otherwise discriminating against the Debtors, on account of outstanding prepetition invoices or the filing of these chapter 11 cases, and determining that the Utility Companies are adequately assured of future payment, without the need for payment of additional deposits or security, pursuant to the protections established by this Motion; and it appearing that such relief is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates and creditors; and it appearing that due and proper notice has been given under the circumstances; and it appearing that no other notice is necessary; the Court being otherwise fully advised of the premises; and in light of the circumstances of the relief requested; and sufficient cause appearing therefor, on an interim basis subject to a final hearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

3. Absent further order of this Court, the Utility Companies shall not require the payment of a deposit or other security or form of adequate assurance in connection with the continued provision of Utility Services to the Debtors.
