INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, there may be exceptions to these general rules.

ITEMS TO BE COMPLETED IN PROOF OF CLAIM FORM (IF NOT ALREADY PROPERLY FILLED IN)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the bankruptcy debtor's full name, and the case number. If you received a notice of the case from the Claims Agent, BMC Group, some or all of this information may have been already completed.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Administrative Expense Under 11 U.S.C. § 503 (b)(9) or Priority Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a).

If any portion of your claim falls in one or more of the listed categories, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2), authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, attach a complete copy of any power of attorney, and provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

DEBTOR

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

CREDITOR

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101(10).

CLAIM

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101(5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

PROOF OF CLAIM

A proof of claim is a form sued by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. This form must be filed with the court-appointed Claims Agent, BMC Group, at the address listed on the reverse side of the first page.

SECURED CLAIM Under 11 U.S.C. §506(a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien. A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

UNSECURED CLAIM

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

CLAIM ENTITLED TO PRIORITY Under 11 U.S.C. §507(a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

REDACTED

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

EVIDENCE OF PERFECTION

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

OFFERS TO PURCHASE A CLAIM

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. §101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Date-Stamped Copy

Return claim form and attachments, if any. If you wish to receive an acknowledgement of your claim, please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope and a second copy of the proof of claim form with any attachments to the Claims Agent, BMC Group, at the address on the second page of this form.

Please read - important information: upon completion of this claim form, you are certifying that the statements herein are true.

Be sure all items are answered on the claim form. If not applicable, insert "Not Applicable."

PROFF OF RESIGNATION

Dear Mr. Tucker,

It is with regret we write at this time to confirm acknowledgment of your resignation of your Cliffs at Glassy Golf Membership with The Cliffs Golf and Country Club. Your resignation is effective with the receipt of your written resignation notice and will be effective November 17, 2008. You are obligated for payment of dues for the month in which we received the notice. Your refund will be processed in accordance with the refund policies and procedures as outlined in the Master Membership Plan. If you need a copy of this document, please let us know. In summary, the refund is processed as follows:

- Your Glassy Golf Membership refund of $100,000 is placed in a priority waiting list based on the classification and location of your membership; you are currently 38th in line. The Master Membership Plan outlines the refund procedure and explains that such refund will be paid within a reasonable period of time following such re-issuance of the original membership, consistent with the Cliffs Clubs processing of accounts payable, and will be processed only on the basis of one (1) refund for every five (5) memberships issued by the Club from its previously unissued memberships within the same classification as the original membership.

As part of the acknowledgment of your resignation, the club requires the following conditions to be met prior to the issue of any refund:

- Your Member account needs to be paid in full and show a zero balance.
- Please return any membership card(s) by mail.

— 11-26-08

It is important to mention that the Club bylaws do not provide for this resigned membership to be reactivated in the future. Specifically, Section 20 (I) states, "A Member that voluntarily resigns his/her membership may not reactivate the resigned membership in order to have the membership available to the resale purchaser of the resigned Member's property." Please consider this bylaw as it may impact you going forward.

I wish you the best in your future endeavors. If you have any questions regarding the procedures as outlined above or the restriction on availability of a Full Golf Membership for your resale buyer, please call the Membership Office at 864-660-1160.

Kind regards,

Nate Weyand
