INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In particular types of cases or circumstances such as bankruptcy cases that are not filed voluntarily by a debtor there may be exceptions to the general rules

----- DEFINITIONS -----

Debtor

The person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case is called the debtor

Creditor

A creditor is any person, corporation, or other entity to whom the debtor owed a debt on the date that the bankruptcy case was filed

Proof of Claim

A form telling the bankruptcy court how much the debt owed a creditor at the time the bankruptcy case was filed (the amount of the creditor's claim). This form must be filed with the clerk of the bankruptcy court where the bankruptcy case was filed

Secured Claim

A claim is a secured claim to the extent that the creditor has a lien on property of the debtor (collateral) that gives the creditor the right to be paid from that property before creditors who do not have liens on the property

Examples of liens are a mortgage on real estate and a security interest in a car, truck, boat, television set, or other item of property. A lien may have been obtained through a court proceeding before the bankruptcy case began, in some states a court judgment is a lien. In addition to the extent a creditor also owes money to the debtor (has a right of setoff), the creditor's claim may be a secured claim (See also Unsecured Claim)

Unsecured Claim

If a claim is not a secured claim, it is an unsecured claim. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured if the property on which a creditor has a lien is not worth enough to pay the creditor in full

Unsecured Priority Claim

Certain types of unsecured claims are given priority, so they are to be paid in bankruptcy cases before most other unsecured claims (if there is sufficient money or property available to pay these claims). The most common types of priority claims are listed on the proof of claim form. Unsecured claims that are not specifically given priority status by the bankruptcy laws are classified as Unsecured Nonpriority Claims

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form (if not already filled in)

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number

Fill in the name of the federal judicial district where the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the name of the debtor in the bankruptcy case, and the bankruptcy case number. If you received a notice of the case from the court, all of this information is near the top of the notice

Information about Creditor

Complete the section giving the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to whom the debtor owes money or property, and the debtor's account number, if any. If anyone else has already filed a proof of claim relating to this debt, if you never received notices from the bankruptcy court about this case, if your address differs from that to which the court sent notice, or if this proof of claim replaces or changes a proof of claim that was already filed, check the appropriate box on the form

1 Basis for Claim

Check the type of debtor for which the proof of claim is being filed. If the type of debt is not listed, check 'Other' and briefly describe the type of debt. If you were an employee of the debtor, fill in your social security number and the dates of work for which you were not paid

2 Date Debt Incurred

Fill in the date when the debt first was owed by the debtor

3 Court Judgments

If you have a court judgment for this debt, state the date the court entered the judgment

4 Total Amount of Claim at Time Case Filed

Fill in the total amount of the entire claim. If interest or other charges in addition to the principal amount of the claim are included, check the appropriate place on the form and attach an itemization of the interest and charges

5 Secured Claim

Check the appropriate place if the claim is a secured claim. You must state the type and value of property that is collateral for the claim, attach copies of the documentation of your lien, and state the amount past due on the claim as of the date the bankruptcy case was filed. A claim may be partly secured and partly unsecured (See DEFINITIONS above)

6 Unsecured Priority Claim

Check the appropriate place if you have an unsecured priority claim, and state the amount entitled to priority (See DEFINITIONS above). A claim may be partly priority and partly Nonpriority if, for example, the claim is for more than the amount given priority by the law. Check the appropriate place to specify the type of priority claim

7 Credits

By signing this proof of claim, you are stating under oath that in calculating the amount of your claim you have given the debtor credit for all payments received from the debtor

8 Supporting Documents

You must attach to this proof of claim form copies of documents that show the debtor owes the debt claimed or, if the documents are too lengthy, a summary of those documents. If documents are not available, you must attach an explanation of why they are not available

Legal Advice: The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. You may want to consult an attorney to protect your rights

The FSA

Settling Party hereby consents to the rejection and termination of the FSA and all cure amounts/proof of claims asserted by Settling Party are hereby waived, whether the FSA is rejected and terminated or assigned by Debtor to AWG. Notwithstanding the above, the FSA associated with the stores of Settling Party Osborne's Four, Inc., being Hills #5, Hills #19 and Hills #34, identified as contract #'5071, shall not be rejected and terminated but will be assigned by Debtor to AWG. As referred to in recital number 4 on page 1 above, said Assignment and any other applicable assignments that are necessary for AWG to have the requisite authority to complete its obligations herein, is a condition precedent of AWG to complete before Settling Party is obligated to AWG herein. All obligations of Settling Party to Debtor shall not be conditioned on this Section. Purchaser and AWG shall cause Debtor to seek Bankruptcy Court approval of the rejection of the specific FSA or FSA's to be rejected, which rejection or assignment and assumption shall be deemed effective as of the date hereof or as of the date the Bankruptcy Court Approves. In connection with the rejection or assignment and assumption of the FSA, Settling Party hereby waives any claim for damages flowing from the rejection/Assignment of the FSA.

In connection with the termination of the FSA, AWG and Settling Party have agreed to enter into a supply agreement for the purchase and delivery of grocery products (the "New Supply Agreement") for its Piggly Wiggly store #40 on Nolensville Rd. in Nashville, TN only, said store owned by Osborne's, Inc. AWG and Settling Party agree to negotiate in good faith to finalize and execute a license agreement whereby AWG shall license the right to use the H G Hills name to Settling Party, but in no event shall the renegotiated agreement contain a reference to any option on the part of the Licensor to purchase the stores of Settling Party for any reason.

AWG, Purchaser and Settling Party shall take, and shall cause Debtor to take, as applicable, such commercially reasonable actions as are necessary to give effect to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including, among other things, the rejection or assumption and assignment of such contracts, Subleases or agreements.

