- [X] (BY MAIL) I caused such envelope(s) fully prepaid to be placed in the United States Mail at Irvine, California. - [ ] (BY FACSIMILE) I caused said document(s) to be telephonically transmitted to each addressee's telecopier (fax) number as noted.
- (BY ELECTRONIC MAIL) I caused said document(s) to be electronically transmitted to each addressee's e-mail address as noted.
- [ ] (BY HAND DELIVERY/PERSONAL SERVICE) I caused said document(s) to be personally delivered by a courier/attorney service to each addressee on the Service List.
- [ ] (BY CERTIFIED MAIL-RETURN/RECEIPT) I caused said document(s) to be mailed by Certified Mail-Return/Receipt to the offices of the addressee listed on the Service List.

Plaintiff Xin Fan and Defendants Conexant, Inc. and Conexant Systems, Inc. ("Defendants"), by and through their undersigned counsel of record, submit this Amended Joint Initial Case Management Conference Report in connection with the Conference set for November 14, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. The initial report was inadvertently submitted prematurely in error by Defendant.

I. OUTLINE OF CLAIMS.

This is a proposed wage and hour class action case that was filed on or about April 5, 2012. Plaintiff asserts five causes of action against Defendants, all based upon the allegation that Defendants misclassified certain employees holding various Engineer tittles as "exempt" and did not pay them overtime or provide meal periods as required by California law. Plaintiff alleges that this case is appropriate for class treatment because the putative class members are similarly situated and were damaged by common, systematic policies and practices of Defendants. The proposed Class is composed of Conexant Verification Engineers, Test Engineers, Digital Engineers, AMS Engineers, CAD Engineers, Software Engineers and Design Engineers in the positions "Engineer 1, Engineer 2, Staff Engineer and Senior Staff Engineer" who worked in California from April 5, 2008, to the present.

In the first cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 1194 by failing to pay the engineers overtime.

In the second cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 226.7 by failing to provide required meal periods to the engineers.

In the third cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 203 by failing to timely pay all wages due upon termination.

In the fifth cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the general public) alleges that Defendants committed unfair business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. by misclassifying the engineers as exempt and not paying them overtime or providing them with meal periods required by California law.

In response, Defendants, Plaintiff's former employer, contend that this matter is not suitable for class treatment. Defendants further contend that Plaintiff was appropriately classified as exempt from overtime. Defendants further contend that its engineers who are and 5 were classified as exempt are and were appropriately classified as exempt from overtime under the administrative, professional, computer professional, learned professional and/or outside sales exemptions. Defendants further contend that it complied with the applicable meal and rest period requirements.

There are no cross-claims in this action.

II.<sub>20</sub> RELATED LITIGATION PENDING IN OTHER COURTS.

The parties are not aware of any related litigation pending in other courts.

III<sub>22</sub> APPLICABILITY AND ENFORCEABILITY OF ARBITRATION

A. Defendants' Position.

Plaintiff is bound by a mutual and enforceable agreement to arbitrate, which encompasses the individual claims asserted by her in the Complaint. Plaintiff's counsel was provided with a copy of Plaintiff's arbitration agreement on April 30, 2012. To date, Plaintiff has refused to dismiss this action and proceed in the proper arbitration forum with her individual claims. [A copy of Plaintiff's executed arbitration agreement is attached as Exhibit A.]

Plaintiff's arbitration agreement requires her to arbitrate her individual claims and does not authorize classwide arbitration. (See Kinecta Alternative Financial Solutions, Inc. 71 Superior Court (2012) 205 Cal.App.4th 506, 509-510, 519 [when an arbitration agreement covers the claims of a class plaintiff but does not authorize class arbitration, the court should enter an order sending the plaintiff's individual claims to arbitration and "dismissing the class action allegations from the complaint").]

The very recent 2012 cases in this area, including the California Court of Appeal opinions in Kinecta Alternative Financial Solutions, Inc. v. Superior Court and Nelsen v. Leggev Partners Residential, Inc. (1st App. Dist., July 18, 2012) 207 Cal.App.4th 1115, 2012 Cal.App. LEXIS 821, at **23-30), provide Defendant with a clear and unmistakable mandate that this case must be sent to the American Arbitration Association for resolution.

In Kinecta, the appellate court determined that an arbitration agreement between an employer and an employee, which broadly covered "all disputes" arising from their employment relationship and did not facially "prohibit class arbitration," nonetheless did not authorize class arbitration because language in the agreement indicated that the parties

LAW OFFICES

Mallory & Natsis LLP

Contrary to Plaintiff's position stated below, the arbitration agreement is enforceable and does not limit discovery to two deposition per side. It permits discovery as contemplated by the Code of Civil Procedure and recites AAA Rule 9 which provides that the "arbitrator shall have the authority to order such additional discovery by way of deposition, interrogatory, document production, or otherwise, as the arbitrator considers necessary to a full and fair exploration of the issues in dispute." Plaintiff's Arbitration Agreement at II. "Discovery".

Courts have routinely held that Rule 9 permits adequate discovery. (Roman, 172 Cal.App.4th pp. 1476-1477 [quoting the rule, stating "[t]here appears to be no meaningful difference between the scope of discovery approved in Armendariz and that authorized by the AAA an ployment dispute rules, certainly not the role of the arbitrator in controlling the extent of actual discovery permitted"]; Lucas v. Gund (C.D. Cal. 2006) 450 F.Supp.2d 1125, 1133; see also Lagatree v. Luce Forward, Hamilton & Scripps (1999) 74 Cal.App.4th 1105, 1130 fn.

There is nothing improper about giving the arbitrator discretion over discovery.

Amendariz, 24 Cal.4th at p. 106.) In Dotson v. Amgen, Inc. (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 975, the court held that when, as here, an arbitrator has discretion over discovery, it cannot be assumed that the arbitrator will exercise that discretion in an unfair manner. "Indeed it is quite the oposite: We assume that the arbitrator will operate in a reasonable manner in conformity with the law." (Id. at p. 984.) In sum, Rule 9 applies here and it permits sufficient discovery.

agreed to arbitrate disputes between themselves, not between the employer and "employee groups" or "classes" to which the employee belonged. (Kinecta, 205 Cal.App.4th at pp. 509-511, 519.)

Similarly, in the even more recent July 2012 Nelsen case, the court determined that an arbitration agreement between an employer and an employee, which broadly covered "any claim, dispute, or controversy" arising from their employment relationship, did not authorize class arbitration because language in the arbitration agreement indicated that the parties agreed to arbitrate disputes "between them," but not "disputes between other employees or groups of employees." (Nelsen, 2012 Cal.App. LEXIS at **27-29.)

B. Plaintiff's Position.

Whether or not the arbitration agreement that Defendant references allows for class arbitration is immaterial because the agreement is invalid and therefore Plaintiff's claims must be litigated in this court, on a class-wide basis.

The arbitration agreement is titled "Prospective Employees" and was required to be signed by Plaintiff to be employed; indeed, the agreement explicitly states that "I understand that I am offered employment in consideration of my promise to arbitrate claims." Additionally, the agreement limits depositions to two per side and to "any expert witness designated by the other party." The agreement is also silent as to class actions; it contains no "class action ban."

While the prospective employee arbitration agreement states that arbitrations are to be conducted according to AAA rules, Plaintiff was not provided with a copy of those rules, at the time that she signed the agreement. This, coupled with the fact that the agreement was offered to employees on a "take it or leave it" basis as a condition of employment renders it procedurally unconscionable and unenforceable. Armendariz v. Foundation Health PsychcareServs., Inc., 24 Cal.4th 83, 114-115 (2000) ("in the case of preem ployment arbitration contracts, the economic pressure exerted by employers on all but 2 the most sought-after employees may be particularly acute, for the arbitration agreement stands between the employee and necessary employment, and few employees are 14 a position to refuse a job because of an arbitration requirement."); Mayers v. Volt Management, 203 Cal.App.4th 1194 (2012) (holding that arbitration agreement that was required as a condition of employment and stated that arbitrations were to follow AAA rules, without providing those rules, was procedurally unconscionable and invalid).

Moreover, the agreement is substantively unconscionable under Armendariz 24 Cal 4th 83 (2000), because of its limitations on depositions. See also Ferguson v. Countywide Credit Industries, Inc., 298 F.3d 778, 787 (9th Cir. Ca. 2002) (invalidating an arbitration agreement under Armendariz that limited each side to three depositions, finding "an insidious pattern" in the agreement highlighted by these discovery provisions which "appear to favor Countrywide at the expense of its employees.").

IV<sub>24</sub> STATUS OF THE CASE.

At the August 15, 2012 case management conference, the Court asked the parties to meet and confer regarding whether informal discovery was feasible in this case and asked that T laintiff target a date in April, 2013 for filing her motion for class certification. Defendant subsequently expressed the view that it was unlikely to respond to any discovery, formal or informal, "in light of our arbitration rights." Following further investigation of the case facts, Plaintiff sent an informal discovery request to Defendant on October 24, 2012 requesting 11 categories of documents to be provided within 30 days. Plaint ff also served formal discovery on Defendant the next day (a request for production of documents and set of special interrogatories), but offered Defendant 60 days to respond if Defendant would first respond to the informal discovery. Plaintiff proposed that dates be scheduled for PMK depositions in early January, 2013. Plaintiff asked Defendant if it would meet and confer regarding this proposal; Defendant did not respond. Plaintiff again emailed Defendant on November 1, 2012 requesting times for a meet and confer conference to discuss the discovery and Defendant did not respond.

Plaintiff Xin Fan and Defendants Conexant, Inc. and Conexant Systems, Inc. ("Defendants"), by and through their undersigned counsel of record, submit this Joint Initial Case Management Conference Report in connection with the Conference set for November 14, 2012 at 9:00 a.m.

I. OUTLINE OF CLAIMS.

This is a proposed wage and hour class action case that was filed on or about April 5, 2012. Plaintiff asserts five causes of action against Defendants, all based upon the allegation that Defendants misclassified certain employees holding various Engineer titles as "exempt" and did not pay them overtime or provide meal periods as required by California law.

In the first cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of himself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 1194 by failing to pay the engineers overtime.

In the second causes of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 226.7 by failing to provide the required meal periods to the engineers.

In the third cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 203 by failing to timely pay all wages due upon termination.

In the fourth cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the purported class) alleges that Defendants violated Labor Code section 226 by knowingly and intentionally failing to provide the required itemized wage statements to the engineers and also failing to maintain accurate records of the hours worked by the engineers.

In the fifth cause of action, Plaintiff (on behalf of herself and the general public) alleges that Defendants committed unfair business practices in violation of California Business and Professions Code section 17200 et seq. by misclassifying the engineers as exempt and not paying them overtime or providing them with meal periods required by California law.

968811.02/OC JOINT STATUS CONFERENCE REPORT

In response, Defendants, Plaintiff's former employer, contends that this matter is not suitable for class treatment. Defendants further contend that Plaintiff was appropriately classified as exempt from overtime. Defendants further contend that its engineers who are and were classified as exempt are and were appropriately classified as exempt from overtime under the administrative, professional, computer professional, learned professional and/or outside sales exemptions. Defendants further contend that it complied with the applicable meal and rest period requirements.

There are no cross-claims in this action.

