Dear Sir or Madam;

My name is Jeffrey DeBois, a former employee of Erickson Retirement Communities, and am petitioning the court for payment of monies owed to me by Erickson Retirement Communities (ERC). During my employment at ERC I was awarded shares in the Growth Participation Plan for my contributions to the company's success. In 2006 this plan was modified from a long-term deferred compensation plan to a profit-sharing plan. As a part of this revision, participants in the original plan were to be paid out for their accrued value over a 4 year period, plus 9% interest on the balance. The final payment of these monies was due to be paid no later than July 31, 2009, prior to the bankruptcy filing. In addition, the Separation Agreement which I entered into with ERC included the provision that I was to receive payments per the term of the plan (paragraph 4).

I, therefore, am requesting the court rule that this final payment constitutes earned compensation and, in accordance with the proposed reorganization plan, is payable at 100%. The basis of this value is evidenced by Schedule F - Schedule of Creditors Holding Unsecured Nonpriority Claims, Vendor No. s2532

Attached is my claims form along with a copy of my Separation Agreement and letter from Plan Administrators dated June 15, 2007.

Thank you;

Jeffrey L. DeBois

Dear Jeffrey,

As you are aware, the Growth Participation Plan (GPP) has undergone significant changes over the past year. We have now completed all of the necessary updates to the Plan document and collateral materials, and we are able to provide information on your personal position in the plan.

New Plan Information:

As we announced last year, we have converted the GPP from a long-term deferred compensation plan to a more current annual profit sharing arrangement. To that end, we enclose the amended GPP Plan Document along with an overview of the changes made to the plan and your grant of units. These changes are consistent with the communication received last year.

As an existing participant in the original Plan structure, you are eligible to receive the total New Participation Unit grant associated with your position in the new Plan. The total unit grant is 350units. This grant will be issued in four installments of 87.5units each over a four year period. The installments are similar to "rolling" options, and each will have a four year growth cycle. Any value that has accumulated over the four years for the installment will be paid per the terms of the restated Plan document.

Additionally, due to your promotion in 2005, you became eligible for an additional unit grant of 50 units. This grant will also be issued in four installments, with each equal to 12.5 units. The installments may accumulate value as stated above.

The first installment of the New Participation Units for both your previous and new positions was granted in 2006 and is deemed to have increased in value $100 per New Participation Unit.

The grant issuances are evidenced by this letter. We will not be issuing separate certificates.

Original Plan Balance:

In addition to new grants under the amended plan, we are in the second year of paying out your balance accrued under the original GPP through December 31, 2005. As was discussed at the annual meeting, we are a growth company and continue to utilize our capital to start new campuses (Tall Grass Creek in Kansas City and Ashby Ponds in Virginia) in addition to supporting existing communities. We are completing the refinancing of our capital in multiple campuses and will be positioned to both fund the second installment by the end of July as well as starting our 20th community, Hickory Chase, in Ohio this fall.

Jeffrey Debois

Your balance in the original plan was fixed in 2006, with one quarter paid last year. The remaining balance is earning 9% and the second payment is targeted to be paid by the end of July. Your balance is $265,884.98 and the targeted 2007 installment, plus interest, is $88,628.33. If you are not yet vested, the installment will be directed to the account at PenCal. As a reminder, the original Plan vesting remains at 5 years of service.

We will update you on this schedule as we progress through the summer. Thanks for all your support and commitment.

If you have any other questions regarding the GPP, please contact your Human Resources Department.

Sincerely,

The Plan Administrators

RE: Separation Agreement and Release

Erickson Retirement Communities, LLC ("Company") must regretfully initiate a reduction in force. This agreement (the "Agreement") sets forth the terms and conditions for your separation from employment.

