2 THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, THE DEBTORS' 20 LARGEST 3 UNSECURED CREDITORS, AND PARTIES THAT HAVE REQUESTED SPECIAL 4 NOTICE:

5 Colorep, Inc. ("Colorep") and Transprint USA, Inc. ("Transprint", and together with 6 Colorep, the "Debtors"), the debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned bankruptcy 7 cases, hereby submit this chapter 11 status report (the "Status Report") in connection with the status 8 conference to be held on January 30, 2014 (the "Status Conference"). This Status Report covers the 9 period from October 18, 2013 through January 16, 2014 (the "Third Period") and is supported by the 10 record in these cases.

11 A. Brief Description of the Debtors' Businesses and Operations, and the Principal 12 Assets and Liabilities of Each Estate.

13 Prior to the closing of the sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets (the "Sale"), 14 as described below, Colorep and Transprint were both in the textile printing and design industry. A 15 more detailed description of the Debtors' business is provided in the Debtors' First Chapter 11 16 Status Report in Connection With August 29, 2013 Status Conference [Docket No. 127] (the "First 17 Status Report"), but in general, Colorep's business was premised on technology and a process it had 18 developed for dyeing and decorating fabric, known as AirDye®. Colorep owned numerous patents 19 and other intellectual property in connection with the AirDye® process.

20 Transprint, a wholly owned subsidiary of Colorep, was a leading supplier of transfer-21 printing paper, with a global customer base and a design library exceeding 15,000 unique designs.
22 Prior to the Sale, Transprint owned the real property and machinery associated with its factory in 23 Harrisonburg, Virginia, and also owned certain patents and other intellectual property in connection 24 with designs and operations in the textile industry.

25 Prior to the closing of the Sale, the primary indebtedness of the Debtors was the 26 obligation owing to Meserole, LLC ("Meserole"). In or around June 2011, the Debtors entered into 27 that certain Loan and Security Agreement (as amended, supplemented and modified, the "Meserole 28 Prepetition Loan Agreement") with Meserole. Pursuant to the Meserole Prepetition Loan Agreement, the Debtors had the ability to access up to $25 million on the terms and conditions set

1 forth in the Meserole Prepetition Loan Agreement (the "Meserole Prepetition Loan"). The Debtors'
2 obligations under the Meserole Prepetition Loan were purportedly secured by a first priority security 3 interest on virtually all of their tangible and intangible assets. Meserole filed a Proof of Claim 4 against the Debtors, asserting a secured claim in the amount of $20,083,057.80, exclusive of 5 attorneys' fees and other expenses, as of the Debtors' petition date.

6 B. Events Precipitating the Debtors' Bankruptcy Filings.

7 A detailed explanation of the events precipitating the Debtors' bankruptcy filings is 8 provided in the First Status Report. In sum, however, the Debtors' bankruptcy filings were the result 9 of diminished cash flow which rendered the Debtors unable to pay ordinary course operating 10 expenses and overhead, acquire necessary raw materials to meet customer demands, and purchase 11 parts and supplies required for the maintenance of their equipment and production facility in 12 Virginia. These conditions resulted in a decline in the quality and availability of the Debtors' 13 product, impairing the Debtors' relationships with certain key vendors and customers.

14 The Debtors attempted to stabilize their business through the Meserole Prepetition 15 Loan, and through an effort to obtain additional outside capital infusions, neither of which proved 16 sufficient to ameliorate the Debtors' declining revenues and liquidity issues. The Debtors eventually 17 determined that a Chapter 11 filing in which the Debtors could maintain their operations while 18 attempting to find a "going concern" buyer was their most feasible alternative.

19 C. The Debtors' Sale of Substantially All of Their Assets.

20 The Debtors' most pressing challenge in these Chapter 11 cases was to stabilize 21 business operations so that the Debtors could remain operational, and preserve both the value of the 22 Debtors' assets and the jobs of as many employees as possible while the Debtors implemented a sale 23 process for substantially all of the Debtors' assets. By an order entered August 12, 2013 [Docket No.
24 109] (the "Sale Procedures Order"), the Court approved a sale process under which the Debtors were 25 authorized to conduct a marketing effort in an attempt to so solicit Qualified Bids, as that term is 26 defined in the Sale Procedures Order, for the Debtors' assets.