II. RELATED LITIGATION PENDING IN OTHER COURTS.

The parties are not aware of any related litigation pending in other courts.

III. APPLICABILITY AND ENFORCEABILITY OF ARBITRATION CLAUSES.

A. Defendants' Position.

Plaintiff is bound by a mutual and enforceable agreement to arbitrate, which encompasses the individual claims asserted by her in the Complaint. Plaintiff's counsel was provided with a copy of Plaintiff's arbitration agreement on April 30, 2012. To date, Plaintiff has refused to dismiss this action and proceed in the proper arbitration forum with her individual claims. [A copy of Plaintiff's executed arbitration agreement is attached as

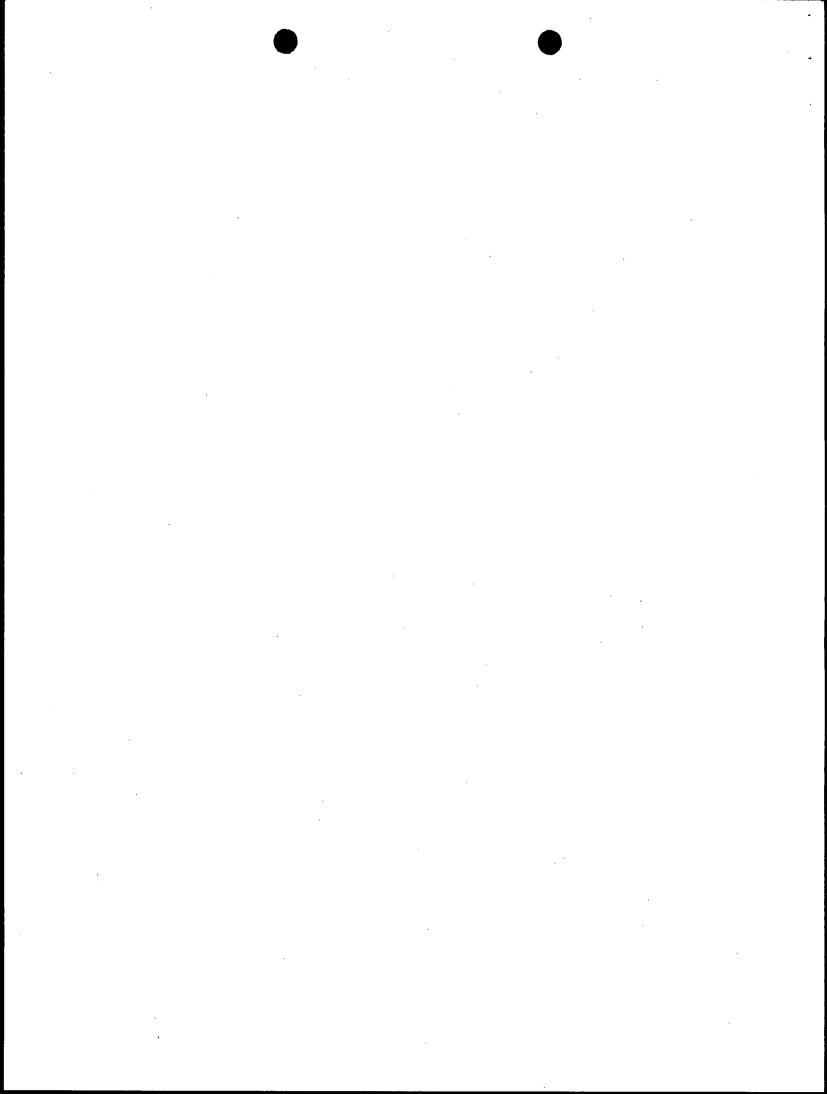

Contrary to Plaintiff's position stated below, the arbitration agreement is enforceable and does not limit discovery to two deposition per side. It permits discovery as contemplated by the Code of Civil Procedure and recites AAA Rule 9 which provides that the "arbitrator shall have the authority to order such additional discovery by way of deposition, interrogatory, document production, or otherwise, as the arbitrator considers necessary to a full and fair exploration of the issues in dispute." Plaintiff's Arbitration Agreement at II. "Discovery".

Courts have routinely held that Rule 9 permits adequate discovery. (Raman 172 Cal App 4th Courts have routinely held that Rule 9 permits adequate discovery. (Roman, 172 Cal.App.4th at pp. 1476-1477 [quoting the rule, stating "[t]here appears to be no meaningful difference between the scope of discovery approved in Armendariz and that authorized by the AAA employment dispute rules, certainly not the role of the arbitrator in controlling the extent of actual discovery permitted"]; Lucas v. Gund (C.D. Cal. 2006) 450 F.Supp.2d 1125, 1133; see also Lagatree v. Luce Forward, Hamilton & Scripps (1999) 74 Cal.App.4th 1105, 1130 fn. 21.) There is nothing improper about giving the arbitrator discretion over discovery. (Armendariz, 24 Cal.4th at p. 106.) In Dotson v. Amgen, Inc. (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 975, the court held that when, as here, an arbitrator has discretion over discovery, it cannot be assumed that the arbitrator will exercise that discretion in an unfair manner. "Indeed it is quite the opposite: We assume that the arbitrator will operate in a reasonable manner in conformity with LAW OFFICES Allen Matkins Leck Gamble Mallory & Natsis LLP the law." (Id. at p. 984.) In sum, Rule 9 applies here and it permits sufficient discovery.

Exhibit A.]

Plaintiffs arbitration agreement requires her to arbitrate her individual claims and does not authorize classwide arbitration. (See Kinecta Alternative Financial Solutions, Inc. v. Superior Court (2012) 205 Cal.App.4th 506, 509-510, 519 [when an arbitration agreement covers the claims of a class plaintiff but does not authorize class arbitration, the court should enter an order sending the plaintiffs individual claims to arbitration and "dismissing the class action allegations from the complaint").]

The very recent 2012 cases in this area, including the California Court of Appeal opinions in Kinecta Alternative Financial Solutions, Inc. v. Superior Court and Nelsen v. Legacy Partners Residential, Inc. (1st App. Dist., July 18, 2012) 207 Cal.App.4th 1115, 2012 Cal.App. LEXIS 821, at **23-30), provide Defendant with a clear and unmistakable mandate that this case must be sent to the American Arbitration Association for resolution.

In Kinecta, the appellate court determined that an arbitration agreement between an employer and an employee, which broadly covered "all disputes" arising from their employment relationship and did not facially "prohibit class arbitration," nonetheless did not authorize class arbitration because language in the agreement indicated that the parties agreed to arbitrate disputes between themselves, not between the employer and "employee groups" or "classes" to which the employee belonged. (Kinecta, 205 Cal.App.4th at pp. 509-511, 519.)

Similarly, in the even more recent July 2012 Nelsen case, the court determined that an arbitration agreement between an employer and an employee, which broadly covered "any claim, dispute, or controversy" arising from their employment relationship, did not authorize class arbitration because language in the arbitration agreement indicated that the parties agreed to arbitrate disputes "between them," but not "disputes between other employees or groups of employees." (Nelsen, 2012 Cal.App. LEXIS at **27-29.)<sup>2</sup>

The California Supreme Court denied review in Kinecta on July 11, 2012. (See 2012 Cal. LEXIS 6606.), and subsequently denied review in Nelson on October 31, 2012.

The Kinecta and Nelson decisions do not stand alone. Other courts have followed suit: "Courts may not order arbitration of class claims unless the parties expressly agree to class arbitration [citation] and parties rarely, if ever, agree to this because it lacks the benefits that motivate parties to agree to individual or bilateral arbitration." (Caron v. Mercedes-Benz Financial Services USA LLC (4th App. Dist., June 29, 2012), Cal.App.4th ___, 2012 Cal.App. LEXIS 848, at *27; accord Jasso v. Money Mart Express. Inc. (N.D. Cal. Apr. 13, 2012) __ F.Supp.2d __, 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 52538, at *26 ["the FAA requires not just compelling arbitration, but compelling arbitration on an individual basis in the absence of a clear agreement to proceed on a class basis"].)

В. Plaintiff's Position.

Whether or not the arbitration agreement that Defendant references allows for class arbitration is immaterial because the agreement is invalid and therefore Plaintiff's claims must be litigated in this court, on a class-wide basis.

The arbitration agreement is titled "Prospective Employees" and was required to be signed by Plaintiff to be employed; indeed, the agreement explicitly states that "I understand that I am offered employment in consideration of my promise to arbitrate claims." Additionally, the agreement limits depositions to two per side and to "any expert witness designated by the other party." The agreement is also silent as to class actions; it contains no "class action ban."

While the prospective employee arbitration agreement states that arbitrations are to be conducted according to AAA rules, Plaintiff was not provided with a copy of those rules at the time that she signed the agreement. This, coupled with the fact that the agreement was offered to employees on a "take it or leave it" basis as a condition of employment renders it procedurally unconscionable and unenforceable. Armendariz v. Foundation Health PsychcareServs., Inc., 24 Cal.4th 83, 114-115 (2000) ("in the case of preemployment arbitration contracts, the economic pressure exerted by employers on all but the most sought-after employees may be particularly acute, for the arbitration agreement stands between the employee and necessary employment, and few employees are in a position to refuse a job because of an arbitration requirement."); Mayers v. Volt Management, 203 Cal.App.4th 1194 (2012) (holding that arbitration agreement that was required as a condition of employment and stated that arbitrations were to follow AAA rules, without providing those rules, was procedurally unconscionable and invalid).

Moreover, the agreement is substantively unconscionable under Armendariz 24 Cal.4th 83 (2000), because of its limitations on depositions. See also Ferguson v. Countrywide Credit Industries, Inc., 298 F.3d 778, 787 (9th Cir. Ca. 2002) (invalidating an arbitration agreement under Armendariz that limited each side to three depositions, finding "an insidious pattern" in the agreement highlighted by these discovery provisions which "appear to favor Countrywide at the expense of its employees.").

IV. STATUS OF THE CASE.

At the August 15, 2012 case management conference, the Court asked the parties to meet and confer regarding whether informal discovery was feasible in this case and asked that Plaintiff target a date in April, 2013 for filing her motion for class certification. Defendant subsequently expressed the view that it was unlikely to respond to any discovery, formal or informal, "in light of our arbitration rights." Following further investigation of the case facts, Plaintiff sent an informal discovery request to Defendant on October 24, 2012 requesting 11 categories of documents to be provided within 30 days. Plaintiff also served formal discovery on Defendant the next day (a request for production of documents and set of special interrogatories), but offered Defendant 60 days to respond if Defendant would first respond to the informal discovery. Plaintiff proposed that dates be scheduled for PMK depositions in early January, 2013. Plaintiff asked Defendant if it

MUTUAL AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE CLAIMS

Prospective Employees

In recognition of the fact that differences may arise between Conexant Systems, Inc. (the "Company") and the undersigned (the "Employee") arising out of or relating to the Employee's employment with the Company or the termination of that employment, and in recognition of the fact that resolution of any differences in the courts is rarely timely or cost effective for either party, the Company and the Employee have entered into this Mutual Agreement to Arbitrate Claims (the "Agreement") in order to establish and gain the benefits of a speedy, impartial and cost-effective dispute resolution procedure.

