This matter coming before the Court on the application (the "Application") dated October 16, 2012 of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") of Dickinson Theatres, Inc. (the "Debtor") for an order, pursuant to sections 327, 328, and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2014, 2016, and 5002, and Local Bankruptcy Rules 2014.1 and 2016.1, authorizing the Committee to retain and employ the law firm of Kelley Drye & Warren LLP ("Kelley Drye"), nunc pro tunc to October 4, 2012, and for allowing ongoing and interim compensation; and upon the Affidavits of Eric R. Wilson and Benjamin Blaustein, dated October 11, 2012 (respectively, the “Wilson Affidavit” and the “Blaustein Affidavit”); and on the Objection of People’s Bank thereto, and finding that adequate notice of the Application having been given; and it appearing that no other notice need be given; and that no other objections were filed, and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED that the Application is approved; and it is further

ORDERED that, based on the representations made in the Application and the Wilson and Blaustein Affidavits, that Kelley Drye and its attorneys are “disinterested” persons, as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that they neither hold nor represent any interest adverse to the Committee or the Debtor’s estate with respect to the matters upon which they are to be engaged and, therefore, are qualified as professional persons to represent the Committee as lead counsel in this case; and

ORDERED that Kelley Drye shall apply for compensation and reimbursement in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, any order entered by this Court establishing interim compensation procedures, and any other procedures as may be fixed by further orders of this Court; and it is further ORDERED that Kelley Drye is authorized to receive payment of 100% of its fees and 100% of its expenses on an interim and ongoing basis; however, this Court's approval of an application in which Kelley Drye states an intention to be compensated at a specific hourly rate does not constitute approval of the hourly rate or other terms of compensation and approval of the terms of compensation will be considered by the court when Kelley Drye makes a final application for allowance of compensation, which final application shall be subject to an objection by any party in interest, including the Debtor.
