

EXHIBIT A

INSTRUCTIONS FOR DOCUMENT REQUESTS

1. R² shall produce for inspection and copying the following documents or things no later than 10:00 a.m. on October 3, 2003, at the offices of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, 590 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10022 or at such other location as the Committee and R² may agree. To the extent documents responsive to this request are identified prior to October 3, they are to be produced on a rolling basis in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon.

2. These Document Requests are to be considered continuing so as to require the service of supplemental responses in the event that R² or anyone acting on R²'s behalf obtains, discovers or becomes aware of any additional documents responsive to these Document Requests.

3. The Definitions included herein apply to these Instructions and to the Document Requests.

4. In responding to these Document Requests, R² is required to obtain and furnish all information available to it and to any of its representatives, agents, employees and/or attorneys, and to obtain and furnish all information in its actual or constructive possession, custody or control.

5. In the event that any information or document requested by these Document Requests is withheld on the basis of the claim of privilege, state, for each such document:

- a. the nature of the privilege asserted;
- b. the identity of the attorney with respect to whom the privilege is claimed;

c. the basis for claiming the privilege as to the specific information;

d. In the event any privilege is claimed with respect to a document requested or requested to be identified, set forth in writing a statement identifying each such document by author, addressee, persons to whom copies were furnished, and date together with a description of the subject matter of each such document.

e. If any privilege is claimed with respect to any information, identify each person who has had knowledge of such information, and to whom such information has been communicated in any way, at any time.

6. If any portion of any document is responsive, the entire document or such portion that is responsive shall be produced as shall be agreed upon. Moreover, if only a part of a document is protected by any privilege, the document shall be produced with only the privileged matter redacted.

7. Documents shall be produced in the order in which they are found and shall not be rearranged. Documents that are found stapled, clipped or otherwise fastened together shall be produced in such form. Moreover, if the documents are kept in a file with a file label, a copy of that label shall be produced together with the documents in the file. Documents that are found in electronic format shall be produced in electronic format.

8. If any document responsive to these Document Requests once existed, but has been destroyed, discarded, or is otherwise not capable of being produced, furnish a list specifying each such document, why such document is not capable of being produced and setting forth the date of the document, a description of the document, the name and address of each person who prepared and received the document, the date and manner of disposal of the document and persons currently in possession or likely to be in possession of copies of the document.

9. The relevant time period for responding to these Document Requests is clearly indicated by the documents and things requested.

10. Use of the singular form of any word includes the plural and vice versa.

11. “Identify” means:

a. When referring to a person, give (to the extent known) the person’s full name and present or last known address; when referring to a natural person, also give the present or last known place of employment, and the job title or (if unknown) a description of the person’s responsibilities.

b. When referring to a document, give (to the extent known) (i) the type of document; (ii) its general subject matter; (iii) its date; and (iv) its author(s), addressee(s) and recipient(s).