I understand that any reference in this Agreement to the Company also refers to all subsidiary and affiliated entities, as well as all successors and assigns of any of them. It also includes all benefit plans, the benefit plans' sponsors, fiduciaries, administrators, affiliates, and all successors and assigns of any of them.

1. Agreement to Arbitrate

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Company and the Employee hereby consent to the resolution by arbitration of any and all claims or controversies for which a court otherwise would be authorized by law to grant relief, in any way arising out of, relating to or associated with the Employee's employment with the Company, or its termination ("Claims"), that the Company may have against the Employee or that the Employee may have against the Company or against its officers, directors, employees or agents in their capacity as such or otherwise. The Claims covered by this Agreement include, but are not limited to, claims for wages or other compensation due; claims for breach of any contract or covenant, express or implied; tort claims; claims for discrimination, including but not limited to discrimination based on race, sex, religion, national origin, age, marital status, handicap, disability or medical condition; claims for benefits, except as excluded in the following paragraph; and claims for violation of any federal, state or other governmental constitution, statute, ordinance or regulation (as originally enacted or amended) including but not limited to claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII"), the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FSLA"), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"), the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA"), any applicable state equal opportunity laws including fair employment laws, any applicable state family rights and medical leave laws, and any applicable state labor or civil code provisions including wage-hour laws.

Claims Not Covered by This Agreement

This Agreement does not apply to or cover claims for workers' compensation benefits or compensation; claims for unemployment compensation benefits; and claims based upon an employee pension or benefit plan the terms of which contain an arbitration or other non-judicial dispute resolution procedure, in which such case the provisions of such plan shall apply.

Initials: F. X.

3. Arbitration Procedures

The arbitration required by this Agreement shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures specified in the attached document entitled "Arbitration Procedure," which is incorporated herein by reference and which the Employee acknowledges having received and read prior to signing this Agreement.

4. Consideration

Each party's promise to resolve Claims by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, rather than through the courts, is consideration for the other party's like promise. In addition, I understand that I am offered employment in consideration of my promise to arbitrate claims.

5. Term, Modification and Revocation

This Agreement shall survive the employer-employee relationship between the Company and the Employee and shall apply to any Claim whether it arises or is asserted during or after termination of the Employee's employment with the Company. This Agreement can be modified or revoked only by a writing signed by both parties that references this Agreement and specifically states an intent to modify or revoke this Agreement.

6. Construction and Enforceability

Any issue or dispute concerning the formation, applicability, interpretation, or enforceability of this Agreement, including any claim or contention that all or any part of this Agreement is void or voidable, shall be subject to arbitration as provided herein. The arbitrator, and not any federal, state or local court or agency shall have authority to decide any such issue or dispute.

The decision of an arbitrator on any such issue or dispute, as well as on any Claim submitted to arbitration as provided in this Agreement, shall be final and binding upon the parties.

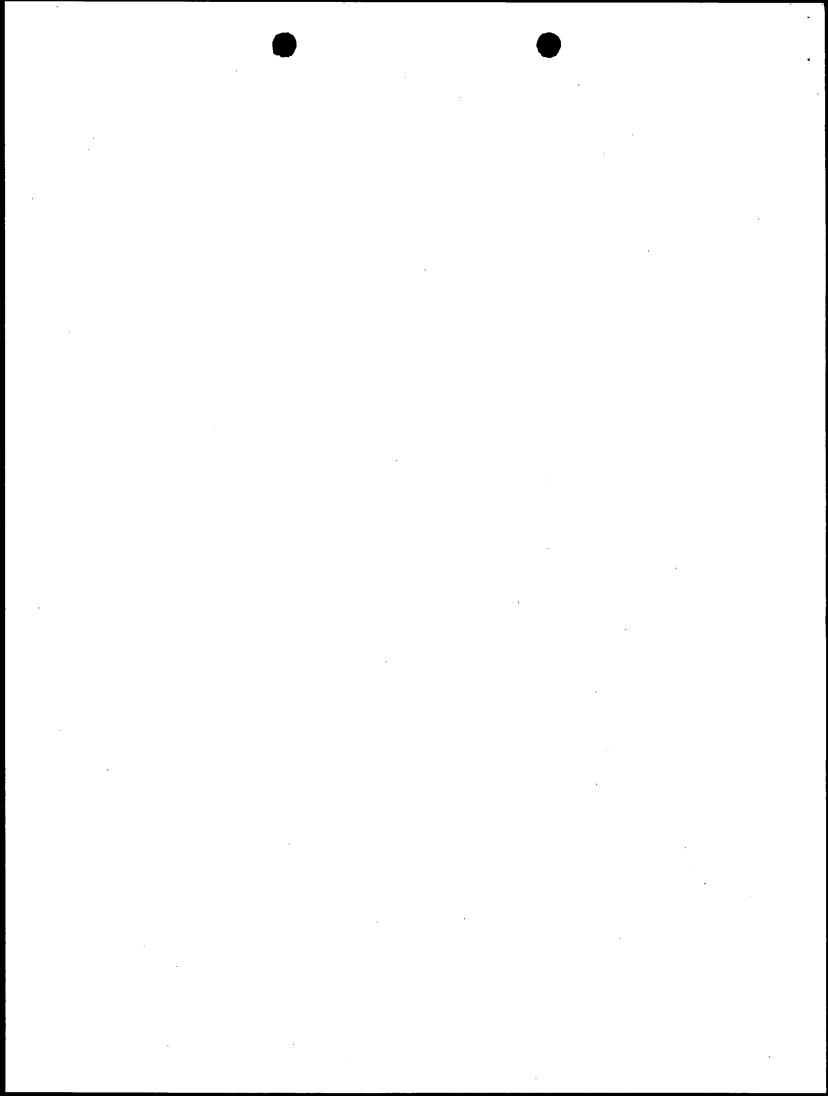

If any provision of this Agreement is adjudged to be void or otherwise unenforceable, in whole or in part, such adjudication shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the Agreement.

Either party may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to compel arbitration under this Agreement and to enforce an arbitration award. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, both the Company and the Employee agree that neither party shall initiate or prosecute any lawsuit or administrative action (other than an administrative charge to the applicable state equal employment or fair employment commission or agency or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission) which relates in any way to the Claims covered by this Agreement.

7. Not an Employment Agreement

This Agreement is not, and shall not be construed to create, any contract of employment, express or implied.

Initials:	F.	χ.

8. Sole and Entire Agreement

This is the complete agreement of the parties on the subject of arbitration of disputes, except as set forth in Section 2. This Agreement supersedes any prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreement or understanding on the subject. In executing this Agreement, neither party is relying on any representation, oral or written, on the subject of the effect, enforceability or meaning of this Agreement, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE HAS CAREFULLY READ THIS AGREEMENT AND THE ATTACHED ARBITRATION PROCEDURE, THAT HE OR SHE UNDERSTANDS ITS TERMS INCLUDING THAT EMPLOYEE IS WAIVING HIS OR HER RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL, THAT ALL UNDERSTANDINGS BETWEEN THE EMPLOYEE AND CONEXANT RELATING TO THE SUBJECTS COVERED IN THIS AGREEMENT ARE CONTAINED IN IT, AND THAT HE OR SHE HAS ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT VOLUNTARILY AND NOT IN RELIANCE ON ANY PROMISES OR REPRESENTATIONS BY CONEXANT OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT ITSELF.

EMPLOYEE FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE OR SHE HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS THIS AGREEMENT WITH HIS OR HER PERSONAL LEGAL COUNSEL AND HAS USED THAT OPPORTUNITY TO THE EXTENT HE OR SHE WISHES TO DO SO.

ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

I. REQUIRED NOTICE OF ALL CLAIMS

The aggrieved party must give written notice of any claim to the other party. Written notice to the Company, or its officers, directors, employees or agents, shall be sent to:

Conexant Systems, Inc.
4311 Jamboree Road
Newport Beach, CA 92660
Attn: Employee Relations Department
With a copy to: Legal Department

(or at such other address as the Company may designate in writing). The employee will be given written notice at the last address recorded in the employee's personnel file.

The written notice shall identify and describe the nature of all claims asserted, the Employees intent to invoke the Mutual Agreement to Arbitrate Claims, and the facts upon which such claims are based. The notice shall be sent to the other party by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. For purposes of the statute of limitations, the date of mailing the written notice, which must state the Employees intent to invoke this Mutual Agreement to Arbitrate Claims, shall be considered the filing date.

II. DISCOVERY

"Discovery" is the term used to describe the ways each party can find out relevant information from the other party. Under the arbitration procedure, "discovery" will consist of the following: Each party shall have the right to take the deposition of two individuals and any expert witness designated by another party. Each party also shall have the opportunity to obtain documents from the other side through "requests for production of documents." The parties may also subpoena witnesses and documents from third parties. The arbitrator shall have the authority to order such additional discovery by way of deposition, interrogatory, document production, or otherwise, as the arbitrator considers necessary to a full and fair exploration of the issues in dispute.

III. DESIGNATION OF WITNESSES

At least 30 days before the arbitration, the parties must exchange lists of witnesses, including any expert, and copies of all exhibits which are intended to be used at the arbitration.

IV. ARBITRATION PROCESS - EMPLOYEES IN THE UNITED STATES

Except as otherwise provided in this document, any arbitration shall be in accordance with the procedures of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in effect at the time written notice of the claim is given. The AAA is an arbitration organization in the United States. The arbitration shall take place in or near the city in which the employee is or was last employed by the Company; however, if the employee is or was last employed on a long or short term domestic or foreign assignment, the arbitration shall take place at or near the Employees home business unit.

* The arbitrator shall be selected as follows:

- A. The AAA will send a list of arbitrators, along with their resumes and fee schedules, to the Company and to the Employee. Each party may reject any or all of the arbitrators on the list. The AAA then assigns an arbitrator from among those acceptable to both parties. If there is no mutually acceptable arbitrator on the first list, the AAA will send a second list, from which each party again may delete any unacceptable arbitrator. If there is no mutually acceptable arbitrator on that list either, the AAA will send out a third list, where the parties will alternately strike names until only one arbitrator is left.
- B. The arbitrator shall apply the substantive law (and the law of remedies, if applicable) of the state in which the claim arose, or federal law, or both, as applicable to the claim(s) asserted. The arbitrator shall apply the rules of evidence in accordance with the rules then in effect with AAA.
- C. The arbitrator shall have authority to hear and rule on a motion to dismiss and/or a motion for summary judgment by any party and shall apply the standards governing such motions under the AAA procedural rules in effect at the time of the arbitration.
- D. Either party, at its expense, may arrange for and pay the cost of a court reporter to provide a stenographic record of proceedings. The other party may obtain a copy of the record by paying the reporter's normal fee for it.
- E. Either party, upon request at the close of hearing, shall be allowed to file a post-hearing brief. The time for filing such a brief shall be set by the arbitrator.
- F. The Arbitrator shall render an award and written opinion to both parties.

VI. ARBITRATION FEES AND COSTS

The Company will pay the arbitrators fees and any other expenses unique to arbitration, including such fees as rental of a room to hold the arbitration hearing.

Each party shall pay for its, his or her own other expenses associated with the arbitration process and attorneys' fees, if any. However, if any party prevails on a statutory claim which entitles the prevailing party to attorneys' fees and/or costs, or if there is a written agreement providing for fees and/or costs, the arbitrator may award reasonable fees and/or costs to the prevailing party in accordance with such statute or agreement.

