In Case of Errors or Inquiries About Your Bill.

The Federal Truth in Lending Act requires prompt correction of billing mistakes.

If you want to preserve your rights under the Act, here's what to do if you think your bill is wrong or if you need more information about an item on your bill:

1. Send your inquiry in writing so that the creditor receives it within 60 days after the bill was mailed to you.
2. Your written inquiry must include:
 - i. Your name and account number.
 - ii. A description of the error and an explanation (to the extent you can explain) why you believe it is an error.
 - iii. The dollar amount of the suspected error.
 - iv. Any other information (such as your address) which you think will help creditor to identify you or the reason for your complaint or inquiry.
3. The creditor must acknowledge all letters pointing out possible errors within 30 days of receipt, unless the creditor is able to correct your bill during that 30 days. Within 90 days after receiving your letter, the creditor must either correct the error or explain why it believes the bill was correct. Once the creditor has explained the bill, it has no further obligation to you even though you still believe that there is an error, except as provided in paragraph 6 below.
4. After the creditor has been notified, neither the creditor nor an attorney nor a collection agency may send you collection letters or take other collection action with respect to the amount in dispute, but periodic statements may be sent to you, and the disputed amount can be applied against your credit limit. You cannot be threatened with damage to your credit rating or sued for the amount in question, nor can the disputed amount be reported to a credit bureau or to other creditors as delinquent until the creditor has answered your inquiry. However, you remain obligated to pay the parts of your bill not in dispute.
5. If it is determined that creditor has made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges on any disputed amount. If it turns out that creditor has not made an error, you may have to pay finance charges on the amount in dispute, and you will have to make up any missed minimum or required payments on the disputed amount. Unless you have agreed that your bill was correct, the creditor must send you a written notification of what you owe; and if it is determined that the creditor did make a mistake in billing the disputed amount to you, you must be given the time to pay which you normally are given to pay undisputed amounts before any more finance charges or late payment charges on the disputed amount can be charged to you.
6. If the creditor's explanation does not satisfy you and you notify the creditor in writing within 10 days after receiving your explanation that you still refuse to pay the disputed amount, the creditor may report you to credit bureaus and other creditors and may pursue regular collection procedures. But the creditor must also report that you think you do not owe the money, and the creditor must let you know to whom such reports were made. Once the matter has been settled, the creditor must notify those to whom the creditor reported you as delinquent of the subsequent resolution.
7. If the creditor does not follow these rules, it is not allowed to collect the first $50 of the disputed amount and finance charges, even if the bill turns out to be correct.
8. If you have a problem with property or services purchased with a credit card, you have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on them if you first try in good faith to return them or give the merchant a chance to correct the problem. There are two limitations on this right:
 1. You must have bought them in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of the current mailing address; and
 2. The purchase price must have been more than $50.

However, these limitations do not apply if the merchant is owned or operated by the creditor, or if the creditor mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

This is a summary of your rights; a full statement of your rights and the creditor's responsibilities under the Federal Fair Credit Billing Act will be sent to you both upon request and in response to a billing error notice.

CLERK
US BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

DEBTORS' FIRST OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CLAIMS (NON-SUBSTANTIVE)

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors"), by and through their undersigned counsel, file this First Omnibus Objection to Claims (the "First Omnibus Objection"). In support of this First Omnibus Objection, the Debtors state the following:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the First Omnibus Objection pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2)(A) and (O).

2. The bases for the relief requested are 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 502 and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007.

BACKGROUND

3. On April 1, 2003 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and commenced the above-captioned Cases (the "Cases"). The Debtors continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors and debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 14, 2003, the United States Trustee appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"). No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these Cases.

4. On June 10, 2003, the Debtors filed a motion (the "Bar Date Motion") for an order pursuant to Sections 105(a), 501, 502 and 1111(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rules 2002(a)(7), 3003(c)(3) and 5005(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules), establishing a bar date for filing proofs of claim and proofs of interest and approving the form and manner of notice thereof.

5. On June 25, 2003, following a hearing on the Bar Date Motion, the Court entered an order fixing the bar date for filing proofs of claim (the "Bar Date Order"). Under the Bar Date Order, all entities, other than governmental units and certain specified entities which were excluded from the Bar Date Order, were required to file prepetition claims no later than September 15, 2003 (the "General Bar Date"). All governmental units were required to file prepetition claims no later than October 1, 2003 (the "Governmental Unit Bar Date").

6. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, the Debtors served notice of the bar date (the "Bar Date Notice") along with a customized proof of claim form at least forty-five (45) days before the Bar Date on all known persons and entities holding Claims and/or interests in the Debtors, by first class United States mail, postage prepaid. In addition, the Debtors published the Bar Date Notice at least forty-five (45) days before the Bar Date in the The Wall Street Journal (national), The New York Times (national), USA Today (national), USA Today (worldwide), International Herald Tribune (worldwide), and Toronto Globe and Mail (international).

THE OBJECTION AND REQUEST FOR RELIEF

7. By this First Omnibus Objection, the Debtors seek disallowance and expungement of the claims set forth herein and on the exhibits attached hereto for the reasons described herein and on such exhibits:

- (a) The Claims set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto as "Duplicate Claims" are claims that duplicate pending claims that have already been filed in these Cases in the same amount by the same creditor against the same Debtor (the "Duplicate Claims"); and
- (b) The Claims set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto as "Amended Claims" are claims that have been amended and superseded by later-filed claims that are currently pending (the "Amended Claims").

The Duplicate Claims

8. The Debtors object to the Duplicate Claims listed on Exhibit A attached hereto pursuant to Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code because these claims are duplicative of other pending claims (the "Remaining Claims"). The Debtors propose that the Duplicate Claims, each of which is noted as a "Duplicate Claim" on Exhibit A, be disallowed and expunged for all purposes and that each Claim listed on Exhibit A as the "Remaining Claim" be unaffected by this First Omnibus Objection.

The Amended Claims

9. The Debtors object to the Amended Claims listed on Exhibit B attached hereto pursuant to Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code because the Amended Claims are claims that have been amended and superseded by later-filed claims that are currently pending in these Cases. As such, the Amended Claims are duplicate claims. The Debtors propose that the Amended Claims, each of which is noted as an "Amended Claim" on Exhibit B, be disallowed and expunged for all purposes, and that each Claim listed on Exhibit B as the "Remaining Claim" be unaffected by this First Omnibus Objection. The Debtors propose to treat all supporting documentation that was filed in support of a claim that is expunged as an Amended Claim as having been filed in support of the applicable "Remaining Claim."

RESERVATION

10. The Debtors reserve the right to file a reply to any response that is filed with respect to this First Omnibus Objection.

11. The Debtors hereby reserve the right, consistent with the local rules of this Court, Orders of the Court, and any other applicable law, to object in the future to any of the claims listed in this First Omnibus Objection or on the exhibits on any ground, and to amend, modify and/or supplement this First Omnibus Objection, including, without limitation, to object to amended claims and newly-filed claims. Separate notice and hearing will be scheduled for any such objection.

12. Notwithstanding anything contained in this First Omnibus Objection or the exhibits, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver of any rights that the Debtors may have (a) to bring avoidance actions under the applicable sections of the Bankruptcy Code, including, but not limited to, 11 U.S.C. § 547, against the holders of claims subject to the First Omnibus Objection; or (b) to exercise its rights of setoff against the holders of such claims relating to such avoidance actions.

NOTICE

13. The Debtors' noticing agent, Bankruptcy Management Corporation ("BMC") will serve copies of this First Omnibus Objection (with all exhibits) on (a) the Office of the United States Trustee; (b) counsel for the Creditors' Committee; (c) counsel for the Debtors' prepetition lenders and (d) on all parties that have requested notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002 (the "2002 List").

14. BMC will serve a copy of the First Omnibus Objection and customized notices that summarize claim-specific detail exactly as reflected on the exhibit on which such creditor is listed (the "Customized Notice") upon those creditors that have filed claims that are affected by the First Omnibus Objection in lieu of serving all exhibits on each such affected creditor.² A sample Customized Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Any party may obtain a copy of the First Omnibus Objection and/or the exhibits thereto by requesting the same from BMC at (888) 909-0100 or by accessing the BMC website at <http://www.bmccorp.net>.

15. The Debtors submit that notice of this First Omnibus Objection is sufficient under Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Rule 3007-1 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware and that no further notice is necessary.

² The Exhibits are voluminous and include details of objections to numerous claims and mailing of the same would be expensive to the Debtors, would not provide any additional information valuable to the affected creditor and would increase the risk of creditor confusion.

16. Additionally, the Debtors, by and through their counsel, state that the First Omnibus Objection and related exhibits attached hereto comply with Rule 3007-1 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

NO PREVIOUS REQUEST

17. No previous request for the specific relief set forth herein has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order disallowing and expunging each of the Claims as requested in this First Omnibus Objection and/or listed on the exhibits attached hereto.