1. You will be separated as of the close of business on August 1, 2009 (the "Effective Date"). You will remain an employee at-will through the Effective Date, subject to Erickson's normal rules and standards of conduct for employees. Your duties will be to assist with completion of specific projects and transitioning of your responsibilities. If you need time for job search or interviews, we will try to accommodate your schedule. You will receive a final paycheck for your wages, minus taxes and withholdings, through the Effective Date at your current 2009 salary level, on the next regular Erickson pay-date. Your current benefits package remains in effect through the end of August 2009 with the standard payroll deduction. You will also receive a check for any accrued, unused PTO hours, minus taxes and withholdings, you have as of the Effective Date on the next regular payday after the Effective Date.

2. If you currently participate in our benefits plan, beginning September 1, 2009, you may elect to continue your current health benefits package under COBRA. If you make this election, you may be eligible for a subsidy of the cost of maintaining your COBRA benefits under a new federal law, the Americans Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 ("ARRA"). Under ARRA, for a limited period, you would be responsible for paying 35% of the ordinary COBRA premium for your benefits. For that same period, Company would be responsible for paying 65% of the ordinary COBRA premium for your benefits. According to current information, this subsidy towards your COBRA premium is for a period of up to 9 months starting with your first month of COBRA eligibility and may be discontinued if you become eligible for other benefits in certain circumstances. Further details on your rights under COBRA are included in the information package with this Agreement. Your eligibility for this subsidy does not depend on signing this Agreement. However, if you do not sign the Agreement, you will need to make your payments directly to our third party COBRA benefits administrator.

3. If you sign this Agreement and do not revoke your signature, we will also provide the benefits listed below. You will not be entitled to any other compensation, payments or benefits; however, this doesn't affect your vested retirement benefits nor any rights you have to continue your health insurance under COBRA.

- 26 weeks of separation pay at your current 2009 salary level, minus taxes, deductions, and withholdings. The separation pay will be made in bi-weekly payments in accordance with Company's regular pay dates. These payments will start on the first pay period following eight (8) days after your signature of this Agreement. However, if you accept another position with Company or another company which is managed by Company during the separation pay period, then your separation pay will end as of the start date for your new position.
- You will be eligible to participate in any group outplacement services offered by Company through its contractor(s) as part of the April 2009 reduction-in-force program.
- If you elect to continue your current health benefits package under COBRA, your eligibility for a potential subsidy of the cost under ARRA is discussed in Section 2 of this Agreement. In many cases, a 35% cost contribution would be higher than your normal monthly employee contribution to your benefits. If you sign this Agreement and do not revoke it, then during the separation pay period, we agree that you will only be responsible for paying the lesser of: (i) your normal employee contribution towards your benefits, or (ii) 35% of the ordinary COBRA premium for your benefits. Your contribution will be deducted automatically from the separation pay. After separation pay is concluded, then you will be responsible for direct payments of the 35% cost portion if you are eligible for the subsidy or the full COBRA premium if you are not eligible or if your eligibility period has concluded.

- If you participate in Company's 401k plan, you remain vested in the employer's matching contributions towards your plan per the vesting schedule which is included in your separation packet. Per the terms of the plan, you cannot make any further contributions during the separation pay period.
- If you participate and are currently vested in Company's Growth Participation Plan (GPP) Units under the terms of the old 2005 plan and/ or the terms of the 2006 plan, your vesting remains the same as of the Effective Date. All payments of GPP value will be made per the terms of the plans and may be delayed or deferred per the terms of the plans.
- If you have an outstanding employee assistance loan, we will continue to deduct the amounts you agreed upon from your final paycheck and separation paychecks. If there is still an outstanding balance after the final paycheck or separation pay is ended, we will forgive the outstanding balance.
- If you have a current agreement for tuition reimbursement, we will continue the reimbursement per the terms of our tuition reimbursement policy for this current semester only.
- If you are uncertain about your participation or vesting level in the benefits or plans named above, you may contact the HR Representative at the number provided in your separation packet.

