2. Counsel for the Examinees agree to accept service of the Agreed Motion, this Agreed Order and notice/subpoena of examination. However, the Examinees preserve their rights to interpose objections to any topic designated by the Trustee in such Subpoena or Notice of Rule 2004 Examination and object during the examinations should the examination go beyond the scope of Rule 2004 or as otherwise applicable, and also to seek reimbursement of costs as applicable.

3. Trustee's special litigation counsel shall use best efforts to work with respective Examinees to resolve any disputed issues of designated topics for deposition, and shall strive to set the respective depositions for mutually agreeable dates, times and locations, with the Court retaining jurisdiction to resolve such related disputes.
