Proof of Claim

1

This claim is filed in the Chapter 11 proceedings of Erickson Retirement Communities, LLC (“Debtor”) and affiliates of the Debtor. This claim should be deemed filed in the Chapter 11 proceedings of the Debtor and its affiliates to the extent that (i) the Debtor is liable for any portion of this claim under the terms of the Insurance Program (as hereinafter defined) or applicable law and/or (ii) any portion of this claim is allocable to the estates of any of the affiliate Debtors.

2

This claim is filed by Continental Casualty Company, Columbia Casualty Company, and their American insurance affiliates (individually or collectively, the “CNA Companies” or “CNA” or “CCC”).

This claim arises under various programs of insurance maintained by CNA for the Debtor (the “Insurance Program”) prior to the bankruptcy. Under the terms of the Insurance Program, CNA issued various policies of insurance for the benefit of the Debtor and its additional insureds, which may have include professional liability, general liability, excess nursing home liability, and related coverages (the “Policies”). The periods of coverage provided under the Policies are from October 15, 2004 to January 1, 2010. The conditions of the Insurance Program are very similar to those outlined in the binder for the current policy term of January 1, 2010 to January 1, 2011, which is attached to the Proof of Claim filed in the primary case (i.e., In re Erickson Retirement Communities, LLC, 09-37010-sgj11).

Both prior and subsequent to the commencement of the Bankruptcy Proceeding, CNA provided and continues to provide insurance programs. CNA believes that there are no open balances prior to this current policy year of January 1, 2010 to January 1, 2011. Nevertheless, in an abundance of caution, the CNA is filing this proof of claim to the extent that the Debtor failed to pay or perform any of their outstanding obligations under the Insurance Program or applicable law. CNA therefore asserts this claim for the payment and performance of all amounts and obligations now or hereafter owing to them under the Insurance Program and/or applicable law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, CNA asserts all rights of indemnification, contribution and reimbursement owed to them by the Debtor.

Because all of the Debtor's obligations to CNA are presently unliquidated, the CNA is filing this Claim as unliquidated. The CNA asserts this Claim with respect to obligations and amounts owing to it that have already accrued, that continue to accrue, and that may accrue in the future. CNA reserves the right, at any time in the future, (i) to amend this Claim at any time to state a liquidated balance and (ii) to seek a judicial estimation of its Claim (or any unliquidated amounts asserted herein) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(c).

4

This Claim should be deemed secured by all amounts now or hereafter owing to CNA, whether under the Insurance Program, applicable law or otherwise. The collateral for the Insurance Program is in the form of various Letters of Credit as stated in each policy. Any amounts or credits now or hereafter owing to the Debtor should be deemed to be CNA's collateral, with CNA reserving all rights of setoff and/or recoupment to the fullest extent possible.

5

Because the amount of credits that may be owing to the Debtor, now or hereafter, is presently unknown, the secured portion of this Claim is filed as unliquidated. CNA reserves the right to amend this Claim to liquidate the credits, and any corresponding rights of setoff and recoupment. To the extent that CNA is undersecured, it reserves and asserts all unsecured and administrative claims to the fullest extent possible.