27 The Debtors retained Hilco IP Services LLC d/b/a Hilco Streambank ("Hilco") to 28 market the Debtors' assets, and to organize, with the assistance of the Debtors' reorganization

1 counsel, a sale process for the Debtors' assets. Neither Hilco nor the Debtors received any Qualified 2 Bids for the Debtors' assets, but the Debtors did receive an offer from Meserole and Fuller Smith
3 Capital Management, LLC ("Fuller Smith", and together with Meserole, the "Buyer") to purchase 4 substantially all of the Debtors' assets through an entity known as AirDye Solutions, LLC. The 5 Debtors and their representatives engaged in weeks of negotiations with the Buyer with respect to 6 the terms and conditions of the proposed sale. Ultimately, the Debtors reached a deal with the Buyer 7 that conferred meaningful benefit on the Debtors' estates, including, but not limited to: (i) the 8 Buyer's assumption of certain paid-time-off obligations for employees terminated by the Debtors and 9 re-hired by the Buyer; (ii) satisfaction by the Buyer of all employee wage claims entitled to priority 10 under Bankruptcy Code section 507(a)(4); (iii) payment by the Buyer of all ordinary course 11 postpetition operating expenses; (iv) assumption of the Debtors' liability relating to unpaid 12 prepetition payroll taxes; and (v) assumption and/or payment by the Buyer of certain administrative 13 claims of the Debtors' professionals. In addition, the Debtors negotiated a requirement under the 14 Sale that the Buyer extend employment offers to at least seventy-seven (77) of the Debtors' 15 approximately 100 employees.

16 The Court approved the Sale by an order entered October 4, 2013 [Docket No. 222] 17 (the "Sale Order"). The Sale closed on October 7, 2013 [Docket No. 223]. As explained below, see 18 infra Section D, the Buyer has failed to perform certain obligations under the "Asset Purchase 19 Agreement" governing the Sale [Docket No. 214] (the "APA"), and the Debtors and their counsel 20 have communicated extensively to the Buyer and their counsel the need to resolve these issues.

21 D. The Principal Disputes or Problems Likely to be Encountered By the Debtors
22 During the Remainder of This Case, and the Debtors' Recommended 23 Resolutions to Such Disputes or Problems.

24 Prior to the closing of the Sale, the principal challenges faced by the Debtors related 25 to the Debtors' lack of funding absent the postpetition financing approved by the Court (the "DIP 26 Financing"), and issues related to the marketing and approval of a sale of substantially all of the 27 Debtors' assets. Now that the Sale has closed, and the costs associated with the operation of the 28 Debtors' business terminated, these problems no longer affect the Debtors' estates.

1 The Debtors are currently monitoring the Buyer's performance under the APA. As of 2 the date of this Status Report, the Buyer has failed to pay the following amounts to the Debtors' 3 professionals, which the APA explicitly requires under Schedule 2.3(f) to the APA: (i) the Buyer is 4 behind at least $28,333.32 on monthly payments to be made to the Debtors' chief restructuring 5 officer ("CRO"), Executive Sounding Board Associates, LLC ("ESBA"); (ii) the Buyer is behind at 6 least $20,833.33 on monthly payments to be made to the Debtors' reorganization counsel, Stutman 7 Treister & Glatt Professional Corporation ("ST&G");¹ and (iii) the Buyer owes Hilco between 8 $30,000 and $31,037.58. Moreover, the Debtors are aware of at least one counterparty to an 9 executory contract that has been assumed and assigned to the Buyer, Ultra Pure Solutions, Inc., 10 which has not received the cure payment owed by the Buyer.

11 The Buyer also failed to pay amounts owed to an ordinary course vendor of the 12 Debtors, Summit Reprographics, Inc. ("Summit"), for services rendered during these bankruptcy 13 cases, as required under the APA. So as to prevent Summit from having to bear the brunt of the 14 Buyer's failed performance, ST&G has paid $19,470.49 to Summit to satisfy its postpetition 15 invoices. ST&G has informed the Buyer's counsel that it seeks repayment from the Buyer for the 16 amount paid to Summit.