VII. ARBITRATION PROCESS - EMPLOYEES IN OTHER COUNTRIES

For claims asserted in the United States, the arbitration process will be that set forth in this document.

For claims asserted in another country where AAA services are available, the arbitration process will be that provided by AAA in that country. For claims asserted in a country where AAA services are not available, the services of an arbitration association affiliated with AAA will be utilized and the arbitration process will be that provided by the affiliated arbitration association. In either case, the arbitration process and implementing procedures will conform as closely as possible, consistent with applicable law and the associations rules and procedures, to the process and procedures described in this document.

1	2. Defendants assert the additional affirmative defenses set forth below. In

5	FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
6	3. The Complaint, and each cause of action set forth therein, fails to state facts
7	sufficient to constitute a cause of action against Defendants.
8	SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
9	4. The Complaint, and each cause of action set forth therein, fails to state facts
10	sufficient to constitute a class action against Defendants because, among other reasons,
11	Plaintiff: (1) lacks the capacity to sue as a representative of the purported class, or is
12	otherwise an inadequate class representative; (2) cannot establish commonality of claims;
13	(3) cannot satisfy typicality of claims; (4) cannot establish numerosity of class members;
14	and/or (5) the individualized nature of Plaintiff's claims makes class treatment
15	inappropriate.
16	THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
17	5. Class treatment is not appropriate for Plaintiff's claims because resolution of
18	Plaintiff's claims will require individualized inquiries of each putative class member's
. 19	factual circumstances.
20	FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
21	6. Plaintiff cannot maintain class claims because Plaintiff lacks standing to
22	assert claims for relief as an individual, or on behalf of any purported class, due to
23	Plaintiff's material and substantial conflicts with the class Plaintiff purports to represent.

2	questions affecting the purported class; and a class action is not superior to other available

4	SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
5	8. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff and/or the
6	members of the purported class he seeks to represent were and are provided meal periods
7	in accordance with California law.
. 8	SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
9	9. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because meal periods were

DEFENDANTS'	ANSWER TO CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole, or in part, by the doctrine of laches, 13. avoidable consequences, unjust enrichment, and/or unclean hands.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

14. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations, including, but not limited to, California Code of Civil Procedure sections 338(a), 339(1) and 340(a), California Business and Professions Code section 17208 and Labor Code section 2699(e)(1).

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

15. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants acted at all times in good faith with honest intentions and had no actual or constructive notice of a potential violation of California Labor laws.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants allege that any claim for statutory penalties under California 16. Labor Code § 203, or otherwise, must fail because any nonpayment of wages alleged in the Complaint was not willful.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims under California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et 17. seq., are barred because Plaintiff have an adequate remedy at law.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18. Defendants allege that a class action of the claims alleged in the Complaint would violate due process under the United States and California Constitutions.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

19. Plaintiff's claims violate Defendants' rights under the United States and California Constitutions by attempting to enforce California Business and Professions Code § 17200, et seq., in a manner that renders the requirements of those statutes and provisions unconstitutionally vague.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 1 Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiff failed to 2 20. arbitrate her claims. NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 4 21. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because California Labor Code § 226.7 and the applicable Wage Order of the California Industrial Welfare Commission are unconstitutionally vague, and the penalty provisions therein violate due 8 process. 9 TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE 22. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiff and/or 10 the members of the alleged putative class he seeks to represent have released Defendants 11 from any claims he/she may have against it. 12 WHEREFORE, Defendants request judgment as follows: 13 14 1. That Plaintiff take nothing by reason of her Complaint; That Plaintiff's Complaint be dismissed with prejudice in its entirety; 2. 15 That Defendants be awarded their costs of suit: 3. 16 17 4. That Defendants be awarded their reasonable attorneys' fees, including, but not limited to, under California Labor Code section 218.5; and 18 5. Plaintiff Xin Fan hereby submits the following Initial Case Management Conference

Statement in connection with the Initial Case Management Conference set for 9:00 a.m. on June 12, 2012, in Department CX-101 of the Orange County Civil Complex Center, before the Hon. Gail A.

Andler:

- 1. Plaintiff is represented by Roger R. Carter of The Carter Law Firm; Scott B. Cooper of The Cooper Law Firm, P.C.; and Marc H. Phelps of The Phelps Law Group. Although Plaintiff has not yet served the Summons and Complaint, Stephen J. Kepler of Allen Matkins LLP has indicated to Plaintiff's counsel that he represents Defendants Conexant, Inc. and Conexant Systems, Inc. The reasons for the delay in serving the Complaint are discussed below.
- 2. Plaintiff brought this case on behalf of a putative class of Conexant Verification Engineers, Test Engineers, Digital Engineers, AMS Engineers, CAD Engineers, Software Engineers and Design Engineers in the positions "Engineer 1, Engineer 2, Staff Engineer and Senior Staff Engineer" who worked in California from April 5, 2008, to the present. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants misclassified these employees as exempt from overtime, thereby requiring them to work hours for which they were not properly compensated, and failed to provide them with meal and rest periods that were required by California law. Plaintiff also alleges derivative claims for failure to pay all wages due upon termination, failure to provide accurate wage statements, and unfair competition. Plaintiff further alleges that this case is appropriate for class treatment because the putative class members are similarly situated and were damaged by common, systematic policies and practices of Defendants.
- 3. Shortly after the filing of the Complaint (but before it was served), counsel for Defendants contacted Plaintiff's counsel to discuss issues that Defendants believe directly affect the viability of the case. To that end, Defendant subsequently produced documents containing the information pertaining to the viability of Plaintiff's claims. Plaintiff's counsel is currently in the process of evaluating that information and making a decision on how to proceed with the case. Plaintiff has elected to not yet serve the complaint pending the result of her decision regarding how to proceed.

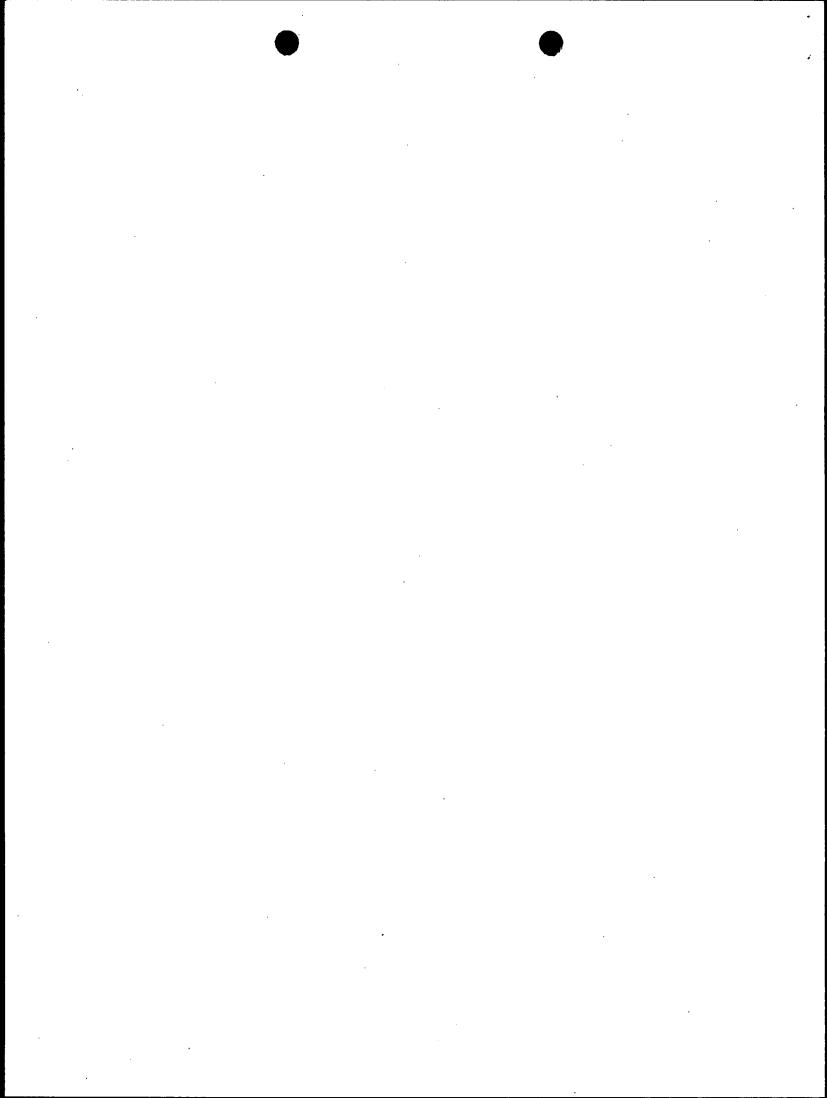

4. The parties respectfully request that the Court set a Further Status Conference in approximately sixty days in order to give Plaintiff's counsel ample time to complete their review of this information and make a decision on how to proceed with the case.

1	(c) "Designating Party" shall mean the Party or non-party
2	designating a document, information, or testimony as "Confidential" or "Highly
3	Confidential."
4	(d) "Receiving Party" shall mean the Party or non-party who
5	receives a document, information, or testimony designated as "Confidential" or "Highly
6	Confidential."
7	STIPULATED TERMS
8	2. This Stipulation shall govern the use and dissemination of materials
9	designated as either "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" pursuant to Paragraph 4 and
10	Paragraph 5 below, respectively, during the course of this Litigation. The terms of this
11	Stipulated Protective Order shall also govern all information or documents previously
12	exchanged that are appropriately designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" as
13	well as discovery items (documents, interrogatory answers, responses to requests for
14	admissions, depositions, and exhibits) to the extent such items qualify for protection under
15	the terms of this Stipulation (collectively, "Material").
16	3. All Material exchanged between and among the Parties during the
17	course of this Litigation shall be used exclusively for the purposes of evaluating and
18	litigating claims asserted in this Litigation ("Permissible Uses") and shall not be disclosed
19	to any other person or entity except in accordance with the terms hereof.
20	4. Any Party or non-party may designate any Material produced by that
21	Party or non-party as "Confidential" where he, she, or it believes in good faith that such
22	Material may contain (i) confidential business, financial, personal, or commercial
23	information or competitively-sensitive information not customarily disclosed to the general
24	public; or (ii) any non-party documents, testimony, or information or other things that the
25	non-party maintains as confidential, seeks to maintain as confidential for the purposes of
26	this Litigation, and the disclosure of which may have the effect of causing harm to the non-
27	party from which the documents, testimony, or information was obtained. "Confidential"
28	information may consist of, without limitation, (i) testimony given in this Litigation by any Party or by any non-party (whether oral or written); (ii) documents produced in this Litigation by any Party or by any non-party; (iii) written discovery responses given by any Party; (iv) any documents or pleadings filed with the Court which attach, contain, or disclose any such confidential information; and (v) the information contained within such documents, testimony, or discovery responses so properly designated.