4. You agree to return promptly all of Company's property including, but not limited to, your ID card, keys, parking pass, laptop, blackberry/ phone, equipment, and any documents or files concerning residents, employees, services, software, and business information for Company, its managed retirement communities, their members, subsidiaries, or affiliates. You agree to be reasonably available for discussions with your Company about transitioning your work. You agree to submit any expenses which you believe are reimbursable business expenses to Company within 30 days from your separation date. Company will only reimburse business expenses that are timely, genuine and reasonable, and supported by documentation as determined by Company. If you wish to keep your company phone, you will be required to transfer the account to your name and will be responsible for all charges after the Effective Date. You agree to refrain from disclosing any of Company's trade secrets, business practices, proprietary information or confidential information which you acquired during the course of your employment with Company. You also agree to keep the terms and the existence of this Agreement confidential and not to disclose this Agreement to any other person or entity, except for your attorney, your tax advisor, or your spouse, as applicable, unless otherwise required by law.

5. You agree not to communicate any derogatory or defamatory information concerning Company, its managed retirement communities, including their directors, officers, and employees to any other person or entity. Company agrees not to condone its managers communicating any derogatory or defamatory information concerning you to any other person or entity. If Company becomes aware of such conduct, Company will make a prompt and good faith effort to stop same. Company also agrees that it will not contest your application for unemployment compensation benefits.

6. In consideration for the benefits listed in Sections 3, 4, and 5 of this Agreement, you hereby release Company, its managed retirement communities, their owners, members, directors, officers, employees, agents, insurers, employee benefit plans and fiduciaries/ administrators of such plans, and all related or affiliated persons or entities (collectively the "Released Parties") of and from any and all known and unknown liability, claims, causes, demands, attorneys fees, damages, and rights, including, but not limited to, any claims which you have or may have arising out of or related to your employment, including the separation of your employment. This waiver and release includes all rights and obligations under any federal, state, or local laws, regulations, ordinances, or common law, including but not limited to all employment discrimination laws such as Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Maryland Human Rights Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 ("ADEA"), the Family & Medical Leave Act, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act ("WARN"), the Americans

7. You agree that you have not filed nor commenced any charges, complaints, claims, civil actions or other proceedings against the Released Parties in any federal, state, local or other agency, court, or tribunal. You agree not to seek or request damages in connection with any other claim, demand or charge against the Released Parties. This Agreement is not intended to interfere with any right you have to file a charge with any federal, state or local governmental agency, except that you agree that by entering into this Agreement, you waive any claim to recovery of any remedy beyond what is provided in this Agreement. You also agree that you have not been denied any leave requested under the Family and Medical Leave Act or any applicable state/ local leave laws. This paragraph does not preclude you from bringing an action to enforce the terms of this Agreement or to challenge the validity of this Agreement.

8. You agree that you had the opportunity to report to Company any violations of the Corporate Compliance Plan during your employment and you further agree that you have no knowledge of any violations of the Plan except as otherwise reported. You agree that your obligations under this Agreement are material obligations on which Company is reasonably relying. If you breach your obligations under this Agreement, Company may immediately suspend or terminate its own obligations under the Agreement, including but not limited to, its obligations to pay any and all compensation or other amounts listed in Section 3 of this Agreement or pursue an action to recover any such compensation paid or enforce performance of this Agreement.

9. This Agreement shall not be in any way construed as an admission by Company, its owners, members, directors, officers, employees, or agents of any liability, wrongdoing, discrimination, fault, or breach.

10. You are advised to consult with an attorney concerning this Agreement. In accordance with current legal requirements under the Older Workers' Benefit Protection Act, this offer will be held open for no more than forty-five (45) days from your separation date, which is listed in Section 1 of this Agreement. If you do not sign and return the Agreement within the 45 day period, the offer will automatically expire. You may use as much of this 45-day period as you wish before signing. Your signature confirms that you are entering into this Agreement voluntarily, you understand all of its terms, and that you are not relying upon any other representations or agreements of Company except for those expressly set forth in this Agreement. Once signed, this Agreement will set forth the entire agreement between Company and you and supersedes any previous agreements or discussions concerning your employment or the termination thereof, except as expressly noted above. No changes in this Agreement will be valid unless in writing and signed by both parties. In the event that any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement other than the general release language in Section 6 shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision, and the Agreement shall be construed as though it had not contained the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision.