17 The Debtors' counsel has sent numerous emails to counsel for the Buyer requesting 18 that the Buyer perform its obligations under the APA and the Sale Order. The Debtors and their 19 counsel are also continuing to investigate whether any additional obligations of the Buyer under the 20 APA and Sale Order have gone unsatisfied. If the Buyer does not promptly satisfy all outstanding 21 obligations owed under the APA and Sale Order, the Debtors intend shortly to file a motion with the 22 Court seeking to compel the Buyer to satisfy all outstanding obligations under the Sale Order and the 23 APA.

24 As the Debtors sold substantially all of their assets to the Buyer, the Debtors do not 25 believe that a Chapter 11 reorganization plan would be feasible. The Debtors are continuing to 26

27 ¹ The Buyer will owe an additional $20,833.33 to ST&G and $14,166.66 to ESBA on January 31, 28 2014, one day after the scheduled Status Conference.

1 evaluate whether dismissal or conversion of this case to Chapter 7 would be in the best interests of 2 the stakeholders in these cases.

3 E. The Debtors' Compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and Applicable Guidelines
4 of the United States Trustee.

5 To date, the Debtors have been in substantial compliance with their obligations under 6 Bankruptcy Code sections 521, 1106, and 1107, and under the guidelines established by the Office 7 of the United States Trustee (the "US Trustee").

8 Specifically, the Debtors, on August 9, 2013, filed separate Schedules and Statements 9 of Financial Affairs. The Debtors have also satisfied all US Trustee guidelines. Specifically, the 10 Debtors have submitted separate 7-day packages, attended an initial debtor interview and their 11 meeting of creditors under Bankruptcy Code section 341(a), and are current on their Monthly 12 Operating Reports.

13 F. Parties Claiming an Interest in Cash Collateral of the Debtors, and the Debtors' 14 Use of Cash Collateral.

15 Prior to the closing of the Sale, Meserole, as the lender under the Meserole 16 Prepetition Loan Agreement, and Fuller Smith, as "DIP Agent" under the DIP Financing, asserted 17 priority liens against substantially all of the Debtors' assets, including cash collateral. As partial 18 consideration under the Sale, Meserole credit bid $19.75 million of the amount outstanding under 19 Meserole Prepetition Loan Agreement, and Fuller Smith credit bid $250,000 of the amount 20 outstanding under the DIP Financing. The Court approved a Sale of all "Acquired Assets," as that 21 term is defined in the APA, including the Debtors' cash and cash collateral, free and clear of all liens, 22 claims, and encumbrances under Bankruptcy Code section 363(f). Accordingly, the Debtors no 23 longer have any cash collateral to which any security interests attach.

24 G. The Debtors' Professionals.

25 As of the date of this Status Report, the Debtors have filed applications to employ the 26 following bankruptcy professionals under Bankruptcy Code section 327: (i) Stutman, Treister & 27 Glatt Professional Corporation ("ST&G") as their general reorganization counsel [Docket No. 51]
28 (the "ST&G Application"); (ii) Stubbs, Alderton & Markiles ("Stubbs") as their special corporate

1 counsel [Docket No. 84] (the "Stubbs Application"); and (iii) Hilco as their exclusive agent for 2 marketing a sale of the Debtors' assets [Docket No. 166] (the "Hilco Application").

3 The ST&G Application was approved by the Court through an order entered August 4 15, 2013 [Docket No. 126]. ST&G's services have included, among other things, representing and 5 advising the Debtors with respect all aspects of these cases, including issues relating to the DIP 6 Financing, use of cash collateral, executory contracts, claims and avoidance actions, and the Sale.

7 The Stubbs Application was approved by the Court through an order entered 8 August 22, 2013 [Docket No. 144]. Stubbs' services have included, among other things, providing 9 general corporate advice to the Debtors and their boards of directors, and analyzing and preparing 10 certain contracts or agreements of the Debtors as part of their governance and operations, as well as 11 the Sale.