- 5. Any Party or non-party may designate any Material produced by that Party or non-party as "Highly Confidential" where he, she, or it believes in good faith that such Material is extraordinarily sensitive. Material designated as "Highly Confidential" may include, but is not limited to, documents relating to current and future business plans and the way that Party does business. The "Highly Confidential" designation is a subset of the "Confidential" designation -- as set forth in Paragraph 4 above -- and accordingly, all provisions of this Stipulation relating to "Confidential" Material, as well as references to "Confidential" Material, shall apply equally to "Highly Confidential" Material, except that disclosure and use of "Highly Confidential" Material is subject to the limitations set forth in Paragraph 12 below.
- 6. "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" Material shall not include any information that (i) is already public knowledge or otherwise in the public domain; (ii) has become public knowledge or enters the public domain other than as a result of a disclosure in violation of this Stipulation; or (iii) has come or shall come into a Receiving Party's legitimate possession from sources other than the Designating Party and other than the result of a breach of a confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement.
- 7. The designation of "Confidential" Material or "Highly Confidential" Material shall be made in the following manner:
- (a) In the case of documents or other written materials (apart from transcripts of depositions or other pre-trial testimony): by affixing (without obscuring or defacing the document) the legend "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" to each page containing such Material, or by otherwise indicating via cover letter or other written communication by the Designating Party that the Material is to be designated as any exhibits introduced or discussed during such deposition or other pretrial testimony: by written notice, sent by counsel for the Designating Party to all other Parties (and, if applicable, non-parties) within fifteen (15) days after receiving a copy of the transcript thereof, listing the specific pages and lines of the transcript that should be treated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential." If such designation is made, the court reporter (if the court reporter has custody of any original or certified copies of the transcript) or the party in custody of the transcript shall be directed to place a notation on the cover of the transcript indicating that the transcript contains confidential material, and such notation shall be affixed to each copy of the transcript in the possession, custody or control of the Parties and non-parties to the Litigation who are permitted access to such Material pursuant to this Stipulation. If a Party claims that a deposition exhibit is "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," the parties shall meet and confer about the specific information contained therein which is designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," and the Party marking the document as an exhibit shall have the opportunity to submit a redacted document, if possible, so as to avoid such a designation. All depositions and other pre-trial testimony shall be treated as "Confidential" in their entirety, and shall not be submitted to any court except as provided herein, until the expiration of the final date for giving written notice of confidentiality as provided in this paragraph unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties or ordered by the Court.

If, at any time after producing any Material, the Designating Party determines that certain Material should have been designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," the Designating Party shall promptly provide to the Party or Parties to whom that document or information was produced a replacement copy of the Material bearing a "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" legend. In the case of Material produced electronically, the Designating Party shall clearly identify which specific document or information should have been designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," at which time the Material will be deemed to be so designated.

- (a) The other Parties shall promptly return the undesignated Material (and all copies thereof) to the Designating Party after receiving the replacement Material, unless such undesignated Material was previously incorporated into court filings.
- (b) In the event that the Material subsequently designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" has been previously incorporated into a court filing, the portion of the court filing incorporating such Material need not be returned but shall be designated accordingly or otherwise placed under seal in accordance with this Stipulation.
- 9. Nothing in this Stipulation shall require disclosure of information that is protected by the attorney-client privilege or work-product immunity or other applicable protection.
- (a) Inadvertent production of any document or thing which any Party later discovers should not have been produced because of a privilege or immunity shall not, by itself, be deemed to waive any such privilege or immunity.
- document or documents, request the return of that document or those documents. Upon any Party's request, the possessing party shall, within three days, (i) return the document(s) and all copies thereof to the Party making the inadvertently production, and (ii) expunge from any other document the information derived from the inadvertently produced document(s); provided that the Requesting Party informs the Party what should be expunged.
- 10. A Party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a designation of Material as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" at the time the designation is made, and such a failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto.

NEW PROCEDURES for EXPEDITED JURY TRIALS IN CIVIL CASES are available, effective January 3, 2011.

A Judicial Council Information Sheet is attached to your complaint.

Specific details about the new procedure can be found in California Code of Civil Procedure commencing with Section 630.01 and California Rules of Court, rules 3.1545 through 3.1552. If applicable, notify the court at your first Case Management Conference.

EJT-010-INFO

Expedited Jury Trial Information Sheet

This information sheet is for anyone involved in a civil lawsuit who is considering taking part in an expedited jury trial—a trial that is shorter and has a smaller jury than a traditional jury trial. Taking part in this type of trial means you give up your usual rights to appeal. Please read this information sheet before you agree to have your case tried under the expedited jury trial procedures.

This information sheet does not cover everything you may need to know about expedited jury trials. It only gives you an overview of the process and how it may affect your rights. You should discuss all the points covered here and any questions you have about expedited jury trials with your attorney. If you do not have an attorney, you should consult with one before agreeing to an expedited jury trial.

(1) What is an expedited jury trial?

An expedited jury trial is a short trial, generally lasting only one day. It is intended to be quicker and less expensive than a traditional jury trial.

As in a traditional jury trial, a jury will hear your case and will reach a decision about whether one side has to pay money to the other side. An expedited jury trial differs from a regular jury trial in several important ways:

- The trial will be shorter. Each side has 3 hours to put on all its witnesses, show the jury its evidence, and argue its case.
- The jury will be smaller. There will be 8 jurors instead of 12.
- Choosing the jury will be faster. The parties will exercise fewer challenges.
- All parties must waive their rights to appeal. In order to help keep down the costs of litigation, there are no appeals following an expedited jury trial except in very limited circumstances. These are explained more fully in 5.

(2) Will the case be in front of a judge?

The trial will take place at a courthouse and a judge, or, if you agree, a temporary judge (a court commissioner or an experienced attorney whom the court appoints to act as a judge) will handle the trial.

Does the jury have to reach a unanimous decision?

No. Just as in a traditional civil jury trial, only threequarters of the jury must agree in order to reach a decision in an expedited jury trial. With 8 people on the jury, that means that at least 6 of the jurors must agree on the verdict in an expedited jury trial.

Is the decision of the jury binding on the parties?

Generally, yes, but not always. A verdict from a jury in an expedited jury trial is like a verdict in a traditional jury trial. The court will enter a judgment based on the verdict, the jury's decision that one or more defendants will pay money to the plaintiff or that the plaintiff gets no money at all.

But parties who agree to take part in expedited jury trials are allowed to make an agreement before the trial that guarantees that the defendant will pay a certain amount to the plaintiff even if the jury decides on a lower payment or no payment. That agreement may also put a cap on the highest amount that a defendant has to pay, even if the jury decides on a higher amount. These agreements are known as "high/low agreements." You should discuss with your attorney whether you should enter into such an agreement in your case and how it will affect you.

5 Why do I give up most of my rights to appeal?

To keep costs down and provide a faster end to the case, all parties who agree to take part in an expedited jury trial must agree to waive the right to appeal the jury verdict or decisions by the judicial officer concerning the trial unless one of the following happens:

- Misconduct of the judicial officer that materially affected substantial rights of a party;
- Misconduct of the jury; or
- Corruption or fraud or some other bad act that prevented a fair trial.

In addition, parties may not ask the judge to set the jury verdict aside, except on those same grounds. Neither you nor the other side will be able to ask for a new trial on the grounds that the jury verdict was too high or too low, that legal mistakes were made before or during the trial, or that new evidence was found later.

EJT-010-INFO

Expedited Jury Trial Information Sheet

6 How else is an expedited jury trial different?

The goal of the expedited jury trial process is to have shorter and less expensive trials. The expedited jury trial rules set up some special procedures to help this happen. For example, the rules require that several weeks before the trial takes place, the parties show each other all exhibits and tell each other what witnesses will be at the trial. In addition, the judge will meet with the attorneys before the trial to work out some things in advance.

The other big difference is that the parties can make agreements about how the case will be tried so that it can be tried quickly and effectively. These agreements may include what rules will apply to the case, how many witnesses can testify for each side, what kind of evidence may be used, and what facts the parties already agree to and so do not need to take to the jury. The parties can agree to modify many of the rules that apply to trials generally or even to expedited jury trials (except for the four rules described in (1)).

(7) Who can have an expedited jury trial?

The process can be used in any civil case that the parties agree may be tried in a single day. To have an expedited jury trial, both sides must want one. Each side must agree that it will use only three hours to put on its case and agree to all the other rules in 1 above. The agreements between the parties must be put into writing in a document called a Proposed Consent Order Granting an Expedited Jury Trial, which will be submitted to the court for approval. The court must issue the consent order as proposed by the parties unless the court finds good cause why the action should not proceed through the expedited jury trial process.

8 Can I change my mind after agreeing to an expedited jury trial?

No, unless the other side or the court agrees. Once you and the other side have agreed to take part in an expedited jury trial, that agreement is binding on both sides. After you enter into the agreement, it can be changed only if both sides want to change it or stop the process or if a court decides there are good reasons the expedited jury trial should not be used in the case. This is why it is important to talk to your attorney before agreeing to an expedited jury trial.

You can find the law and rules governing expedited jury trials in Code of Civil Procedure sections 630.01–630.12 and in rules 3.1545–3.1552 of the California Rules of Court. You can find these at any county law library or online. The statutes are online at www.courts.ca.gov/rules.

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF ORANGE

ADR Information

Introduction.

Most civil disputes are resolved without filing a lawsuit, and most civil lawsuits are resolved without a trial. The courts and others offer a variety of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) processes to help people resolve disputes without a trial. ADR is usually less formal, less expensive, and less time-consuming than a trial. ADR can also give people more opportunity to determine when and how their dispute will be resolved.

BENEFITS OF ADR.

Using ADR may have a variety of benefits, depending on the type of ADR process used and the circumstances of the particular case. Some potential benefits of ADR are summarized below.

Save Time. A dispute often can be settled or decided much sooner with ADR; often in a matter of months, even weeks, while bringing a lawsuit to trial can take a year or more.

Save Money. When cases are resolved earlier through ADR, the parties may save some of the money they would have spent on attorney fees, court costs, experts' fees, and other litigation expenses.

Increase Control Over the Process and the Outcome. In ADR, parties typically play a greater role in shaping both the process and its outcome. In most ADR processes, parties have more opportunity to tell their side of the story than they do at trial. Some ADR processes, such as mediation, allow the parties to fashion creative resolutions that are not available in a trial. Other ADR processes, such as arbitration, allow the parties to choose an expert in a particular field to decide the dispute.

Preserve Relationships. ADR can be a less adversarial and hostile way to resolve a dispute. For example, an experienced mediator can help the parties effectively communicate their needs and point of view to the other side. This can be an important advantage where the parties have a relationship to preserve.

Increase Satisfaction. In a trial, there is typically a winner and a loser. The loser is not likely to be happy, and even the winner may not be completely satisfied with the outcome. ADR can help the parties find win-win solutions and achieve their real goals. This, along with all of ADR's other potential advantages, may increase the parties' overall satisfaction with both the dispute resolution process and the outcome.

Improve Attorney-Client Relationships. Attorneys may also benefit from ADR by being seen as problem-solvers rather than combatants. Quick, cost-effective, and satisfying resolutions are likely to produce happier clients and thus generate repeat business from clients and referrals of their friends and associates.

DISADVANTAGES OF ADR.

ADR may not be suitable for every dispute.

Loss of protections. If ADR is binding, the parties normally give up most court protections, including a decision by a judge or jury under formal rules of evidence and procedure, and review for legal error by an appellate court.

Less discovery. There generally is less opportunity to find out about the other side's case with ADR than with litigation. ADR may not be effective if it takes place before the parties have sufficient information to resolve the dispute.

