To Whom it may Concern,

On April 26th, 2000 I signed onto Brooksby Village as salaried nursing supervisor. A part of the sign on package was I would be given 100 shares in the GPP (Growth Participation Plan) per my nursing position. BBV is a retirement community that opened in the spring of 2000. My position as nursing supervisor was to assist with opening and start up of the medical component of the campus.

I would never of left my previous employer as the salary at BBV was not comparable nursing positions in the geographical area. The GPP was a very enticing perk to complement the low salary.

It would be catastrophic if John Erickson who is such a powerful man did not keep his agreement of the GPP with employees that are owed their money. I was really counting on my GPP money to help with household/retirement.

Salaried employees have worked very hard to provide elder residents the best of the best care at BBV in Peabody Ma.

Sincerely,

PATRICIA M. Glennon
