rights as subrogees of the rights of the Secured Lenders (as defined below) and Indenture holders

B Existing Debt Facilities

4 The Debtors and their non-debtor subsidiaries historically have generated some of the cash necessary to finance operations by incurring certain debt obligations primarily through bank loans and through the issuance of a series of indentures from time to time. Accordingly, as of the Petition Date, the Debtors were party to or a guarantor under numerous prepetition financing arrangements, including secured bank debt arising under a credit facility and obligations arising under a series of unsecured indentures. Each of the foregoing types of indebtedness are described more fully below.

(1) Credit Facility

5 On June 18, 2002, Fleming Companies, Inc. (“Fleming”) entered into a $975 million secured credit facility with a syndicate of banks led by J.P. Morgan (the “Secured Lenders”) to refinance the then existing $850 million senior secured credit facility (the “Prepetition Credit Agreement”). Under the terms of the Prepetition Credit Agreement, the Secured Lenders made loans and advances to Fleming and issued or caused to be issued letters of credit on Fleming’s behalf, secured by first priority security interests and liens on all or substantially all of the then existing and after acquired accounts receivable, inventory, instruments and chattel paper evidencing accounts receivable or into which any accounts receivable have been, or hereafter are, converted securities, limited liability company interests, partnership interests, security entitlements, financial assets and investment property, and all proceeds and products of any of the foregoing (the “Prepetition Collateral”). The Prepetition Collateral includes all of the proceeds of the collateral existing before and after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors, other than Fleming, that are subsidiaries of Fleming, issued guarantees of the obligations of Fleming under the Prepetition Credit Agreement

6 As of the Petition Date, Fleming's entire obligation to the Secured Lenders under the Prepetition Credit Agreement was approximately $604 million. Of this entire obligation, $219 million remained outstanding under the revolving loan, $229 million remained outstanding under the term loan, and $146 million remained outstanding under certain letters of credit.

(2) Indentures

7 Fleming has further issued a series of indentures (each an "Indenture" and collectively, the "Indentures") to raise funds necessary for operations. The Debtors, other than Fleming, issued guarantees of the Indentures. Outstanding obligations under these Indentures are as follows:

(a) 10-1/8% senior notes due in 2008 Fleming entered into that certain Indenture, dated as of March 15, 2001, in which Fleming issued 10-1/8% senior notes due in 2008. The Debtors received $355 million from the sale of these notes. These notes are unsecured senior notes guaranteed by all of Fleming's Debtor subsidiaries. As of the Petition Date, Fleming was obligated to pay interest on the Indenture on April 1 and October 1 of each year.

(b) 9-1/4% senior notes due in 2010 Fleming entered into that certain Indenture, dated as of June 18, 2002, in which Fleming issued 9-1/4% senior notes due in 2010. Fleming received $200 million from the sale of these notes. These notes are unsecured senior notes guaranteed by all of Fleming's Debtor subsidiaries. As of the Petition Date, Fleming was obligated to pay interest on the Indenture on June 15 and December 15 of each year.

(c) 10-5/8% senior subordinated notes due in 2007 (two series)

Fleming entered into that certain Indenture, dated as of October 15, 2001, in which Fleming issued two series of 10-5/8% senior subordinated notes due in 2007. Fleming received an aggregate total of $400 million in exchange for these notes. These notes are unsecured senior subordinated notes guaranteed by all of Fleming's Debtor subsidiaries. As of the Petition Date, Fleming was obligated to pay interest on the Indenture on January 31 and July 31 of each year.

(d) 5-1/4% convertible senior subordinated notes due in 2009

Fleming entered into that certain Indenture, dated as of March 15, 2001, in which Fleming issued 5-1/4% convertible senior subordinated notes due in 2009. Fleming received $150 million in exchange for these notes. The holders of these notes may elect to convert the notes into the common stock of Fleming at an initial conversion price of $30.27 per share, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances as described in the Indenture. The notes are unsecured convertible senior subordinated notes guaranteed by all of Fleming's Debtor subsidiaries. As of the Petition Date, Fleming was obligated to pay interest on the Indenture on March 15 and September 15 of each year.

(e) 9-7/8% senior subordinated notes due in 2012

Fleming entered into that certain Indenture, dated as of April 15, 2002, in which Fleming issued 9-7/8% senior subordinated notes due in 2012. Fleming received $260 million in exchange for these notes. The notes are unsecured senior subordinated notes guaranteed by all of Fleming's Debtor subsidiaries. As of the Petition Date, Fleming was obligated to pay interest on the Indenture on May 1 and November 1 of each year.