Additional costs. The neutral may charge a fee for his or her services. If a dispute is not resolved through ADR, the parties may have to put time and money into both ADR and a lawsuit.

Effect of delays if the dispute is not resolved. Lawsuits must be brought within specified periods of time, known as statues of limitation. Parties must be careful not to let a statute of limitations run out while a dispute is in an ADR process.

TYPES OF ADR IN CIVIL CASES.

The most commonly used ADR processes are arbitration, mediation, neutral evaluation and settlement conferences.

Arbitration. In arbitration, a neutral person called an "arbitrator" hears arguments and evidence from each side and then decides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence are often relaxed. Arbitration may be either "binding" or "nonbinding." Binding arbitration means that the parties waive their right to a trial and agree to accept the arbitrator's decision as final. Generally, there is no right to appeal an arbitrator's decision. Nonbinding arbitration means that the parties are free to request a trial if they do not accept the arbitrator's decision.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Be Appropriate. Arbitration is best for cases where the parties want another person to decide the outcome of their dispute for them but would like to avoid the formality, time, and expense of a trial. It may also be appropriate for complex matters where the parties want a decision-maker who has training or experience in the subject matter of the dispute.

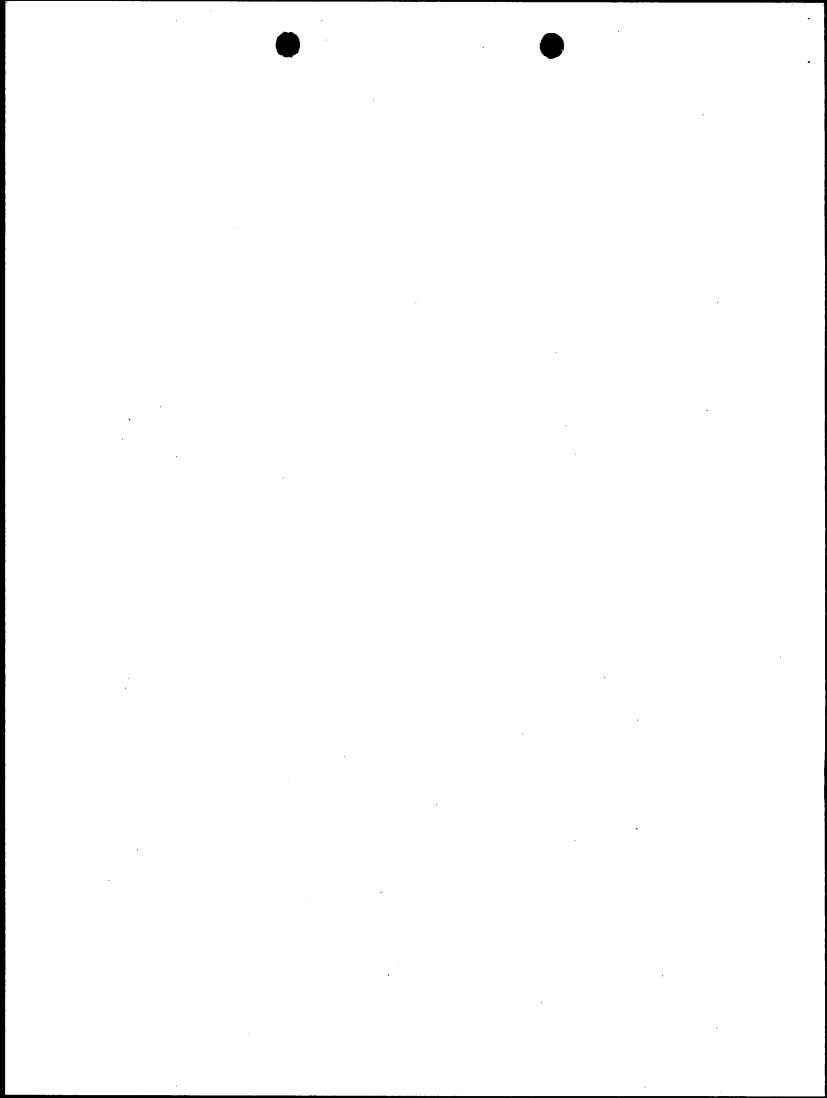

Cases for Which Arbitration May Not Be Appropriate. If parties want to retain control over how their dispute is resolved, arbitration, particularly binding arbitration, is not appropriate. In binding arbitration, the parties generally cannot appeal the arbitrator's award, even if it is not supported by the evidence or the law. Even in nonbinding arbitration, if a party requests a trial and does not receive a more favorable result at trial than in arbitration, there may be penalties.

Mediation. In mediation, an impartial person called a "mediator" helps the parties try to reach a mutually acceptable resolution of the dispute. The mediator does not decide the dispute but helps the parties communicate so they can try to settle the dispute themselves. Mediation leaves control of the outcome with the parties.

Cases for Which Mediation May Be Appropriate. Mediation may be particularly useful when parties have a relationship they want to preserve. So when family members, neighbors, or business partners have a dispute, mediation may be the ADR process to use. Mediation is also effective when emotions are getting in the way of resolution. An effective mediator can hear the parties out and help them communicate with each other in an effective and nondestructive manner.

Cases for Which Mediation May Not Be Appropriate. Mediation may not be effective if one of the parties is unwilling to cooperate or compromise. Mediation also may not be effective if one of the parties has a significant advantage in power over the other. Therefore, it may not be a good choice if the parties have a history of abuse or victimization.

Neutral Evaluation. In neutral evaluation, each party gets a chance to present the case to a neutral person called an "evaluator." The evaluator then gives an opinion on the strengths and weaknesses of each party's evidence and arguments and about how the dispute could be resolved. The evaluator is often an expert in the subject matter of the dispute. Although the evaluator's opinion is not binding, the parties typically use it as a basis for trying to negotiate a resolution of the dispute.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Be Appropriate. Neutral evaluation may be most appropriate in cases in which there are technical issues that require special expertise to resolve or the only significant issue in the case is the amount of damages.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Not Be Appropriate. Neutral evaluation may not be appropriate when there are significant personal or emotional barriers to resolving the dispute.

Settlement Conferences. Settlement conferences may be either mandatory or voluntary. In both types of settlement conferences, the parties and their attorneys meet with a judge or a neutral person called a "settlement officer" to discuss possible settlement of their dispute. The judge or settlement officer does not make a decision in the case but assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case and in negotiating a settlement. Settlement conferences are appropriate in any case where settlement is an option. Mandatory settlement conferences are often held close to the date a case is set for trial.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

In addition to mediation, arbitration, neutral evaluation, and settlement conferences, there are other types of ADR, including conciliation, fact finding, mini-trials, and summary jury trials. Sometimes parties will try a combination of ADR types. The important thing is to try to find the type or types of ADR that are most likely to resolve your dispute.

Tips for eFiling Large Documents

We noticed that your filing was submitted to the court broken down into several documents. Our staff has combined the sections of your document into one so your filing will appear correctly on the case register of actions as you intended. The following tips are provided to help you when submitting large documents in the future.

1. The majority of filings can be submitted with ease through the Electronic Filing Service Provider (EFSP).

Individual documents as large as 35 megabytes and a transaction up to 60 megabytes can be accepted. If you believe your document or transaction may exceed these limits, please contact the EFSP for assistance in optimizing your files and/or utilizing their File Transfer Protocol (FTP) for extremely large documents.

2. When deciding whether to upload a converted document or a scanned one, choose converted.

Converted documents are either created as a PDF by the user or uploaded as a word processing document (e.g. Word or WordPerfect) and converted to PDF by your EFSP.

Converted (rather than scanned) documents rarely exceed 5.0 MB, since you usually can get hundreds of pages into a 5.0 MB file. Scanned documents can be problematic since scanning creates a MUCH larger file size for the same number of pages compared to converted.

3. If your document has signatures, scanning is not mandatory.

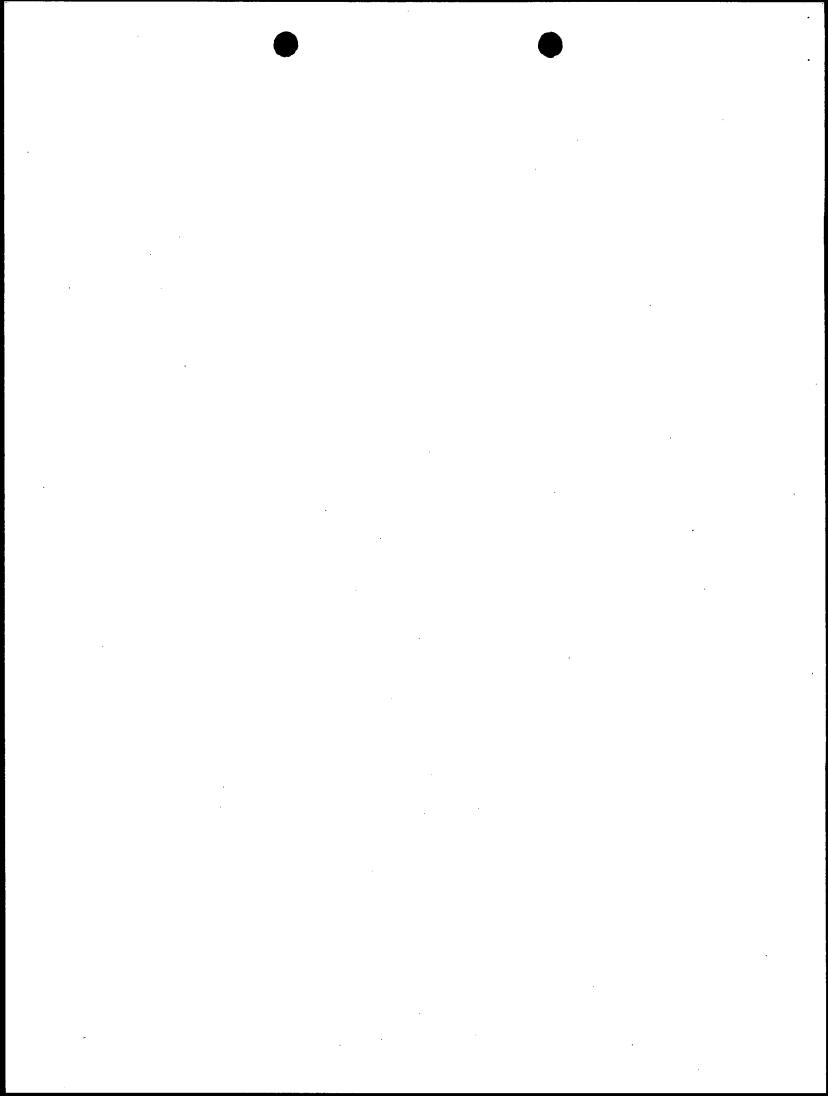

California Rules of Court, rule 2.257 outlines requirements for signatures on documents submitted electronically to the court. If you choose to sign documents prior to submitting, contact your EFSP for information on how to set up digital signatures in Word or WordPerfect so you do not have to print, sign and scan.

4. If scanning documents choose a low resolution (300 dpi) to maximize the number of pages per megabyte, while maintaining readability.

