Re Fleming Companies, Inc
Case No 03-10945
Claim of Attorney Randy J Wynn

To Whom It May Concern

This letter is being drafted in support of a Proof of Claim that I am forwarding on this date for filing in the bankruptcy of Fleming Companies, Inc. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Wisconsin, and I have been collecting money since 1992 for Fleming Companies, Inc., for worthless checks that were bounced at various stores owned and/or operated by them in the State of Wisconsin. Attached to this letter is a list of accounts that are still in current active collection status in my office. Also attached to this letter is a status code sheet indicating the current status of collection for the various accounts listed. The names of the debtors have been crossed out due to the privacy requirements of state and federal collection laws. These accounts were opened under the name "Fleming Supermarkets" and "Sentry Markets," and judgments have already been entered on the substantial majority of these claims. The combined balances owed on these claims to Fleming Supermarkets and Sentry Markets totals $748,112.88. The accounts listed, however, are quite old and are of questionable collectability.

Under my fee agreement for collection, I take a contingent fee of 33 33% of the amount collected on any account after crediting my client for costs spent to collect the debt. As of the date of this letter, active collection on all the accounts listed has been suspended pending determination by the Bankruptcy Court of whether or not my firm is going to continue handling the collection of these accounts and on what fee basis.

Attached to this Proof of Claim are bills totaling $440.22 for costs that I have advanced for collection for the files referenced on said bills. Under my fee agreement these costs would need to be paid before collected money can be disbursed on the respective files listed. I am currently holding trust money in the amount of $60.28 for Fleming Supermarkets claims and $165.91 for Sentry Markets claims. There are also $22.00 of unused costs ready to be refunded out of my cost account for these entities as well.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please feel free to contact me should you have any further questions.

Very truly yours,

WYNN LAW OFFICE

Re Fleming Companies, Inc
Case No 03-10945
Claim of Attorney Randy J Wynn

Dear Attorney Lhulier

This letter is being drafted in support of a Proof of Claim that I am forwarding on this date for filing in the bankruptcy of Fleming Companies, Inc. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Wisconsin, and I have been collecting money since 1992 for Fleming Companies, Inc., for worthless checks that were bounced at various stores owned and/or operated by them in the State of Wisconsin. Attached to this letter is a list of accounts that are still in current active collection status in my office. Also attached to this letter is a status code sheet indicating the current status of collection for the various accounts listed. The names of the debtors have been crossed out due to the privacy requirements of state and federal collection laws. These accounts were opened under the name "Fleming Supermarkets" and "Sentry Markets," and judgments have already been entered on the substantial majority of these claims. The combined balances owed on these claims to Fleming Supermarkets and Sentry Markets totals $748,112.88. The accounts listed, however, are quite old and are of questionable collectability.

Under my fee agreement for collection, I take a contingent fee of 33.33% of the amount collected on any account after crediting my client for costs spent to collect the debt. As of the date of this letter, active collection on all the accounts listed has been suspended pending determination by the Bankruptcy Court of whether or not my firm is going to continue handling the collection of these accounts and on what fee basis.

Attached to this Proof of Claim are bills totaling $440.22 for costs that I have advanced for collection for the files referenced on said bills. Under my fee agreement these costs would need to be paid before collected money can be disbursed on the respective files listed. I am currently holding trust money in the amount of $60.28 for Fleming Supermarkets claims and $165.91 for Sentry Markets claims. There are also $22.00 of unused costs ready to be refunded out of my cost account for these entities as well.

Consistent with our telephone conversation regarding these claims, please submit this letter and the attached documents to the appropriate court and/or trustee and/or individual for review, and let me know if you want me to continue handling these collection matters. If so, I will need to know what basis I am going to be retained on and whether or not I can net out the cost balance due on the claim that I filed from subsequent collections.

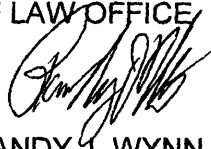

Attorney Christopher J Lhulier
September 12, 2003
Page 2

In the alternative, I would be willing to pay a nominal sum to simply buy all of these accounts. I use the word "nominal" in terms of my offer to purchase as the collectability of these remaining accounts is suspect. These accounts are many years old, and the majority of them involve claims against individuals who have little, if any, known assets or who have skipped

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I await your reply.

Very truly yours,
