RE: Case Number 09-37010-sgj11
Amount Claimed: $1,618.78

To The Court:

I am filing this claim to recover severance pay that was discontinued prior to the end of my Separation Agreement from Erickson Retirement Communities, LLC. As stated in Section 3 of the attached Agreement, I was entitled to 12 weeks of separation pay at my then current 2009 salary level, minus taxes, deductions and withholdings. The pay was to be made in bi-weekly payments in accordance with the company's regular pay dates. However, I received a phone call from the Regional Marketing Director sometime in the fall of 2009 stating that due to the bankruptcy filing, the judge ordered all severance payments stopped.

As of today, January 2, 2010, I received a letter from the Commonwealth of PA stating that not only were my 26 weeks of unemployment exhausted as of the end of January 2010, but also that there are no extensions.....even though all other employees I know that were laid off received an extension and I am still on the first round of benefits. Therefore, I certainly would appreciate receiving this severance pay owed to me as we have no money coming in now except my husband's pension and his 3 day a week retail job salary. This is not even enough to cover household expenses.

Thank you for your consideration in my case.

Sincerely,

Kathleen M. Barron

DATE: July 16, 2009
RE: Separation Agreement and Release

Erickson Retirement Communities, LLC ("Company") must regretfully initiate a reduction in force. This agreement (the "Agreement") sets forth the terms and conditions for your separation from employment.

1. You will be separated as of the close of business on July 24, 2009 (the "Effective Date"). However, you should not report back to the office after you leave today. You will receive a final paycheck for your wages, minus taxes, deductions, and withholdings, through the Effective Date at your current 2009 salary level, on the normal Company pay-dates. Your current benefits package remains in effect through the end of July 2009 with the standard payroll deduction. You will also receive a check for any accrued, unused PTO hours, minus taxes, deductions, and withholdings, you have as of the Effective Date on the next regular payday after the Effective Date.

2. If you currently participate in our benefits plan, beginning August 1, 2009, you may elect to continue your current health benefits package under COBRA. If you make this election, you may be eligible for a subsidy of the cost of maintaining your COBRA benefits under a new federal law, the Americans Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 ("ARRA"). Under ARRA, for a limited period, you would be responsible for paying 35% of the ordinary COBRA premium for your benefits. For that same period, Company would be responsible for paying 65% of the ordinary COBRA premium for your benefits. According to current information, this subsidy towards your COBRA premium is for a period of up to 9 months starting with your first month of COBRA eligibility and may be discontinued if you become eligible for other benefits in certain circumstances. Further details on your rights under COBRA are included in the information package with this Agreement. Your eligibility for this subsidy does not depend on signing this Agreement. You will need to make your payments directly to our third party COBRA benefits administrator.

3. If you sign this Agreement and do not revoke your signature, we will provide the benefits listed below. You will not be entitled to any other compensation, payments or benefits; however, this doesn't affect your vested retirement benefits nor any rights you have to continue your health insurance under COBRA.

- 12 weeks of separation pay at your current 2009 salary level, minus taxes, deductions, and withholdings. The separation pay will be made in bi-weekly payments in accordance with Company's regular pay dates. These payments will start on the first pay period following eight (8) days after your signature of this Agreement. However, if you accept another position with Company or another company which is managed by Company during the separation pay period, then your separation pay will end as of the start date for your new position.
- You will be eligible to participate in any group outplacement services offered by Company through its contractor(s) as part of the Company July 2009 reduction-in-force program.
- If you participate in Company's 401k plan, you are fully vested in the employer's matching contributions towards your plan. Per the terms of the plan, you cannot make any further contributions during the separation pay period.
- If you participate and are currently vested in Company's Growth Participation Plan (GPP) Units under the terms of the old 2005 plan and/ or the terms of the 2006 plan, your vesting remains the same as of the Effective Date. All payments of GPP value will be made per the terms of the plans and may be delayed or deferred per the terms of the plans.
- If you have an outstanding employee assistance loan, we will continue to deduct the amounts you agreed upon from your final paycheck, PTO check, and separation paychecks. If there is still an outstanding balance after the separation pay is ended, we will forgive the outstanding balance.

- If you have a current agreement for tuition reimbursement, we will continue the reimbursement per the terms of our tuition reimbursement policy for this current semester only.
- If you are uncertain about your participation or vesting level in the benefits or plans named above, you may contact the HR Representative at the number provided in your separation packet.

You agree to be reasonably available for discussions with your manager about transitioning your work. You agree to submit any expenses which you believe are reimbursable business expenses to Company within 30 days from your separation date. Company will only reimburse business expenses that are timely, genuine and reasonable, and supported by documentation as determined by Company. If you wish to keep your company phone, you will be required to transfer the account to your name and will be responsible for all charges after the Effective Date. You agree to refrain from disclosing any of Company's trade secrets, business practices, proprietary information or confidential information which you acquired during the course of your employment with Company. You also agree to keep the terms and the existence of this Agreement confidential and not to disclose this Agreement to any other person or entity, except for your attorney, your tax advisor, or your spouse, as applicable, unless otherwise required by law.

5. You agree not to communicate any derogatory or defamatory information concerning Company, its subsidiaries, affiliates, or its managed retirement communities, including their directors, officers, and employees to any other person or entity. Company agrees not to condone its managers communicating any derogatory or defamatory information concerning you to any other person or entity. If Company becomes aware of such conduct, Company will make a prompt and good faith effort to stop same. You agree not to seek or request damages in connection with any other claim, demand or charge against the Released Parties. This Agreement is not intended to interfere with any right you have to file a charge with any federal, state or local governmental agency, except that you agree that by entering into this Agreement, you waive any claim to recovery of any remedy beyond what is provided in this Agreement. You also agree that you have not been denied any leave requested under the Family and Medical Leave Act or any applicable state/ local leave laws. This
