IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

IN RE:

FARMLAND INDUSTRIES, INC., et al., Case No. 02-50557-JWV

Debtors

RESPONSE TO DEBTOR'S OBJECTION TO DUPLICATE CLAIMS

COMES NOW THE Creditor, Sally J. Wiechman Revocable Trust by through its trustee Tracy L. Schmutzler, by and through their attorney, Steven R. Wiechman, and for their response to the Objection of the Debtor, alleges and states:

1. Creditor is the holder of bonds which total $248,000.

2. Debtor reports an obligation and account balance of $299,609.86.

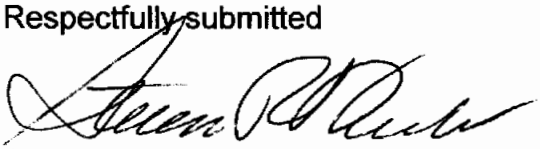
3. Creditor's claim filed was for $329,910.61 which is the stated rate of interest on the principal to the date of filing.

4. No payments have been made by the Debtor on the bond for principal or interest.

5. Creditor's claim should be allowed as filed based upon the contract bond rate and the principal remaining to be paid.

WHEREFORE, Debtor requests the Court to deny the Debtor's Second Omnibus Objection to Duplicate Claims and allow the claim filed by the Creditor and grant such other and further relief as is just and equitable in this matter.

Respectfully submitted



Steven R. Wiechman
Attorney for Debtor