Leases and Subleases

(1) Debtor, Purchaser and AWG, as the case may be, agree to give all notices and file all pleadings with the Bankruptcy Court, and to take such other steps as may be commercially reasonable (as and when such actions may be required under the Asset Purchase Agreement and the transaction documents between the respective parties) to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval for the Debtor to assign each non-residential real property lease for the location for Piggly Wiggly #40, 5127 Nolensville Rd., Nashville, TN 37211 (collectively, the "Master Lease") directly to Settling Party.

Settling Party agrees that it shall have the sole responsibility for presenting evidence of and establishing its ability to provide to the landlord of the Master Lease adequate assurances of future performance as required by Section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code at any hearing before the Bankruptcy Court to consider the assumption and assignment of such Master Lease to the Settling Party. It is expressly understood that any cure obligations due and owing to the landlord on such Master Lease in connection with such assumption and assignment shall be the sole responsibility of AWG as set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement. Settling Party agrees that none of Debtor, Purchaser or AWG shall have any liability with respect to any obligations under the Master Lease arising from and after the effective date of the assumption and assignment to Settling Party of such Master Lease. In the event the Bankruptcy Court denies the request to assume and assign the Master Lease to Settling Party, such denial shall not relieve Settling Party of any of its obligations pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, and AWG may request that such Master Lease be assumed and assigned to AWG or rejected per the Asset Purchase Agreement. Moreover, nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit or otherwise preclude the parties from negotiating, resolving and effectuating an assignment or rejection of the Master Lease contemplated herein (for the parties to effect the desired result of granting control of the leaseholds to Settling Party) by some other means, provided, however, that any such undertaking shall be subject to (i) prior written consent, (ii) the parties agreement to negotiate in good faith and (iii) Bankruptcy Court Approval. To the extent any Master Leases are rejected, or assigned and assumed by another party, Settling Party hereby waives any claim for damages against each of Debtor, C&S and AWG flowing from the rejection or the assignment and assumption of the Master Leases.

(2) Debtor, Purchaser and AWG, as the case may be, agree to give all notices and file all pleadings with the Bankruptcy Court, and to take such other steps as may be commercially reasonable (as and when such actions may be required under the Asset Purchase Agreement and the other transaction documents between the respective parties) to obtain Bankruptcy Court approval for the Debtor to reject each Sublease by and between the Debtor, or its affiliates, and Settling Party related to each of the respective Master Leases. Settling Party may request that such actions be taken concurrently and simultaneously with the assumption and assignment of such Master Leases subsequent to a determination by the Bankruptcy Court of the assumption and assignment of the Master Leases to Settling Party. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit or otherwise preclude the parties from negotiating, resolving and effectuating an assignment or rejection of the various Subleases contemplated herein by some other means, provided, however, that any such undertaking shall be subject to (i) prior written consent, (ii) the parties agreement to negotiate in good faith and (iii) Bankruptcy Court Approval. To the extent any Master Leases are rejected, or assigned to and assumed by another party, Settling Party hereby waives any claim for damages against each of Debtor, C&S and AWG flowing from the rejection or the assignment and assumption of any Sublease.

(3) However, in the event AWG must remain on the Master Lease, Sublease and/or any lease guarantee to landlord, then the Settling Party will pay AWG its standard 5% fee on the monthly rental amount pursuant to the Master Lease. In the event of any such Master Lease, Sublease or guarantee from AWG with the 5% fee, then AWG shall pass all leasehold rights and option periods it has to Settling Party exactly as the same appear in the Master Lease documents Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, at all times where AWG remains on a lease and/or guarantee of a lease or has any obligations related thereto with respect to a given store, AWG will have a mutually agreeable supply agreement with the Settling Party in connection with such store

Therefore, the Master Leases, Subleases or guarantees will be disposed of as agreed between the Parties To the extent any Master Leases, Subleases and/or guarantees are rejected, or assigned and assumed to another party, Settling Party hereby waives any claim for damages flowing from the rejection or the assignment and assumption of the Master Leases and Subleases

Release and Withdrawal of Objection by Settling Party

Settling Party agrees for itself, its successor and assigns, and its agents, directors, officers, guarantors, if any, and affiliates

(2) to withdraw the Objection

Release

Except as otherwise provided for in this agreement, each of Debtor, Purchaser and AWG agree for themselves and their agents, directors and officers

(1) to hereby release and forever discharge Settling Party and any of its/their respective successors and assigns, directors, officers, guarantors and agents, from any and all causes of action, suits, contracts, damages, costs, claims and demands whatsoever, in law or in equity, which Debtor, Purchaser and AWG or any of their agents, representatives and officers ever had, now has, or which Debtor, Purchaser, AWG themselves or their agents, representatives and officers, thereafter can, shall or may have against Settling Party, upon or by reason of any matter, cause or thing whatsoever relating to or arising out of the Bankruptcy Case or any of Debtor's business dealings with Settling Party or any of its/their subsidiaries, occurring on or prior to the date of this Agreement, and will not thereafter institute any such charges, claims or actions against Settling Party or any of its/their respective successors and assigns, directors, officers, guarantors and agents

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Settling Party shall remain liable to AWG for any rents or other leasehold obligations since August 23, 2003, for properties occupied by Settling Party that AWG has paid or is otherwise obligated to pay per the Asset Purchase Agreement or other transaction documents. Settling Party shall also remain liable on any leasehold obligations to Debtor that arose prior to August 23, 2003, such as CAM, tax, or unpaid rent.
