EVIDENCE OF PERFECTION

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

OFFERS TO PURCHASE A CLAIM

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. §101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

12. DEFAULT.

12.1 Events of Default. Occurrence of either of the following shall be an Event of Default under this Lease:

(a) Failure by Tenant to pay any installment of Base Rent or Additional Rent hereunder by the tenth (10th) day of the month in which it is due; or

(b) Breach by Tenant of any other covenant, condition, warranty, representation, obligation or agreement of Tenant set forth in this Lease which is not cured within thirty (30) days following written notice from Landlord to Tenant specifying the Event of Default.

12.2 Landlord's Remedies. Upon occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder, Landlord at its option shall have the following rights and remedies, in addition to any other rights and remedies allowable at law or in equity:

(a) Landlord may, but shall not be required to, make any payment or perform any act required of Tenant under this Lease, with any such payments made or funds expended by Landlord pursuant to the foregoing grant of authority to be paid by Tenant as Additional Rent within ten (10) business days following written notice from Landlord requiring payment thereof.

(b) Without terminating this Lease or Tenant's right of possession hereunder, Landlord may recover any damages or delinquent Rent payments due hereunder, in separate actions, from time to time or in a single proceeding deferred until the expiration of the Term of this Lease then in effect.

(c) Landlord, at its option, may terminate this Lease by written notice to Tenant, whereupon this Lease shall end and all rights of Tenant hereunder shall expire and terminate, but Tenant shall remain liable as provided in subsection (d) hereof. Upon such termination by Landlord, Tenant immediately shall assign over to Landlord all subleases of all or any portions of the Property and deliver to Landlord all rents and deposits of every nature then held thereunder by Tenant, and shall surrender possession of the Property to Landlord (but subject to any rights of subtenant pursuant to any subleases).

(d) Landlord may terminate Tenant's right of possession (without terminating this Lease unless such termination is effected by operation of law), and may, in accordance with applicable law, enter upon and take possession of the Property and expel or remove Tenant (but subject to the rights of any subtenants pursuant to any subleases), and may re-let the Property for such rent and terms as Landlord may deem advisable. All Rents received by Landlord from any re-letting shall be applied first, to the payment of any reasonable costs and expenses of such re-letting, including brokerage fees, reasonable attorneys fees and the costs of alterations and repairs; second, to the payment of past due and unpaid Rent hereunder; and the residue, if any, shall be held by Landlord and applied in payment of future Rent as the same may become due and payable hereunder. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord, on demand, any deficiency that may arise by reason of such re-letting. Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to re-let the Property. Notwithstanding any such re-letting without termination, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease for any prior Event of Default.

13. SUBORDINATION, NON-DISTURBANCE, ATTORNMENT. This Lease shall be subject and subordinate to all record mortgages of the Landlord now or hereafter placed of record upon the Property, and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof, provided Tenant receives a reasonably acceptable nondisturbance and attornment agreement from the mortgagee. Tenant covenants and agrees to attorn to any successor to Landlord's ownership of the Property, and in such event, this Lease shall continue as a direct lease between Tenant herein and such successor. Landlord shall cause Landlord and any mortgagee of Landlord's title to the Property to acknowledge to Tenant in writing that so long as Tenant shall not be in default under this Lease, neither this Lease nor Tenant's right to remain in exclusive possession of the Property pursuant to this Lease shall be affected or disturbed by reason of any default by Landlord under any mortgage of its title to the Property. If any such mortgage be foreclosed, Tenant shall not be named as a party defendant in such foreclosure action, this Lease shall survive such foreclosure, and this Lease shall continue thereafter in full force and effect. In such event, Tenant shall be authorized to make all Rent payments hereunder directly to such mortgagee or the purchaser of the Property at foreclosure to be applied by such mortgagee to Landlord's indebtedness, which payments shall fulfill all requirements of this Lease for Rent payments by Tenant to Landlord.

14. TENANT HOLDOVER. Should Tenant hold over the Property after the expiration of the Term of this Lease, unless otherwise agreed in writing, such holding over shall constitute a tenancy from month to month only, subject to the terms hereof and to the payment of monthly Base Rent equal to two hundred (200%) percent of the Base Rent payable for the last month of this Lease prior to such holding over. In a holdover situation, each party agrees to give to the other thirty (30) days prior written notice that the party giving notice is terminating this Lease, in which case Tenant shall vacate the Property prior to expiration of said thirty (30) day period.

15. QUIET ENJOYMENT. So long as Tenant shall pay all Rents and observe and perform all covenants and provisions hereof, Tenant shall peacefully and quietly have and enjoy possession of the Property without any encumbrance or hindrance by, from or through Landlord, except that Landlord shall have the right to enter upon the Property during regular business hours, upon reasonable notice, for inspection purposes so long as such entry shall in no way disrupt the conduct of any business thereat.

16. LICENSES AND UTILITIES. Tenant shall pay all sums as and when due on account of utility service provided to the Property. Should Tenant fail to pay the same prior to the same becoming delinquent, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to pay the same and to require the amount so paid, together with any penalty, to be reimbursed as Additional Rent within ten (10) business days following written notice from Landlord.

17. ASSIGNMENT OR SUBLETTING. Tenant shall not have any right to assign all or any portion of this Lease, except with the written consent of Landlord in its sole discretion. However, Landlord acknowledges that Tenant, as prior owner of the Property, has leased all or portions of the Property to existing tenants thereof ("Subtenants") who are presently occupying the same pursuant to existing leases thereof (the "Subleases"). Tenant shall continue to have the right during the Term of this Lease to further sublet all or portions of the Property to other and further Subtenants, subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, which shall not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed.
