(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2)(A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises - or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3)(A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (4)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

Hi Brett,

I have spoken with our fraud detection department, and they have ordered the box with this file from our retention area. Since the case was from 2008, it became inactive and was effectively sent to the archive. Until my fraud department contact receives the box, there's not a lot SunTrust can do.

However, my contact does recall this case and remembers that SunTrust had been 'tipped off' by American Express. It appears that a number of financial institutions were sharing information with each other about this company. The attached press release eventually came to light during this information sharing process.

I would propose re-scheduling your hearing for next week. This would give my guy enough time to at least go through the box and see what we have.

Call me and let me know your thoughts - 407.237.5338.

Thanks,

John

Dear client:

I regret to inform you that SunTrust is no longer able to provide the financial services you require. As a result, we ask that you immediately close your accounts.

SunTrust continuously reviews its products, markets, and client relationships to ensure that we are able to provide the best possible client service while also meeting our corporate business objectives. There are circumstances where the company will identify a specific account relationship that no longer meets these criteria. In the best interest of our clients and SunTrust, the company will request that those accounts be closed.

Your deposit accounts with SunTrust are governed by the Rules and Regulations for Deposit Accounts, a copy of which was provided to you at account opening. As stated in the Rules and Regulations for Deposit Accounts, "We may at any time in our discretion, refuse to open an Account, refuse any deposit, limit the amount which may be deposited, return all or any part of a deposit or close the Account without advance notice to the Depositor."

In accordance with these Rules and Regulations, and as a result of a recent account review, we find it necessary to discontinue our banking relationship. We must ask that you close the below listed SunTrust accounts by July 30, 2007. If you do not close the accounts by this date, we will close them for you, and either hold the proceeds until we hear from you or we may mail you a check for any collected balance. If any account is overdrawn, the overdrawn amount is a debt owed to SunTrust, and we require payment of any such debt by the aforementioned date. You will be responsible for all items, along with any associated fees, that are presented against the accounts after closure.

Specifically, we require that you close the following accounts:

You are hereby being provided notice that all of your SunTrust Treasury Management services or products are being terminated and you will no longer have the ability to use such services or products as of July 30, 2007. We recommend that you begin immediately to make arrangements to transfer these services to a new financial institution.

If you have a SunTrust Check Card, it will become inactive within ten days of the date of this letter. Further, all related deposit or account services you may have, including Online Banking, Bill Pay and Overdraft Protection, will also be discontinued at the time your account is closed. In addition, to prepare your account for closing, you may be prohibited from making any deposits into your accounts other than cash after ten days from the date of this letter. In preparation for your account closing, you should begin immediately to make other arrangements for any automated credits to, or debits from, your accounts.

We have appreciated the opportunity to have served you up to this point and regret that we will not be in a position to continue to provide you with these banking services. The decision has been reviewed by SunTrust senior management, and it is final. If I can offer any assistance in closing your accounts, you are welcome to call me at 954-838-4778.

INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITY REVIEW

case was generated by a 314B request from Tony Scott at Suntrust bank. Scott advised Sun Trust received negative news on their customer Private Commercial Office and that their customer issued a check that was deposited into a client's Wachovia account, PCO Client Management Inc in the amount of $7,000,000 on June 1, 2007. Private Commercial Office was the subject of a warning notification letter submitted by the Austrian Financial Market Authority following complaints received by investors in that country. Scott also advised Sun Trust had not been able to identify any specific BSA violations but recent activity with the client has led to increased suspicious. Their customer receives about $24 million in foreign wires, mainly from Austria and Germany each month which is then wired out to individuals. The company claims to be a stock day trading/investment company. The first address Ulrich Engler, the owner of the business gave for the business was actually the address of a UPS Store. He was asked for an updated address. The new address turned out to be a private residence owned by a family who had been there for several years. He was sent a list of questions to answer about the nature of the business but has not answered. Sun Trust requested Wachovia share any information found regarding the client that might be deemed suspicious. The accounts were reviewed from the date they were opened through July 2, 2007.

There was one transfer from DDA 2000031965057 into DDA 2000028877271 of $500,000 on June 29, 2007. There were no debits from this account.

With the exception of a $7 million dollar check from Private Commercial Office, Inc dated 5-30-07 that was deposited into this account on 5-30-07 the day after it was opened, DDA 2000031965057 was funded entirely by wire transfers. Monies left this account via international wire transfers. During the month of June 2007 there were 1675 wire transfers from this account totaling $10,301,639.13 and 14 transfers into the account totaling $10,193,745.88. In July 2007 (current date is July 10, 2007) there were 1701 wire transfers from this account totaling 8,914,329.14 and 61 credits into the account totaling $8,803,937.29. Many of these wires went back to Austria and Germany. According to the 314B request the funds into the Sun Trust account originated in Austria and Germany.

On July 10, 2007 contact was made with this customer's financial specialist (FS) who advised she had personally been to this customer's office space which also happened to be her (signor Angelika Neumeier-Fuch's) residence. The FS advised she was told by Neumeier-Fuchs that she is from Germany and was in the process of a divorce. Neumeier said she always wanted to start her own business and live in the US so last August (2006) she moved from Germany to Florida with her 12 year old son. Her husband soon followed but on his arrival informed Neumeier that he had a girlfriend and wanted a