While there is no way to tell exactly how many pages you can get per megabyte, here are some examples:

- 100 pages converted to PDF may be only 1.5 MB.
- 100 pages scanned to PDF at high resolution may be up to 18.0 MB.
- 100 pages scanned to low resolution may be only 3.0 MB.

For more information on eFiling, including frequently asked questions on a variety of topics, please visit our court website at www.occourts.org.

Plaintiff XIN FAN (hereinafter "Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows:

I.

INTRODUCTION

- This case arises out of Defendant's systematic mis-classification of proposed class members as exempt from overtime pay, resulting in the non-payment of overtime compensation and failure to provide rest and meal periods to certain readily ascertainable California-based engineering employees of Defendants CONEXANT, INC. and CONEXANT SYSTEMS, INC. (hereinafter referred to collectively as "CONEXANT" or "Defendants"). The proposed Plaintiff Class covers Verification Engineers, Test Engineers, Digital Engineers, AMS Engineers, CAD Engineers, Software Engineers and Design Engineers in the following positions: "Engineer 1," "Engineer 2," "Engineer 3," "Staff Engineer" and "Senior Staff Engineer" (collectively, the "Class Positions"). The class excludes Principal Engineers, Distinguished Engineers and Technical Directors. Employees in the Class Positions primarily performed non-exempt repetitive and routine functions for the Defendants and were misclassified as exempt employees and not paid overtime compensation for those work days exceeding eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per week during the Class Period, which is defined as four years prior to the filing of the Complaint through the date of commencement of trial in the action. These employees thus are and were entitled to overtime and other protections as non-exempt employees. It is Defendants' burden of pleading, evidence and proof to show that these employees are and were exempt under California wage and hour law. These employees have spent an insignificant amount of work time doing work that qualifies as exempt, and for that reason and others, they are and always have been entitled to overtime pay and non-exempt treatment under California wage and hour law.
- 2. Class members who ended their employment with Defendant during the Class Period, but who were not timely paid wages earned as required by the Labor Code, are entitled to penalties pursuant to California Labor Code section 203.
- 3. Class members are entitled to penalties pursuant to Labor Code section 226(b) for Defendant's failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements.

- 4. As used herein, the term "Plaintiff" means XIN FAN, who is the named Plaintiff Class representative, and the terms "Class" and "Plaintiff Class" include the Plaintiff and all members of all of the proposed class and subclasses.
- 5. Plaintiff seeks restitution and compensation for work performed and moneys due to herself and the Plaintiff Class during the "Class Period," which is defined as four years prior to the filing of this action through the trial date, based upon information and belief that the Defendant is continuing, and will continue, its unlawful practices as described herein.

II.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. Venue is proper in this Judicial district and the County of Orange because, upon information and belief, Defendants reside and/or are domiciled in this county and maintain offices and transact business in this county, and work was performed by members of the class made the subject of this action in Orange County, California. Moreover, Plaintiff is a resident of Orange County.

III.

THE PARTIES

A. Plaintiff

- 7. Plaintiff XIN FAN was an employee of Defendant during the Class Period and was entitled to overtime compensation, rest and meal period compensation, wage statement penalties, and waiting time penalties from Defendant. Plaintiff was employed by Defendant for a period of time during the Class Period in salaried positions that Defendant uniformly and systematically deemed "exempt" from the requirement to pay overtime.
- 8. Each of the Plaintiff Class members are identifiable persons who were employed by the Defendant in the Class Positions.

B. Defendant

9. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that CONEXANT, INC. and CONEXANT SYSTEMS, INC. are Delaware corporations doing business in Orange County. CONEXANT INC. and CONEXANT SYSTEMS, INC. were the employers of Plaintiff and the members of the Plaintiff Class during the Class Period.

IV.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

- 10. California Labor Code section 1194 provides that notwithstanding any agreement to work for a lesser wage, an employee receiving less than the legal overtime compensation is entitled to recover in a civil action the unpaid balance of their overtime compensation, including interest thereon, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs of suit.
- 11. Further, Business and Professions Code section 17203 provides that any person who engages in unfair competition may be enjoined in any court of competent jurisdiction.

  Business and Professions Code section 17204 provides that any person who has suffered actual injury and has lost money or property as a result of the unfair competition may bring an action for restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 12. During all, or a portion, of the Class Period, Plaintiff and each member of the Plaintiff Class were employed by Defendants in the State of California.
- 13. Plaintiff and each Plaintiff Class member were truly non-exempt employees covered under one or more Industrial Welfare Commission (IWC) Wage Orders, including Wage Order 4-2000, 4-2001 ("Wage Orders"), Labor Code section 510, and/or other applicable wage orders, regulations and statutes, and each Plaintiff Class member was not subject to an exemption for computer, executive, administrative or professional employees, which imposed an obligation on the part of the Defendant to pay Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class members lawful overtime compensation, and denied meal period compensation.
- 14. During the Class Period, Defendant was obligated to pay Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class members overtime compensation for all hours worked over eight (8) hours of work in one (1) day or forty (40) hours in one week. Defendant regularly required Plaintiff and the Plaintiff Class to work overtime hours without overtime compensation.
- 15. Plaintiff and each Plaintiff Class member primarily performed non-exempt work in excess of the maximum regular rate hours set by the IWC in the above Wage Orders, regulations or statutes, and therefore entitled the Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class members to overtime compensation at the rate of time and one-half, and when applicable, double time rates as set forth by the above Wage Orders, regulations and/or statutes.

- During the Class Period, the Defendant required Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class members to work overtime without lawful compensation, in violation of the various above applicable Wage Orders, regulations and statutes, and the Defendant: (1) willfully failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse to pay lawful overtime compensation to the Plaintiff Class members; and (2) willfully failed and refused, and continue to fail and refuse to pay wages promptly when due upon termination of employment to each of the Plaintiff Class members.
- 17. During the Class Period, the Defendant required members of the Plaintiff Class to work without being given a 30-minute meal period and second 30-minute meal periods as required by law, during which Plaintiff Class members should have been relieved of all duties and free to leave the premises. Defendant did not pay any Class member one hour's pay at the employee's regular rate of pay as premium pay compensation for failure to provide meal periods.
- 18. Plaintiff Class members perform primarily non-exempt functions for the Defendant and were mis-classified as exempt employees. They do not perform work related to Defendant's general business operations but primarily perform functions related to the product or service provided by Defendant and do not exercise discretion and/or independent judgment to be exempt in an administrative capacity. They do not qualify under the computer professional exemption because they do not engage in duties that meet the test of the exemption and/or are not paid the statutory minimum to qualify. Further, they are not employed on an hourly basis with pay not less than the statutory rate set by the IWC Wage Orders and premium overtime pay. Hence, the work performed in these employee positions is not exempt work but rather is non-exempt work.
- 19. Class members who ended their employment during the Class Period, but were not paid the required overtime compensation timely upon the termination of their employment as required by Labor Code sections 201-203, are entitled to penalties as provided by California Labor Code section 203.

- 20. Class members are likewise entitled to penalties for Defendant's failure to provide accurate itemized wage statements concerning hours worked and meal periods taken.
  - 21. Both Plaintiff and the Class members worked significant overtime.

V.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated persons, as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23 and California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The class which Plaintiff seeks to represent is currently composed of and defined as follows:

All of Defendant's current and former California Verification Engineers, Test Engineers, Digital Engineers, AMS Engineers, CAD Engineers, Software Engineers and Design Engineers employees holding job positions "Engineer 1," "Engineer 2," "Engineer 3," "Staff Engineer" and "Senior Staff Engineer," employed on or after four years prior to the commencement of this action through the date of trial (the "Class" or "Plaintiff Class").

23. Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, will also seek to certify a "Waiting Time Subclass" that is currently composed of and defined as follows:

All members of the Plaintiff Class whose employment with Defendants terminated within three years prior to the commencement of this action through the date of trial.

- 24. Plaintiff reserves the right under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 and California Rule of Court Rule 3.765(b) to amend, broaden or modify the Class description with greater specificity or for further division into Subclasses or limitation to particular issues.
- 25. Ascertainable Class: The proposed class and each subclass are ascertainable in that their members can be identified and located using information contained in Defendants' payroll and personnel records.
- 26. Numerosity: The potential quantity of members of the Class and Subclasses as defined is so numerous that joinder of all members would be unfeasible and impractical. The disposition of their claims through this class action will benefit both the parties and this Court.

The quantity of members of the Class and Subclasses is unknown to Plaintiff at this time, however, it is estimated that both the Class and Subclasses number in the hundreds. The quantity and identity of such membership is readily ascertainable via inspection of Defendants' records.

- 27. Typicality: The claims of Plaintiff Fan for overtime wages, denied meal period compensation, unpaid wages, as well as penalties, interest, and attorneys' fees are typical of the claims of all members of the Class and Subclasses mentioned herein because all members of the Class and Subclasses sustained similar injuries and damages arising out of Defendants' common course of conduct in violation of law, and the injuries and damages of all members of the Class and Subclasses were caused by Defendants' wrongful conduct in violation of law, as alleged herein. All of the Class members were subject to Defendants' common policy of misclassification, as described above.
- Adequacy: Plaintiff Fan is an adequate representative of the Class and Subclasses herein, will fairly protect the interests of the members of the Class and Subclasses, has no interests antagonistic to the members of the Class and Subclasses, and will vigorously pursue this suit via attorneys who are competent, skilled and experienced in litigating matters of this type. Plaintiff Fan worked firsthand with and/or frequently observed the work of Class members in each of the above job classifications, and was familiar with their day to day job duties and their reliance upon Company standards in the performance of their work. Class Counsel are competent and experienced in litigating large employment law class actions.
- 29. Superiority: The nature of this action and the nature of laws available to Plaintiff make use of the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to afford relief to Plaintiff for the wrongs alleged herein, as follows:
- a. This case involves a large corporate Defendant and a sufficiently numerous group of individual Class members with many relatively small claims and common issues of law and fact;
- b. If each individual member of the Class and Subclasses were required to file an individual lawsuit, the large corporate Defendant would necessarily gain an unconscionable advantage because Defendant would be able to exploit and overwhelm the limited resources of each individual member of the Class and Subclasses with Defendant's vastly superior financial and legal resources;

- c. Requiring each individual member of the Class and Subclasses to pursue an individual remedy would also discourage the assertion of lawful claims by the members of the Class and Subclasses, who would be disinclined to pursue an action against Defendant because of an appreciable and justifiable fear of retaliation and permanent damage to their lives, careers and well-being;
- d. Proof of a common business practice or factual pattern, of which the members of the Class and Subclasses experienced, is representative of the Class and Subclasses herein and will establish the right of each of the members of the Class and Subclasses to recover on the causes of action alleged herein;
- e. The prosecution of separate actions by the individual members of the Class and Subclasses, even if possible, would create a substantial risk of inconsistent or varying verdicts or adjudications with respect to the individual members of the Class and Subclasses against Defendant; and which would establish potentially incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant and/or legal determinations with respect to individual members of the Class and Subclasses which would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interest of the other members of the Class and Subclasses who are not parties to the adjudications or which would substantially impair or impede the ability of the members of the Class and Subclasses to protect their interests;
- f. The claims of the individual members of the Class and Subclasses are not sufficiently large to warrant vigorous individual prosecution considering all of the concomitant costs and expenses attending thereto;
- g. Furthermore, as the damages suffered by each individual member of the class may be relatively small, the expenses and burden of individual litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual members of the class to redress the wrongs done to them, while an important public interest will be served by addressing the matter as a class action;

