

EXHIBIT A

(LIST OF CHARITABLE ORGANIZATIONS)

Name of Charitable Organization	Proposed Distribution
The Anthony H.N. Schnelling Endowment Fund	$100,000

Charitable Purpose:

The Endowment fund was established by the American Bankruptcy Institute in 1989 to provide grants to fund research and education in the bankruptcy area. Projects eligible for funding include research relating to bankruptcy or insolvency; surveys or other analytical investigation; the education of judges, court personnel, other governmental personnel and the general public; scholarships or other educational grants; and any other projects with a material research or educational benefit to the bankruptcy and insolvency community. Nearly $1,000,000 in grants and scholarships have been awarded. The fund totals approximately $2.4 million and only expends interest earned on such monies. Additional information regarding the Endowment Fund can be found at <http://endowment.abi.org>.

Connections:

Anthony H.N. Schnelling was originally the Plan Administrator for the CFC Post-Consummation Estate. Mr. Schnelling was the founder of Bridge. On July 7, 2009, Mr. Schnelling passed away.

Nancy Peterman, one of the attorneys for the CFC Post-Consummation Estate, is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute's Board of Directors. Currently, Ms. Peterman is a member of the Research/Grant Committee of such Board that approves any grants of other expenditures from the Endowment Fund.

Name of Charitable Organization	Proposed Distribution
The Vision 21 Foundation	Any remaining funds (estimated at $200,000 to $300,000)

Charitable Purpose:

The Vision 21 Foundation has a simple plan: collectively, perform good and honorable acts, with the hope that these acts improve the world that we know and our descendants will know; and individually, instill in our children those values we hold true, with the desire that they do the same for their children. We believe that from our many opportunities, most of which were made possible by those who came before us, has arisen an awesome responsibility to those who follow us. This Foundation funds grants, based upon an application process, and has a focus in the consumer finance area. Additional information regarding this Foundation can be found at www.vision21foundation.org.

Connections:

Walter Morales, who is the remaining Advisory Board member, is one of the founders of this Foundation.