7 Addendum A to Exhibit A.

8 This is an long standing issue, that orginally involved employment with Globespan's French Subsidiary office in Santa

9 Clara, CA. Since, along there were a number of unique time-points that this issue could have been solved with 10 monetary settlements, but not only those times, but those allocated monies are now gone.

11 Later, Globspan was aquired by Conexant, and even later, Golden Gate Capital aquired Conexant.

12 Between February 2011 and April 2011, Conexant was put on the market for sale, Golden Gate Capital aquired it.

13 There were monies allocated to pay off and settle this long standing case, however once again, lawyers fundged

14 the books and the monies are gone and case is still not over.

15 During the Golden Gate Capital ownership, Conexant could have been sold for profit, and using that proceeds

16 to pay off the long standing debt, but instead, Golden Gate Capital in fact devalued Conexant and chose to file for

17 a Chapter 11 bankruptcy. This long standing case is one of the bankruptcy court claims, only to find out it was soon

18 reclassified and cornered into a lot of residual pool of monies. We ask this court to aid us in sorting out where have

19 all the monies allocated for this case have had gone-to. To accomplish this, We the plaintiff must Subpoena a few

20 key individuals. The complaint asks for monetary damage of $87MM + $87MM + $21MM = $195 Million. Trace

21 where this big sum of monies can be found with subpoena of records.

Re: Claimant's objections to, Plan: Case 13-10367-MFW Doc 287 Filed 06/06/13

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of the Court, Processing of claimants:

Upon our review of the said Re: Plan, the claimant addressed in this letter strongly objects to its classified category of its claim it is in. The following E-mail exchanges with Conexant's Council Mr. Gallagher and Golden Gate Capital's Mr. Lowin explores why the claim in question is a top priority debt that has to be resolved first, otherwise all other claimants' are invalid:

E-mail Excerpt A:

" When GGC acquired Cnxt, they must have promised to pay all debts, to have the acquisition completed. They held it for 2 yrs and devalue the company without finding a buyer and driven into bankruptcy. And there are still outstanding debts. I don't see how bankruptcy can save Conexant, if Golden Gate doesn't hold any interest ? in Conexant after the bankruptcy. Conexant has to be part of a bigger organization with cash to invest. -Jon "

E-mail Excerpt B:

" We have submitted a claim to court and the court has acknowledged that such debt exists however it may be classified into lower ranking debt that the court may not issue payments. The reason is that this debt was originated in a previous inflection point in finance when GGC acquired Conexant with promises to pay off the debts carried by Conexant. "

The claimant addressed ask the Court to halt the execution of current plan until the Golden Gate Capital , the current owner of the Conexant Inc. , to faithfully negotiate the payment of said claimant's claim and report the payment plan to the Court. Please allow GGC time to complete the court's request so the said claim can be paid via the court which Golden Gate Capital must remit payments.

The said claimant is in process of setting up of a corporation as following E-mail exchange with Conexant's Council Mr. Gallagher:

E-mail Excerpt C:

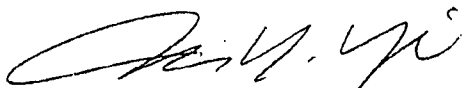

" Dennis, FYI, Articles of incorporation is being prepared to be filed with Secretary of State of CA. An estimated 30 days to be incorporated in State of CA if filed in person at the down town Los Angeles office. Subsequent IRS form 1023 filing with IRS will determine the types of 501 (c) (3) corporation. We are targeting a "non-operating private foundation." IRS may take up to 180 days for this determination and retro-effective to the date incorporated. IRS publication 4221-PF compliance with IRS form 990 filings are required. This incorporation set up will allow you folks to make pledges in monetary amount to be paid in a future dates "

E-mail Excerpt D:

"The articles of incorporation for 501 (c) (3) was filed today in person. We have put a special request of July 1st fiscal calendar start date, as the date of Incorporation. The Calif. Certified copies will arrive by mail. We have available the copies of what we've filed today, which can be mailed out to Conexant headquarter address on request."

To summarize, Golden Gate Capital have had failed to faithfully negotiate payment plan regards to the said addressed claimant's debt and their venture investing with Conexant has faltered in the past two plus years, and they are trying to wash their hands with Bankruptcy to clear this promised debt payment from acquisition agreements.

Sincerely,

Yi, Jonathan Y.

DEFINITIONS

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506 (a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien.

A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

INFORMATION

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.nsc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. 19 Howcome the Golden Gate acquisition price of $282.2 M didn't include the debt payment

20 to Soros? And what happened to all the cash that Conexant had at the time? There are 21 big chunk of missing sum of unaccounted dollars. These facts create a new case for

22 Conexant. The original employment case involving "character assassination" was solved

23 by the Conexant management but never executed the payment or if it did the

24 disbursement of payment never got to the intended party. There was a sale of business

25 division(s) and a land holdings, and where have all the the raised capital gone to?