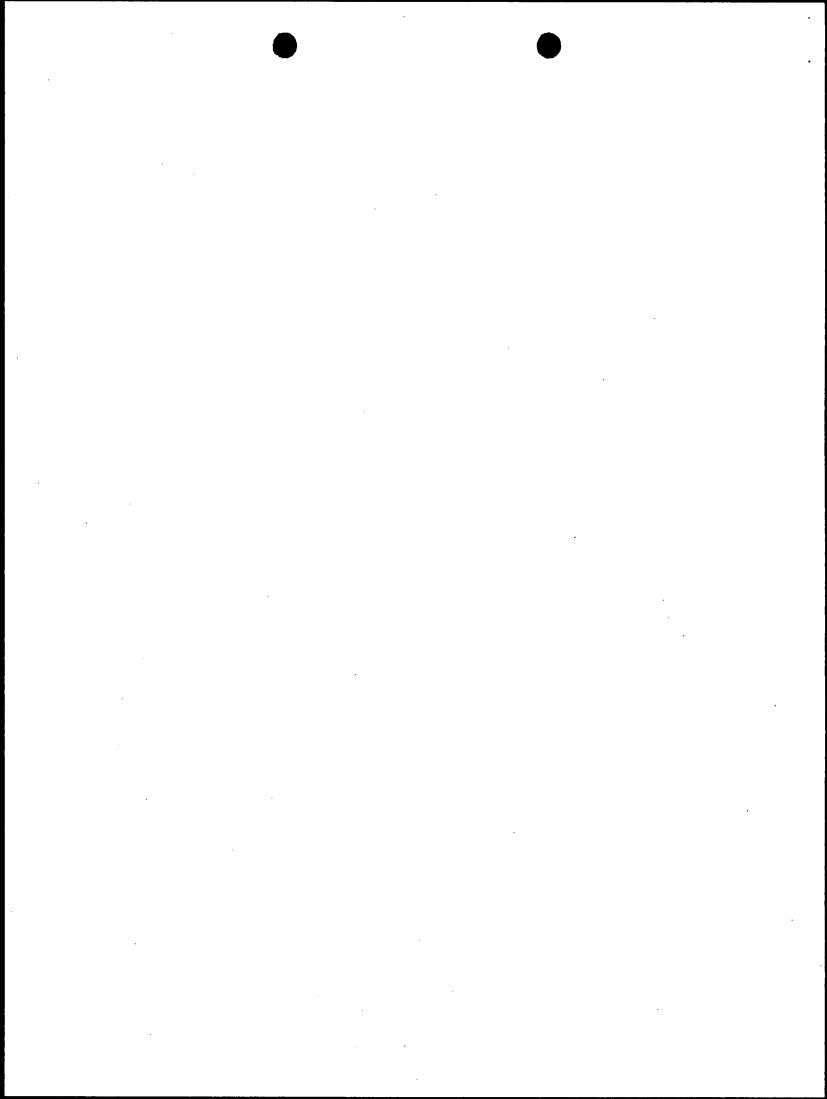

- h. The cost to the court system of adjudication of such individualized litigation would be substantial, and individualized litigation would also present the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments; and
- i. Finally, the alternative of filing a claim with the California Labor

  Commissioner is not superior, given the lack of discovery in such proceedings, the availability of fewer remedies, and the fact that the losing party has the right to a trial de novo in the Superior Court.
- 30. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions of Law and Fact: There are common questions of law and fact as to the members of the Class and Subclasses which predominate over questions affecting only individual members of the Class and Subclasses including, without limitation:
- a. Whether the Class members qualify for exempt status under the administrative exemption;
- b. Whether the Class members qualify for exempt status under the computer professional exemption;
- c. Whether the Class members were improperly mis-classified by Defendants without any analysis as to job duties performed;
- d. The extent to which Defendants analyzed the duties and responsibilities of the Class members before classifying them as exempt;
- e. The number of hours per week and per day Class members are expected to work;
- f. Defendants' expectations as to the duties and responsibilities of the Class members, and whether these expectations are reasonable under the circumstances;
- g. Whether the various tasks performed by the Class members qualify as exempt or non-exempt tasks;
- h. The number of denied meal periods for Class members over the relevant time period and the amount of pay owing and unpaid;

26

- i. Whether Defendants' withholding of overtime pay and was willful under the meaning of Labor Code Section 203;
- j. Whether Defendants failed to keep adequate records for the members of the Illegal Records Subclass pursuant to Labor Code 226(a) (and the consequence for such statutory violations if Defendants did so fail);
- k. Whether Defendants' conduct constitutes unfair competition within the meaning of Business and Professions Code sections 17200 and 17203;
- l. Whether members of the Class and Subclasses are entitled to compensatory damages, and if so, the means of measuring such damages;
  - m. Whether the members of the Class and Subclasses are entitled to restitution;
  - n. Whether Defendants are liable for pre-judgment interest; and
  - o. Whether Defendants are liable for attorneys' fees and costs.
- 31. Manageability of Class and Common Proof: The nature of this action and the nature of laws available to Plaintiff make use of the class action format a particularly efficient and appropriate procedure to afford relief to Plaintiff for the wrongs alleged herein. Specifically, the primary Class turns upon Defendants' own uniform, systematic practice of classifying all affected job positions as "salaried exempt" without any individual scrutiny of tasks and duties is in compliance with Labor Code section 1194 and the presumptions against employees being deemed "exempt" from overtime payment requirements. Therefore, the propriety of the classification scheme applicable to all employees in the specified Class Positions, without limitation, is a predominant question of fact that is easily cable of being discovered through manageable devices of common proof such as statistical random sampling, survey evidence based on scientific principles, representative testimony, documentary evidence and common practices/procedures of the Defendants in treating each of the class members as a homogeneous group in the payment of their wages. Once the predominant issue of exempt classification is determined, then each of the derivative claims of damages, if any, suffered by each member is capable of being shown by several means of common proof and limited individual showings of entitlement to recovery that can be professionally administered and tailored to the facts and circumstances of the case.

CAUSES OF ACTION

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PAY OVERTIME WAGES

- 32. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if fully alleged herein.
- 33. Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class were regularly required to work overtime hours and are entitled to overtime compensation for overtime work performed for Defendant, in an amount according to proof. Pursuant to Labor Code section 1194, the Plaintiff Class members seek the payment of all overtime compensation which they earned and accrued after four (4) years prior to filing of this complaint, according to proof.
  - 34. Class members worked significant overtime for which they were not paid.
- 35. Additionally, Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class members are entitled to attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, and prejudgment interest.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS OR COMPENSATION IN LIEU THEREOF

- 36. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if fully alleged herein.
- 37. By requiring Plaintiff and members of the Plaintiff Class she seeks to represent work periods exceeding five hours without an uninterrupted, off-duty 30-minute meal period and to work periods exceeding ten hours without a second uninterrupted, off-duty 30-minute meal period, and not compensating one hour of pay at their regular rate of compensation for each such occurrence, as alleged above, Defendants willfully violated the provisions of Labor Code sections 226.7, 512 and the applicable IWC Wage Order. Pursuant to Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512, the Plaintiff Class members seek the payment of all meal period compensation which they are owed, according to proof.

- 38. Through a policy of understaffing and overwork, the Company failed to provide Class members with meal periods, which they were entitled to by virtue of their true non-exempt status.
- 39. Additionally, Plaintiff and Plaintiff Class members are entitled to attorneys' fees, and costs, and prejudgment interest.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

WAITING TIME PENALTIES IN VIOLATION OF LABOR CODE §203

- 40. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if fully alleged herein.
- 41. Labor Code section 203 requires all employees separated from their employer be timely paid all wages owed for work performed. During the relevant time period, due to the willful failure to pay overtime wages and meal period compensation, Defendants knowingly and intentionally failed to pay all wages owed to former employees separating from their employment in the time limits proscribed by Labor Code section 203. As a consequence, for all Waiting Time Subclass members, Plaintiff seeks waiting time penalties for wages due and unpaid at the time of discharge, termination or voluntary separation.
- 42. Despite the Company's knowledge of the non-exempt nature of the Class members' work, it subjected each of them to its policy of classification as "exempt" from overtime, and thereby willfully failed to pay all wages that it knew to be due each and every pay period and at the time of separation.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

KNOWING AND INTENTIONAL FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH ITEMIZED EMPLOYEE WAGE STATEMENT PROVISIONS

- 43. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if fully alleged herein.
- 44. Labor Code section 226 requires an employer to furnish its employees with an accurate itemized statement in writing showing, among other things, (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by each respective individual, (3) all deductions, (4) net wages earned and/or (5) all applicable hourly rates in effect during each respective pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by each respective individual. Defendants systematically failed to provide such wage statements with accurate information and engaged in a policy of underpayment for all hours actually worked. The company knowingly and intentionally failed to do this because it knew that Class members should have been classified as non-exempt but nonetheless willfully continued its policy of misclassification and failed to include all hours worked on paystubs and payment for the same.

- Moreover, pursuant to Labor Code section 226, California employers are required to maintain accurate records pertaining to the total hours worked for Defendant by the members of the Class, including, but not limited to, the total hours worked per pay period and applicable rates of pay. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon alleges that Defendants did not maintain accurate records of all hours worked and instead failed to keep accurate time records of all hours worked and/or directed employees to only report 8 hours per work day irrespective of actual hours worked.
- 46. As a pattern and practice, in violation of Labor Code section 226(a), Defendants did not maintain accurate records pertaining to the total hours worked for Defendants by the members of the Class, including, but not limited to, beginning and ending of each work period, the total daily hours worked, and the total hours worked per pay period and applicable rates of pay.
- 47. Pursuant to Labor Code section 226(e), the Class members are entitled to penalties as follows:
- a. Fifty dollars ($50.00) per employee for the initial pay period in which a violation occurs; and
- b. One hundred dollars ($100.00) per employee for each violation in a subsequent pay period, not to exceed $4,000 per claimant.
  - 48. The Class members are entitled to an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

8|| //

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATIONS OF UNFAIR COMPETITION LAW

- 49. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this complaint as if fully alleged herein.
- 50. Defendants' failure to pay overtime and denied meal period pay to Plaintiff and members of the Class and Subclass, under the IWC Wage Orders and under California Labor Code, constitute unlawful activity prohibited by Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq.
- 51. Plaintiff is entitled to equitable relief as a result of such unlawful practices, for which there is no adequate remedy at law.
- 52. As a result of their unlawful acts, Defendants have reaped and continue to reap unfair benefits at the expense of Plaintiff and the Class he seeks to represent.
- 53. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants have been unjustly enriched through their failure to pay overtime wages and denied meal period pay to Plaintiff and members of the Class.
- 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Plaintiff and members of the Class are prejudiced and harmed by Defendants' unfair trade practices as actual earned and vested wages were not paid and were instead withheld illegally by Defendants.
- 55. As a direct and proximate result of the unfair business practices of Defendants, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all employees similarly situated, is entitled to equitable relief, including full restitution, and/or specific performance of payment of all wages and pay that have been unlawfully withheld from Plaintiff and members of the Class as a result of the business acts and practices described herein.
