Re: Telecomm Innovations, LLC v. Multi-Tech Systems, Inc.
 U.S. District Court, District of Delaware

Dear Mr. Gallagher:

In accordance with the agreements between Multi-Tech Systems, Inc. and Conexant Systems, Inc., including without limitation, Section 5 of Multi-Tech Systems' standard Purchase Order Terms and Conditions (attached), please be advised that Multi-Tech has recently learned that the aforementioned lawsuit was filed against Multi-Tech for alleged patent infringement related to dial-up modem technology. While the lawsuit has not yet been served upon Multi-Tech, I enclose a copy of the filed Complaint for your review.

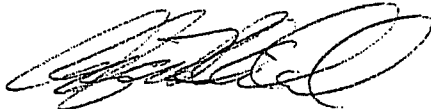

The Complaint alleges that Multi-Tech has infringed U.S. Patent Nos. 5,600,712 and 5,396,519 (the "Telecomm Patents"). Based upon our preliminary internal review, it appears that, to the extent the Telecomm Patents are applicable to Multi-Tech's products, such applicability arises out of and implicates Conexant's components, as the same are incorporated in Multi-Tech products.

Please review the enclosed and confirm that Conexant is already a licensee of the Telecomm Patents. Alternatively, Multi-Tech hereby requests that Conexant defend, indemnify and hold Multi-Tech harmless with respect to this lawsuit, including all costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees associated with such defense, to the extent arising out of Conexant's components.

We look forward to your prompt response as to how Conexant will fulfill its obligations to indemnify and defend Multi-Tech in this matter.

Sincerely,

MULTI-TECH SYSTEMS, INC.
