BTXN 208 (rev. 07/09)

IN RE: FiberTower Network Services Corp., et al v. Federal Communications Commission

DEBTOR

Complaint / Injunctive Relief [1] / Motion to Enforce the Automatic Stay [2]

Case # 12−04104−dml

TYPE OF HEARING

FiberTower Network Services Corp / Plaintiff

VS

Federal Communications Commission / Defendant

PLAINTIFF / MOVANT

DEFENDANT / RESPONDENT

Jason Brookner

ATTORNEY

Lloyd Randolph

ATTORNEY

EXHIBITS

1. Declaration of Kurt Van Wagenen [with Ex. A & B] as Revised and Modified by Parties — *NONE*******

1. Declaration of Kurt Van Wagenen as Revised and Modified by Parties

2. Letters in Support of FiberTower Coprporation Request for Extension of Time or, in the Alternative, Limited Waiver of Substantial Service Requirement by SprintNextel, AT&T and T−Mobile available (except for T−Mobile Letter) at http://wireless2.fcc.gov/UlsApp/ApplicationSearch/applAdmin.jsp?appIID=6807331#attachments

3. Letter dated July 23, 2012 by Counsel for FiberTower Corporation, Willkie Farr & Gallagher to Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC") regarding pending request to waive or extend deadline with attached supporting correcspondence sent by Debtor or Debtor's counsel to the FCC

4. Letter dated September 6, 2012 from Counsel to FiberTower Corporation to the Honorable Julius Genachowski, Chairman, Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC") regarding the August 22, 2012 meeting with the FCC discussing its pending Request for Extension of Time or Limited Waiver of the FCC's Substantial Service Requirement Applicable to its 24 and 39 GHz Licenses with letter of support from customers, AT&T, T−Mobile, Sprint, BridgeWave and DragonWave

5. Letter dated September 10, 2012 from Counsel for the Fixed Wireless Communications Coalition to FCC in support of FiberTower Corporation's Request for Extension of Time or Limited Waiver of the FCC's Substantial Service Requirement Applicable to its 24 and 39 GHz Licenses

S. Maben	9/12/2012	D. Michael Lynn
REPORTED BY	HEARING DATE	JUDGE PRESIDING