12 The Hilco Application was approved by the Court through an order entered 13 September 25, 2013 [Docket No. 197]. Hilco's services have included, among other things, 14 overseeing and implementing the marketing of the Debtors' assets, and conferring with the Debtors 15 and their counsel as to such process.

16 On July 30, 2013, the Debtors filed a motion (the "ESBA Motion") under Bankruptcy 17 Code sections 105(a) and 363 seeking an order authorizing the employment of ESBA as the Debtors' 18 CRO. The Court held a hearing on the ESBA Motion on October 24, 2013. At this hearing, the 19 Court approved ESBA's employment under Bankruptcy Code section 327, rather than 105 and 363.
20 The Court entered an order approving ESBA's employment in these cases on November 18, 2013 21 [Docket No. 245]. ESBA's services have included managing the Debtors' day-to-day operations, and 22 providing advice and guidance to the Debtors' board of directors in the development of the Debtors' 23 restructuring options and cash requirements related thereto, as well as all aspects of the Sale.

24 H. Projected Income and Expenses for the First Six Months of the Case.

25 The Debtors submitted with the First Status Report a budget covering the Debtors' 26 projected cash flow for the period from July 27, 2013 through October 10, 2013. The Sale closed 27 prior to the outside date of this budget. Under the APA, the Buyer has assumed the costs of 28 operating the Debtors' business. Moreover, the Debtors are no longer generating any income

1 subsequent to the closing of the Sale. Accordingly, no additional budget is attached to this Status 2 Report.

3 I. The Claims Bar Date.

4 A deadline for creditors to file claims against the Debtors' estates has not been set in 5 these cases. As a result of a sale that did not produce cash for the Debtors' assets (as opposed to the 6 assumption of liabilities and release of claims), the Debtors did not receive consideration that might 7 be paid to unsecured creditors. Accordingly, the Debtors have deferred filing a motion to set a bar 8 date, while they evaluate whether to seek dismissal or conversion of these cases.

9 J. The Debtors' Plan and Disclosure Statement.

10 As of the date of this Status Report, the Debtors' exclusive periods to file and solicit a 11 Chapter 11 plan under Bankruptcy Code section 1121(c) have expired. As explained above, see 12 supra Section I, the Debtors do not intend to file a plan, and are evaluating whether to seek dismissal 13 or conversion.

14 K. Unexpired Leases and Executory Contracts.

15 On August 9, 2013, the Debtors filed their Schedules and Statement of Financial 16 Affairs. Included with these filings are the Debtors' separate Schedule G's, which list the Debtors' 17 known executory contracts and unexpired leases. Subsequent to the filing of the Debtors' Schedules, 18 the Debtors continued their investigation as to whether they were counterparties to any additional 19 executory contracts or unexpired leases. As part of the sale procedures approved by the Court, the 20 Debtors served on all known executory contract or unexpired lease counterparties a notice of the 21 Debtors' proposed cure amount for such contracts or leases. Under the APA, upon the closing of the 22 Sale, the Debtors assumed and assigned specific executory contracts and unexpired leases listed in 23 the Notice to Counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases That are Proposed to Be 24 Assumed and Assigned [Docket No. 194].

25 The Debtors do not have assets to satisfy their obligations under any executory 26 contracts or unexpired leases that were not assigned to the Buyer. Accordingly, the Debtors have 27 entered into stipulations with certain counterparties to executory contracts and unexpired leases 28 providing for the rejection of their respective contracts or leases. Three of such stipulations have been approved by order of the Court. On January 7, 2014, the Debtors filed a stipulation providing for the rejection of an unexpired lease of personal property between the Debtors and Leaf Funding, Inc. A proposed order approving this stipulation is pending before the Court.

The Debtors, on November 25, 2013, also filed a motion seeking entry of an order authorizing the Debtors to reject all other executory contracts and unexpired leases not assigned to the Buyer [Docket No. 251] (the "Rejection Motion"). The Rejection Motion was served on, among others, all counterparties to the contracts and leases that the Debtors seek to reject. No objections to the Rejection Motion were filed, and the Debtors lodged a proposed form of order on December 16, 2013 [Docket No. 253]. Entry of this order is pending.
