Schedule 4.11(d) - Material Acquired Contract - Leases

None.

Schedule 4.13 - Compliance with Laws

See Schedule 4.10 to the extent that any breach of contract by Fleming also involves a breach of applicable law.

See Schedule 4.14.

See Schedule 4.17.

Sellers have not filed their Form 10-K due for fiscal year ended December 29, 2002 or their form 10-Q due for the first quarter of fiscal year 2003.

Fleming is subject to an investigation by the U.S. Department of Agriculture relating to alleged violations by Fleming of Section 2.4 of the Perishable Agriculture Commodities Act (failure to make full payment promptly for fresh or frozen fruits or vegetables).

In September 2002, Fleming became subject to an inquiry by the Securities and Exchange Commission as described below:

Fleming Companies, Inc. said that the Fort Worth staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission has informed Fleming that it has commenced an informal inquiry into several matters. According to the staff, the focus of the preliminary fact finding inquiry will consist of previous media speculation regarding Fleming's vendor trade practices, the presentation of second quarter 2001 adjusted earnings per share data in Fleming's second quarter 2001 and 2002 earnings press releases, the company's accounting for drop-ship sales transactions with an unaffiliated vendor in Fleming's discontinued retail operations, and the company's calculation of comparable store sales in its discontinued retail operations.

On February 25, 2003, Fleming announced that it had been advised by the Securities and Exchange Commission that the inquiry had moved to a formal investigation.
